GREAT EXCITEMENT IN CANADA .---- In the Canadian Legislature, now in session, a bill tase been brought forward to indem-nify the sufferers by the late rebellion to e smount of a million of dollars. The French population, it will be remembered, were the principal movers in Wednesday, 28, 31 37 that rebellion, and the proposition to in- Thursday, March 1, 28 33 demnity those who suffered by it has creand an immense excitement. In the course of a discussion of the bill, which the ministers are pushing with all their pow-er, the Solicitor General, Mr. Blake, cal-led Sir Allea McNab, the hero of the burn-ing of the Caroline, a rebel. This led to an discussion, and finally to a regular fight. Status and Miss Carmanize Farr-all of Nork county.
