

Franklin, Perry, Dauphin, Cumberland, York and Adams, are invited to send delegates from towns, districts, and churches, to a Convention to be held on Wednesday the 29th of November next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., in the English Lutheran Church, Gettysburg. Several Addresses may be expected from

Rov. Messrs. Nevin, Sharp, and Morris, Judge Hepburn, A. R. Stevenson, Esq., and others.

Rev. D. D. Clarke, Rev. J. N. Hoffman, Rev. W. Phillips, I. M. Ahl, Rev. S. Sprecher, Rev. A. W. Nevin, Oct. 27, 1848. S. Small, Gen. Fetter, [Commit

[Committee

Feditors in Franklin, Perry, Dauphin, Cum-berland, York, and Adams counties are requested to copy.

and fine assortment of

🕿 HATS AND CAPS 🛥 of every decription and fashion, at his old Stand, which he wants to sell at low prices for good pay.

He earnestly requests those indebted to him, to come and settle their accounts, as money is much wanted and he must have it. He respectfully notifies those who owe him wood, that now is the time to use it and sell it, and if not delivered soon, he will certainly require cash in place of it. Come one, come all !

W. W. PAXTON. Oct. 27, 1848 -31

Domestic Industry is the Wealth of Nations.

THE subscriber has a good assortment he is prepared to sell at 1 to 1 lower than heretofore, and much LOWER than they are regularly retailed at in the entics.

A good fur flat, w granted,			- 5	51	0
Fine Silk, do fur body,				2	ø
Fina Nutria, do,				3	۴.
Fine Monteray, do.				1	0
Russia, do.				2	ō
Moleskin, extra quality,	₹2	50	to	4	Ū.

Fine Russia Hats, and other kinds Low. The public are invited to call and satisfy themselves.

BUT TERMS Casu, and only one price. S. S. M'CREARY. Gettysburg, July 14, 1818.--- the stakes of Freedom. GEN. ZACHARY TAYLOR. FOR VICE PRESIDENT. That Lewis Cass said at Cleveland, MILLARD, FILLMORE. that the success of the Locofoco par-SENATORIAL BLECTORS. ty would be an endorsement of the John P. Sandarson, of Lebanon county, Thomas M. T. M'Kennan, of Washington county. REPRESENTATIVE ELECTORS. is willing to endorse the Annexation Jos. G. Clarkson, 'Jno.'P. Wetherill, 13. Henry Johnson, 14. Wm. Colder, Sen of Texas the extension of slavery S. James M. Davis, 4. Thos. W. Duffield, 15. Wm M'Hvain. 16. Chas. W. Fisher. the unconstitutional commencement of the War-the censure of General Tay-17. And. G. Curtin, 18. Thos R. Davidso Daniel O. Hitner, Joshua Dungan, John D. Steele, lor's humanity-the repeal of the Tar-19. Joseph Markle iff of '42-or the Veto of the River 20. Daniel Agnew, John Landes.

GETTYSBURG.

Friday Evening, November 3, 1848.

FOR PRESIDENT,

 Daniel Agnew,
 21. A. W. Loomin,
 22. Richard Irwin,
 13. Thomas H. Sill,
 24. S. A. Purviance. Jos. Schmucker, Charles Snyder, Wm. G. Hurley Francis Tyler,

THE TAYLOR PLATFORM.

"I have no private purposes to accomplish, no party purposes to build up, no enemies to punish --nothing to serve but my country." "The power given by the Constitution to the bor. If he is elected, the whole power of the Government will be exerted to enrich the manufacturers of Executive, to interpose his veto, is a high conser-vative power, which should nover be exercised ex-cept in cases of clear violation of the Constitution, Europe and impoverish the manufacturers of our country. manifest haste and want of consideration by

REMEMBER "The personal opinions of the individual who That Lewis Cass; through the Balmay happen to occupy the Executive chair, ought not to control the action of Congress in questions of timore Convention, has declared that domestic policy, nor ought his abjections to be in-terposed where questions of constitutional power have been settled by the various departments of general system for the improvement and Harbor bill !

government and acquiesced in by the people." "Upon the subjects of the tariff, the currency, ism is hostile to our internal Comimprovement of our great highways, rivers, lakes, and harbors, the will of the people, as exmerce They can expend thousands pressed through their representatives in Congress, ought to be respected and carried out by the Ex-"War, at all times, and under all circumstances, Sandbars from our own Rivers .--- their representatives, An opportunity will soon be presented to rebuke u-surpations. To neglect this opportunity will be to endorse the usurpers.

