Da. S. P. Tewnsenn—Dear Sir. I am constrained to give you a statement of the benefit I derived from using your Bersepartile, believing, by so doing, I shall reader a benefit to those who are sufficing as I have been. I was reduced for many months by the Dyspepsia, so much that it was with much difficulty for me to walk or keep about. I had also a tester, which covered the most part of my bend—which was extremely troublesome and sory; it got to be almost a such. I used quite a summer of remedies for both, the complaints, but received little or no benefit, until I took your Sersaparilla, which, through the hindness of Providence, has rectored me to more than my awash health, as I am now enjoying better than I have far a number of years. I am now 60 years of age. I believe it to be an invaluable medicine, and recommend it to my sumerous acquaintnane, which is very large, as I have been a minister a great many years. I hop this harty akelot may be a much benefit to you so your medicine has to me.
