FOOD FOR MILK COWS.—At a large milk establishment, near New Castle, England, the cows are fed in the following manner: 19 pounds of clover hay—cut or chopped—168 lbs. brewer's grains, 12 lbs. ground flaxseed, 2 lbs. salt, and mixed together, and equally divided as the daily food for twelve cows. The hay, after being cut, is put into the mash tub and scalded with boiling water. The other articles are then mixed with it. It is stated that a good cow thus fed, will yield an average of fourteen quarts of milk per day, for eight months in succession. The owner of the establishment, Mr. Arundale, stated that he had one cow which had not a calf for two years and a half, that was giving an average of eight quarts per day. A great point observed is, that the cows never fall off in condition.—Cultivator.

LIFE PRESERVER FOR THRESHERS.—Take a piece of the finest sponge, large enough to cover the mouth and nostrils, hollow it out so as to fit loosely; take a tape string around the outside long enough for the ends to tie over the top of the head, soak the sponge in soft water and squeeze the water out with the hand, then when ready to commence work, tie on tightly and evenly, so as to cover the nostrils completely. You can breathe and talk through the sponge almost as freely as without it, (though it will trouble those who use the "filthy weed,") and you can throw over the dust from the machine rises like a dense fog around the head, and the lungs will be as free from harm as if you were hoeing corn. I have threshed with a machine for the last four years, and always suffered much from the dust inhaled into the lungs, until last year, when I tried the sponge, and I can truly say it has been a life preserver to me.—Ohio Cultivator.

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, &c. DYSPEPSIA, And all Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

DYSPEPSIA, or Indigestion and its consequences.—An eminent Professor says: "It chiefly arises in persons who lead either a very sedentary or irregular life. Although not regarded as a fatal disease, yet, if neglected, it may bring on incurable Melancholy, Jaundice, Madness, or Vertigo, Palsy, and Apoplexy. A gross singularity attendant on it is, that it may and often does continue a great length of time without any remission of the symptoms."

CAUSES.—Grief and uneasiness of mind, intense study, profuse evacuations, excess in venery, excessive use of spirituous liquors, tea, tobacco, opium and other narcotics, immoderate repletion, or over distention of the stomach, deficiency in the secretion of the bile or gastric juice, exposure to cold and damp air, are the chief causes of this disease.

SYMPTOMS.—Loss of appetite, nausea, heart-burn, acidity and painful eructations, gnawing of the stomach when empty, uneasiness in the throat, pain in the side, costiveness, chilliness, languor, loss of spirits, palpitations, and disturbed sleep.

TREATMENT.—DR. ALLEN'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND has never failed in affording immediate relief and a radical cure for this disease. Principal Office, No. 77 N. Eighth st., east side, Philadelphia. For sale in Gettysburg by S. S. FORNEY. July 30, 1847.—ly

Dr. C. W. Appleton's Celebrated Remedy FOR DEAFNESS, PAIN, and discharge of matter from the Ear, together with all other symptoms, which either accompany or announce, approaching Deafness. This invaluable medicine is the result of a long and faithfully pursued course of experiments instituted with the sole view to discover (if possible) a certain and at the same time, a safe remedy for this distressing, afflicting disorder, and after being extensively used in the private practice of the subscriber during the last eight years, in very numerous cases, with the most remarkable success, is now offered to the public for the benefit of those who, from distance or other causes, cannot have the personal attention of the proprietor, in the fullest confidence of its efficacy, and in the firm belief that it will not disappoint the expectations of those who may have recourse to its use; in short, that it is the most VALUABLE article ever offered to the public for this disease.

ROSS' EXPECTORANT, FOR THE CURE OF Consumption, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Spitting of Blood, Sore Throat, Pains and Oppressions of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and all other Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

ROSS' EXPECTORANT, FOR THE CURE OF Consumption, Coughs, Whooping Cough, Spitting of Blood, Sore Throat, Pains and Oppressions of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and all other Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

Read the following Certificate from Mr. T. S. Allen, a gentleman well known in this City, who was cured of the use of two bottles of the Expectorant, after every thing else had failed to afford any relief. This is but one of a number of which the proprietor has in his possession, all of which, in due time, will be laid before the public, and will very amply prove the truth of the following statement:—

Mr. J. P. Ross—Dear Sir: About four weeks ago I caught a severe cold which fell upon my breast, accompanied with pain in my side and dry hacking cough. I commenced taking any dry coughing medicine that was recommended to me, but from which I derived not the least benefit. I then commenced drinking freely of composition tea, but with the same result; in fact, my cough was getting so necessary to my repose, that I was with difficulty I could pass a night. On the 10th of your request, I was induced to try your Expectorant, and I am happy to inform you I was entirely cured by the use of two bottles.

I remain, very respectfully, Dear Sir, Yours, T. S. ALLEN, Esq., Fayette st.

CAUTION!—In consequence of the many preparations now before the public under the names of "Extracts," "Balm," "Syrup," &c. and even of a similar name, the proprietor deems it necessary to caution the public against Counterfeiters who may be tempted to imitate his "Ross' Expectorant—Improved—Baltimore, Md." in blown in the glass; the initials "J. P. R." connected capitals stamped on the seal, and written in ink on the wrapper, without which it cannot be genuine.

Price, 50 cents per bottle, and the money to be refunded if a cure be not effected, when taken according to directions! Prepared only by J. P. ROSS, Druggist, Baltimore. For sale by Samuel H. Buehler, Gettysburg. Geo. W. Haffner, Fairfield. Wm. M. Kellewell, Petersburg. REMEMBER—NO CURE—NO PAY! [May 29, 1847.—ly]

THIS certain cure for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera, and Morbid Bile, &c. &c. is so well known to all who have tested its virtues within the last few months it has been offered to the public. Read the Certificate of Dr. Ross, a highly respected physician of Philadelphia:—

"Gentlemen:—In consequence of the many good effects of your CARMINATIVE SYRUP, after having been cured of various severe attacks of Diarrhoea, within the last few months. Being afflicted with the same, in its most acute form, it took much persuasion from friends to try it. I have used it as a 'family medicine,' to induce me to make use of it. He spoke so confidently, I gave it a trial; and I was not slow to make a trial of it, on the second attack, having been cured of the same, in a few days. I have prescribed the Carminative Syrup, in a great many of my patients, and I am pleased to say, with the same good effects. You are at liberty to use this as you please. Yours &c. Dr. J. P.
