• contraction of the second se	-1E S	TAR			NNE
DURA DE C. H. BUEHLER.			"FEARLESS AND FREE."	a a series de la companya de la comp A series de la companya de la company A series de la companya de la company	*	TWO DOLLARS PEB ANNUM.
YAL 2.11-25.		GETTYSBURG,	PA. FRIDAY EVENING,	AUGUST 23, 1850.	<ul> <li>An and the second se Second second secon</li></ul>	INEW SERIES-NO. 187.
The first of the f	great coat, was riding about in the envi- rons of Munich, attended only by orderly officers. He met on the road a very prei- ty female, who, by her dress, was evident- ly a vivandiere. She was weeping and leading by the hand a little boy a bout five years of age. Struck by the beauty of the years of age, Struck by the beauty of the years of age, by the road side, and said : "What is the distress, the emperor pul- led up his horse, by the road side, and said : "What is the matter with you, my dear ?" The woman, not knowing the individ- ual by whom she was addressed, and be- ing much discomposed by grief, made uo reply. The little boy, however, was more communicative, and he frankly answered : "My mother is erying, sir, because my father has beat her." "Where is your father ?" "Chose by here. He is one of the sen- tinels on duty with the baggage." The Emperor again addressed himself to the woman, and inquired the name of her husband ; but she refused to tell, be- ing afraid lest the Captain, as she suppos- ed the Emperor to be, would cause her husband to be punished. Napoleon, I am sorry to say, had but little confidence in the her her her how here in the here his here in	the enemy, and leave me to manage my wife." Nspoleon laughed, and said, "My good fellow you are now, speaking to the Em- peror." The word produced its usual magical af, fect. The greandjer looked confused, held down his head, lowered his voice, and asid: "Oh, Sire ! that quite alters the case Since your Majesty commands, I of course obey." "That's right. I hear an excellent char- acter of your wife. Every body speaks well of her. She braved my displeasure rather than expose you to punishment Reward her by kind treatment. I pro- mote you to the rank of surgeant, and when you arrive at Munich, apply to the Grand Marochal du Palais, and he will present you with four hundred frances. With that you may by a suffer's carayan, which will enable your wife to carry on a pro- fitable business. Your son is a fine boy, and at some future time he shall be provi- ded for. But mind, never let me hear of yoar beating your wife again. If I do, you shall find that I can deal hard blows as well as you."	A correspondent of the Boston trans- cript relates the following anecdotes of the Rev. Mather Bytes, the well known joking clergyman of Boston. Mr. By- les lived at the time of the revolution, and was a tory: The distillery of Thomas Hill was at the corner of Esters and South streets, not far from Mr. Belkmap's residence in Lincoln Street. Dr. Byles called on Mr. Hill and inquired "Do you still ?" "That is my business," Mr. Hill re- plied. "Then," said Mr. Byles, "will you go with me and still my wife?" As he was once occupied in nailing some list upon his doors, to exclude the cold, a parishioneer mid to him: "Yes, sir," replied the doctor, "and man listeth wheresoever the wind bloweth." He was intimate jwith General Knox, who was a bookseller before the war When the American's troops took posse- sion of the town, after the evacuation, Knox, who became quits corpulent, march- ed in, at the head of his artillery. As he passed on, Byles, who thought himself privileged, on old scores, exclaimed, foud enough to be heard- "I never saw on or (a Knox) futter in	Society for three and forty years, from 1733 to 1776, and have separated from them, at last, for political considerations alonc. THE PORTRY OF STEAM.—If an ancient Greek were evoked from his tomb of ages, and set to wander through the wonderful country we term unpoetical, he would be thrilled with mingled delight and awo, and his impressions would gush forth in a tor- rent of song. The manufactory would be to him a world of poetry; the thunder of its machinery would be more truly than that of the tempest, the voice of viewless, but intelligent spirits ; and its productions, changing from rudo, shapeless masses, till they come forth in form and beauty, would appear the work of enchantment.— The fiery locomotive skinming like the wind slong the surface of the earth, gliding by the hide of precipices, spanning gorger and valleys, and plunging with a rush and a roar into cavierns as black as Erebus would take away his breath ; while the steamship with her banner of smoke, at tempting impossibilities, yea, getting the better of them, smiling, defying up into the very eye of the tempest, and hunghing a	a member of a leading commission-house in his native town, a zealous Methodist there, not "quite so much so" at New Or- leans, but shrewd enough in trade any- where : "Some years ago the Methodists were holding a camp-meeting in the country, a few miles from this place, and Harry was present. On Sunday evening a sermon had been preached, and an effort made to get up an excitement, but in vain. By- and-by Harry arose and commenced sing- ing, walking about the altar, up and down the aisles, shaking hands with the breth- ren, etc. At the end of each verse was a familiar chorus, something like this : "Shall I ever get to heaven, hallelujah, hallelujah, Shall I ever get to heaven, hallelujah, hallelujah, I end get get get get get get get get	and season with sait and pepper. A - due quantity of water be added, no sais will be necessary. Sauce thus prepared is not too acid to be eaten with mest; but when otherways used, the flavor is render- ed more agreeable to the palate of most people by adding a small quantity of fine sugar, honey or molasses. Tomato Dumplings. —Take the skin carefully from the tomato without ruptu- ring the meat. The process of making, cooking, and saucing, is the same as that pursued in forming and preparing apple dumplings. Tomato Jelly. —Having dirested toma- toes from the runds, squeeze them through a fine cloth, add to the mass its weight of dry sugar; boil to jelly and bottle it close- ly. It should be kept in a cool, but not freezing place. Jelly prepared in this manner, will ratain its flavor unimpaird for a long time. It is an excellent article. Broiled Tomatoes. —Select the largest, eut them in two and broil them over a moderate fire till done. Add a little butter, or salt and pepper, and you have an excel- lent dish. Rate Tomatoes. —Take the ripest fruit, cut it into vinegar in thin slices, the same as encumbers, add a little pepper and salty.
With all their awful shadows o'r the earth, Since this green turi was laid above thy rest, Nid sighs and streaming tesrs and stilled grean But Oh! thy gentle memory is not dim Jp the desp hearts that loved theo We have set This sweet young rose-tree o'er thy hallowed grav And may the skice shed their serenest dews Around it, may the summer clouds distil Wheir gentlest raise upon it, may the fresh, Warm gentyse fan it with their softest breath,	be said ; "Malpeste ! your husband has been beating you; you are weeping, and yet you are service of retting him into trouble.	in another campaign. Napoleon, you know, had a wonderful power of recollect- ing the countenances of persons whom he	feit offended by this freedom, especially from Byles, who was then well known to be a tory; and replied, in uncourtly terms, that he was a	Chamber's Journal. Assargerida.—'I'his article is obtained from a large umbelliferous plant growing in Persia. The root resembles a large parsuip externally, of a black color; or	When a gentleman feels desirous of ta- king unto himself a wife, he sends to a pa- ternal head of some family containing daughters, for specimens of the sizes of their feet with the prices attached. One foot is valued at perhaps two thousand dollars, the next smallest at five thousand, and so forth vecording to the myrket.—	Tomato OmeletProcure two quarts of perfectly fresh and ripe tomatoes, cut