REMEMBER

REMEMBER

pledged Lewis Cass to oppose the principle of Protection to Home La-

That the Baltimore Convention has

To improve it will be to strengthen is a national calamity, to be avoided, if compatible with national honor." "The principles of our They can commission a score of Nagovernment, as well as its true policy, are opnos val officers to analyze the waters of a ed to the subjugation of other nations, and the dismemberment of other countries by conquest; for, in the language of the great Washington, Lake in Palestine, but they cannot expend a farthing to build or improve "why should we quit our own to stand on foreign ground." Z. TAYLOR. Harbors upon our own Lakes.

REMEMBER IT For my part, in the dark and troubled night That while the true policy of this that is upon us. I see no star above the horizo promising light to guide us, but the intelligent, patriotic, UNITED WHIG PARTY of the Uniountry is Peace and Amity with oth-DANIEL WEBSTER.

temptuously Vetoed the known will not only represented James K, Polk as of the People as expressed through in favor, of the Tariff, but that they strenuously contended that he was the especial friend, and advocate of the inv encrow for the brave fellows who had fall en and those who were set to big the day of these things we need but refer, among many others, to the following article, published during that campaign in the Harrisburg "Union," then edited by E. W. HUTTER, who is now Chairman of the Locofoco State Central Committee : Cat to the acts of the present Executive, and a Col. Polk and the Tariff-A Vile guide to his successors. What Whig touch, rouse and animate the lice

We perceive that the Harrisburg Intelligencer, with the mendacity so aminently the characteristic, of the coon papers, denounces Col. Polk in advance as an "open and avowed Free-trade theorist." The authority for this gratuitous assertion is of course, not furnished by the Intelligencer, as it is the policy of the Whig press Gen. Taylor upon the above occasion o deal in institual, misrepresentation both of the men and measures of the Democratic party. Now we happen to know, and state, upon the authority of a Tennesseean with whom we conversed at Baltimorea near neighbor of Col. Polk-that he holds the doctrine of Free-trade in unqualified abhorrence. HE NEVER ADVO. OATED IT, AND HE NEVER WILL, He is in favor of a judicious revenue tariff. affording the ampleat incidental, PROTEC-MION TO AMERICAN INDUSTRY. He is the especial friend and advocate of the COAL AND IRON, INTERESTS, those two great objects of solicitude with Pennsyl-vanians, and believing PERMANENCE in our laws to be of intalculable value, is opposed to the disturbance of the existing of our Rivers and Harbors is uncon- opposed to the antisvance of the choice of the choice of the choice of the constitutional. The policy of locofoco- pon the very ber duthority; and continue of the very ber duthority; and continvers of the very the democracy of this great | State against listening to the misrepresentation of the coons. The truth is, the strong names of upon a survey of the Dead Sea, but POLK and DALLAS have struck out ennot a dollar to remove Snags and emies with such deep consternation as to make them desperate in feeling and unscrupulous in the use of means.

Pennsylvaniaus !

REMEMBER that ILEWIS CASS for the conception, and reverence him for voted in favor of the REAL of the Whig Tariff of 1812, and in favor of the British Free-trade Tariff of 1846. shall never pass them alige !" Remember that LEWIS CASS is

THE FARMER AND THE TAILOR the candidate of the British Free Trade party, and that his election to the Presier nations, Lewis Cass is the bluster- American people in throt of the British

