This complaint has three steges. The first or quotidian comes on every 24 hours; the tertian, every 40 hours; and the quastian, every 45 hours. These are usually called the hot, the cold, ami sweating. The symptoms are yawning and stretching; cold hands and feet; a shrivelled skin, a small and frequent pulse; and finally a old shake.

Who would shiver and shake with this tormenting disease, when the only effectual remed certificate was wholly unsolicited, and the sin-cerity of the writer cannot be questioned. This certifies that my son had been treabled