Their gentlest rains upon it, may the fresh, Werm peophyra fan it with their softest breath, And daily may the bright and holy beams Of norming growt it with their sweetest smile, "That it may wave, its rosse o'er thy dus, Dear embleme of the flowers that thou so oft In ilis didst fling upon our happy hearts From thy own spirit's Eden. Yet we know "Fis but an humble offering to thee, Whe dwellest where the fadeless roses bloom In heavon's stornet sunshine.

To our over Thy beauty has not faded from the earth We set is in the flowers that lift their lids We state it in the flowers that lift their itids "Bis great the sariy apring-time—in the bow "The magic puncie of the sumhine paints Upon the flying rain-clouds—in the stars. That glitter from the blue aliyss of night— And in the strange mysterious loveliness Of every hely sumst. To our cars "The music of thy loved tones is not lost;" We hear it in the low, sweet calcuces of music and steam and fourthin in the non-Of wave and stream and fountain, in the notes Of birds that from the sky and forest hail The survise with their songs, and in the wild, And soul-like breathings of the evening wind for all the thousand sweet Ziolian lyres Of grove and forest. Yet no night or sound In all the world of nature is as sweet, In all the world of nature is an aweet, Dear, lost Virginia, as when thou wast here To juse and listen with us. The young flower And the pure stars seem pale, and cold, and dim, As if they looked through blinding tears-alas ! The tears are in our eyes. The melodies Of wave and stream and bird and forest-harp, Bome on the soft wings of the evening gale, form blanded with a deep wail for the dead-Also 1 the wail is in our hearts.

Lost one ! We miss thes in our sain that you are a little in the fault yourself " he met and recognized the vivandiere and as a tory, and subsequently tried, convict- in Persia. The root "Alas, Captain 1 he has a thousand good qualities, though he has one very bad one : saying : he is jealous, terribly jealous, and when he gets into a passion, cannot restrain his do ? Has your husband kept the promise violence." he made to me ?" "But that is rather serious; in one of The poor woman burst into tears, and his fits of jealousy he may inflict on you threw herself at the Emperor's feet. "Oh, Sire ! Oh, Sire ! Since my good some very severe injury, perhaps kill star led me into the gracious presence of vou.' "And even if he did, I should not wish your Majesty, I have been the happiest of any harm to come to him, for I am sure romen. he would not do it willingly. He loves "Then reward me by being the most me too well for that." virtuous of wives." "And if I guess rightly, you love him." A few pieces of gold were presented "That is very natural, Captain : he is with these words; and, as Napoleon rode off, the cries of vive l'Emperour, uttered my lawful husband, and the father of my dear boy." amidst tears and sobs, by the mother and So saying, she fondly kissed her child, her son, were enthusiastically repeated by who, by the way he returned her caresses, the whole battalion. proved his affection for his mother. Naoleon was moved by this touching picture One Paul Denton, a Methodist preach n spite of the heart of iron, of marble or er in Texas, advertised a barbacue, with better liquor than is usually furnished.---of adamant, which has so often been allotted to him. "Well," said he again, turning to the When the people were assembled, a des woman, "whether you and your husand period in the crowd cried out, "Mr. Paul love each other or not, I do not choose that Denton, your reverence has lied. You Denton, your reverence has lied. You he should beat you-I am-I am one of promised us not only a good barbacue but better liquor. Where is the liquor ?" the Emperor's aides-do-camp, and I will mention the affair to his Majesty-tell me your husband's name.'