Gen. Taylor came and sat down by him. the firm determination on his baow see

- when, on being interroyated as is his purposes, he replied while the first of in unconquered will gleaned in his eye. "My wounded are befind we, and T alar never pass them allow I many and the history of the When a solution of the second second second second when a solution of the second secon What a noble sentiment !... How admi-rably suited for a moto for the Tayler banners for the second of Never How full of sympathy for the wor rank and file, how well calculate it to of the American people. Who would see play to rally under such a chiefnan ? The liero the Christian, and the Man, are at one united in Zachary, Taylor ; and his heart is an generous and magamaimous, as his head is signations and clear. Never did the human heart conceive in this city ; we refer to the lovying of coth nobler sentiment than the one stered by As represented by Col. Davis, the inter view between Gen. Taylor and himself occurred at the most critical period of the battle of Buena Vista, when the roor of the cantion was loudest, and when the balls fell fastest. Col. Duris had been severely wounded and lay blending on the carth. 'At this junction of peril, deeply solidious as to the lasse of the merger conflict, Col. Davis inquired of Gen. Tay. lor as to his purposet how characteristi of the patriot and the chivalric commander was the reply, My wounded are be wind nie, and I shall never pass them a ed in the Mexican way, if concentrated Generous old inan ! How fall of feeling must have been his heart at a moment like the one in which he came to the reso lution of never leaving his wounded to the mercy of his enemy. There is a moral beauty in the sentiment a grandesr in the thought which should endear every patriot in the land to Gen. Taylor. Po is own fate, he thought not ; but all his thoughts were for his country and the brave men who had fallen around him .---Who, that has a heart sensible of what is due to true nobility of soul, but will, love the good old soldien-but will admitte him derroad, az extensive scheme is contemthe utterance of such a sentiment as this; "My wounded are behind we, and I TODES.

CAPITAL DECUTION CRAREAR LARGERER, COnvicted of the many securred to him, as to disparity of forces, etween, their gimation and that of Henry V. at Agincourt, He also said that, at A farmer going into a tailor shop, on a tailor shop, on a farmer during that the details was part of a good cloth coat, the cloth as be that the Moraling Them, of this principal, officers role up to him. The Song again of American manufacture.

come. Every body knows him as a successful comander, who has achieved some of the most bril. liant victories of which history furnishes any record; and every body is acquainted with the con-age, judgment, and presence of mind by which these triumphs were won; but many have yet to learn the full beauty of his private character. We have been led to these remarks by meeting, during, the same hour, but in different papers, with the an-nexed articles, each disclosing some new trait and new beauty in the porsonal character of the good

Letter from the Rev. THOMAS SAVAOR, of man in Salem, Massachusetts, dated

Bedford, New Hampshire, to a gentle,

BEDFORD, (N. H.) September 18, 1848.

DEAR SIR : Since my return from a vis-at the South, many inquiries have been made of me concerning Gen. TAYLOR.

with whom I had repeated interviews last winter, both in Mississippi and Louisiana,

Such is the solicitude in the public mind on this subject, and so few in this section of the country have any personal know-edge of this distinguished man, that I have thought it my duty to commit to writing my recollections of him, such as were in-eidentally gathered from a few social calls

Having known something of each other twenty-five years ago at Baton Rouge, where I was then engaged in the Christian ministry, there was probably less of ceremony about our intercourse than if we had been entire strangers. Gen. Taylor is a man of plain common sense, conversing freely on all practical subjects, and with amid the scenes of a camp and the hardt his leisure moments.

and brave General

 TATOM T. MALLEN, WART OF COMPARISE Links of the Stream of the second of t

A Wholespic Scheme of Corruption. the Fer Fort Rupper basia I odl

Wasserverres, October 14 2014 Bas I weit an art ye yen an arts of imperative stars, obied I faits of gains? I have it from the way best stationary that the latest policy. officialis at Winding this have advanty cause and argonic tass an Winding this have advanty cause and created to the the Descentry party shall carry Pennsylve-tion in Research on the state of the case of her and the state of the state of the case of her and the state of the state of the case of the state of the state of the state of the state can be sated, that the B must be raised, and that Permeylemia must be carried for Cass and Bellin, of a particular must be carried for Case and Deline, of a participation of the above is strictly turn, and I do thank you could not do a better thing then by sinking your Participation irrelated ac-quiring of the informal democratic schemati-If the White of the Keystone State do not strain every nerve in November, they will be defeated by the unpublished energy.

In publishing this disclosure, the Na-florial fatelligencer says, R " comes as we happen to know, flori in honorable source, and which, as we she happen to know, is correlianted by indesures now in progress withutions an domenutic effice-balders, to be used in Pennsylvania to carry the State be need in Pressylvania to carry the State for the emittent and entiting to complete candidate for the Presidency." If the Administration at Washington expects, by the base application of money, levied anong its hitchings and menials, to buy the suffrages of Pressylvania farmers and machanics, it will write up to a reality, even shore shallowing this that which ring the unexpected news of defast in their man, here washe arts." Our Wheet stoop men how weaks age to Our sonest people have been deceived by confiding in demarogues and traiters ; but they have never yet been sold like antis, non world all the adaeds of millions that ware squander. mildness and modesty you would hardly expect from one who has passed his life

