Kingsbridge, September 19, 1845; Dr. C. V. Clickener:

Dr. C. VsUlckener: Dear Sit — Some time last sommer I was rery soddenly selzed with an extraordinary looseness of the bowels, which continued for then to vomit, without being able to raise any-thing. I found no difficulty, however, in eating, although it seemed, after all, to do me no good. Pidle; while a third advised me to try something: ble, facility to applications, very desire-else. I chose, however, to prescribe for myself. I had heard a great deal about the virtues of your Sugar Coaled Vegetable with revenues of

I had heard a great deal about the virtues of your Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills from several of my neighbors; and therefore concluded. If they had cured others, there was no reason why they should not cure me. A dose or two son convinced me that my conclusion was con-rect. I found the midness of their operations particularly adapted to complaints of this nature. The change in my feelings was gradual but none the less certain. The symptomi be gan to abate after the second or third dote. strength returned; and the third or fourth box me restored to my accustomed health which has always been remarkably good.
