My reply is as follows:

For about the many years I had been suffering from Dyspepsia. Every year the symptoms become worse, nor contial lobtain parmanent relief from any course of medical reatment whatever. About fourters years since, in consequence of frequent exposure to the weather, in the discharge of my pastoral duties, I became subject to a severe Chrinic Rheimanten, which for year after year, caused me indescribable anguish. Farther: in the wister of 45 and 46. In consequence of presching a great deal in my own and various other churches in this region, I was attacked by the Bronchitis, which some became so nevers as to require an immediate supreminor of my reatons.
