rigorously observed, produced an effect on this self-conceited man far more powerful than the irons and the dungeon. He felt himself humbled by this isolation, this to-tal abandonment, in the full enjoyment of his liberty. At length, after much hesita-tion, he began to mix with the other inva-lids. From that time forward he visibly improved, and in less than a year he was sufficiently recovered to acknowledge the full cover vision for acknowledge the submission frank, the mercy and generos-tor, he began to mix with a year he was sufficiently recovered to acknowledge the full cover vision frank, the mercy and generos-tor he for mer vision frank, the mercy and generos-tor he for merciant the submission frank, the mercy and generos-tor he for merciant the submission frank, the mercy and generosimproved, and in test dual to leave the submission frank, the mercy and generos-folly of his former ideas, and to leave the biotre. * * * Fifty lunatics were in this manner re-lased from their chains in the space of a few days. Amongst them were individ-uals of every rank of life and from every country. Hence the great aneloration, the imperial hootrs, as and estimates to the restance have orders to pay to attention to treatment of insume patients, which, until the, has been looked on as imprac-treated. or at least frought with the utmost denore.