The second secon and managers at Washington fixed deters should, think, may, have contributed as mined upon this gigenic experiment of much as any thing else, to the surprising bribery, to effect similar results. We can autocat, that strended his movements in the net une our friends too strangly to the same any and stand at subversents in the vigitant, particularly, along the counties tamilarly remarked to me, without the bestaring on New York, where, it is and that the conversation would ever.

dentered, an extensive scheme is content, be Appaired that it gras on his lips once or plated for the incoduction of fundulant wice during the heat of the engagement, to mention to his officers the parallel that At Cast and day by Z. day

II. M'CREARY, AVING just returned from the city with the latest Fall Fashions, informs "If Gen. TAYLOR is elected he will do more to CUBB THE SPIRIT OF CONQUEST and CHECK THE SPIREAD OF SLAVERY than ing our own to stand upon foreign the ladics of Gettysburg and vicinity, that she has purchased an assortment of ed States."

Concress."

BONNETS, Bonnet Silks, Satins, Velvets, Ribbons,

Artificial Flowers, Cap Nets, and Illusions, together with every other article requisito complete her stock of Millinery, and which she will dispose of on the most reasonable terms.

Gettysburg, Oct. 80, 1848.*

NOTICE.

ETTERS of Administration on the A Estate of PETER B. HAINS, late of Reading township, Adams county, de ceased, having been granted to the subscriber, residing in the town of Hampton he hereby gives notice to all indebted to said estate, to make payment without delay, and to those having claims to present the same, properly authenticated, for sufflement.

JOHN BROUGH, Adm'r.

NOTICE.

Mountpleasant ip, Adams co. dee'd, having Zack's Coming," and expects the Rough been granted to the subscriber, notice is and Ready boys of "Old Menallen" to be hereby given to all who are indebted to said about on the 7th November, and roll up nia. His idea is that it would not be Estate, to make payment without delay, and for him 200 majority. We can do it shall wise to quarrel with the South on the shine, they should provide ways for all to those having claims to present the same, we make the effort? properly authenticated, to the subscriber, Let all who are disposed to sustain the residing in the same township, for settle man who has done so much to sustain the

MICHAEL LEVENSTINE.

and want Bier Sup artilles a san't

NOTICE, ETTERS of Administration on the Es- A take of ALLOWAYS MILLER, Inte of who NEVER SURRENDERS, WOLA Southern Slaveholders to carry their slaves into New Mexico and Califor- able conveyances for all their voters who cannot the mere question of excluding Slavery temporarily from free territories honor and interests of his country, turn out recently acquired. This concession on Saturday, and lend a hand to the good would render slavery permanent in Phane alestion of the Caylor. Start birger (boost in the phane alestion of the phane alestic the phan ng Advocate of War and Conquest,

If it severe storin or any kind of "bad woathe should blow oil the day of election, let the Whige of the several townships see to providing comfort conveniently get to the election without. . Wheththe polls and likve no coliveyance of their own .-REMEMBER PRIST.

SINDULAR CASE OF AMALGAMATION. Some weeks back. between $3,000 and

The Balancia state which a Balancia of the ind and the second state will be the second state of the ind and the second state of the second of American manufacture. The tailor replied that English clothe you don't cheat me with grour English who must otherwise have perished in the without a deep impression that, though a trash, for if you do, it will be the last coat beining martnerst. Upon examination peace, the enverses like a man who has a both were found to be severely injured. thought much and real much in the enverse

The rest of the second second mun, which he declined in consequence of stude and colusion.

uosity about him that would betray him into an oath under any circumstances ; to say nothing of the restraint from higher, considerations.

In company, I believe the General is: miformly affable and communicative Inoticed a slight hesitation in his utterance, which at first gives the appearance of embarrassment ; but as the conversation proceeds it passes away. A saw him genorally in citizen's dress, and as 1 listened to his remarks on agriculture or the passing topics of the day, I forgot the hero of Buona Vista in the plainness and simplicity of a private genileman. You. cannot be in his company half an hour thought much and read much in the course of his life, and whose leisure has been devoted to mental cultivation. ... Indeed, J should think his literary attained by

The likeness of him that first appeared

Triver-producing in a good year three