would not tell you, for I know he would be punished." "Silly woman! all I want is to teach of the earth. "There !" he repeated, with a look terhim to behave well to you, and treat you with the respect you deserve." rible as the lighning, while his eveny ac-"That would make me very happy, tually trembled at his feet; there is the liquor which God, the Eternal, brews for Captain, but though he ill treats me, I will not get him punished." all his children ! Not in the simmering still, over smoky The Emperor shrugged up his shoulders, made some remark upon female obstinacy, fires, choked with poisonous gasses, and surrounded with the stench of sickening and galloned off. When he was out of the woman's hear odors and rank corruptions, doth your ing, he said to the officers who accompan-ied him : Father in Heave prepare the precious esence of life, the pure cold water. ... But in "Well, gentlemen, what do you think of the green glade and grasy dell, where the that affectionate creature ? There are not red deer wanders, and the child loves to many such women at the Tuillerics. A play, there God brews it; and down, low wife like that is a treasure to her husband." down in the deepest vallics, where the In the course of a few minutes the bagfountain murmurs and the rills sing; and high upon the tall mountain tops, where the naked granite glitters like gold in the gage of which the boy had spoken, came up. It was seconed by a company of the Fifty-Second, Napoleon despatched one un, where the storm cloud broods, and of the officers who was riding with him, to the thunder storms crash, and away far desire the commander of the escort to come out on the wide wild sea, where the hurricane howls music, and the big waves տ հim.

A SPLENDID DESCRIPTION.

in the ice gem, till the trees all seemed turned to living jewels, spreading a golden

"Well, my good woman, how do you with his family in 40 days. This sentence was changed, by the board of war, to confinement in his own house, A guard was placed over him. After a last of a deep brown color. It is very apt hick to take a view of the fair one; and to run to putrefaction; and hence those if she suits his taste, he admits her. As replaced and again removed, alterwards who collect is carafully defend it from soon as she passes his threshold she be-doctor exclaimed that he had been guard the sun. The fresh juice has an excession as his lawful wife ; but if he does not to have a diminers of honey, and the greatest friends ed, regarded, and disregarded. He called sively strong smell, which grows weaker and weaker upon keeping; a single dram Perceiving one morning, that the senti-def the fresh fluid, smells more than a hun-Perceiving one morning, that the senti-nel, a simple fellow, was absent, and see-ing Dr. Byles himself, pacing before his own door, with a musket of his shoulder, cause : "You see," said the doctor, "I begged the sentinel to let me go for some milk for my family, but he would not suffer me to stir. I reasoned the matter with him, and he has gone himself to get it for me, amination of the official returs to the Secon condition that I keep guard in his absence.

One bitter December night, he called

He had a small collection of curiosites. "There !" answered the missionary, in the doctor put her in the closet and buttoned her in. After a few remarks, the ladies expressed a wish to see the Doctor's curiosities, which he proceeded to exhibit ; and after entertaining them very agreeably for several hours, he told them he had kept the greatest curiosity to the last; and, proceeding to the closet, unbut-toned the door, and exhibited Mrs. Byles. He had complained long, often, and fruitlessly, to the selectmen of a quagmire in front of his dwelling. One morning two of the fathers of the town, after a violent rain, passing with to an empty train at Gravesend, and the the spring without the loss of flesh, and their chaise, became stuck in the bog. As driver inving leaped from his engine, the being turned on Sweet pastures, at the they were striving to extricate themselves, latter started alone full speed for Loadon: proper time, they get in good order tor and pulling to the right and to the left, the Doctor came forth, and bowing with great | egraph to London and other stations ; and, politencas, exclaimed---- ed, ond sentenced to confinement, on board cutting it transversely, the assaficatida ex-a guard ship, and to be sent to England uses in form of a thick white juice, like longs, is chosen, she is sent in a sedan up eight eggs, and mix them thoroughly with the mass by rapid stirring. In a few cream ; which from exposure to the air, chair to the intended husband's house ; he with the mass by rapid stlrring. In a few becomes yellower and yellower, and at meets her at the door, looks into the ve- minutes the dish will be done.

and weaker upon kceping ; a single dram is carried whither she came.

own door, with a musket of his shoulder, it fire sings on put part of the sings of put as scarcely any one will receive it along of glass "Selling off-no reasonable offer strip Mr. Maclaurin in mathematics as the neighbors stepped over to enquire the with other commodities, its stench infect- refused-must close on Saturday." This much as they did in making honey. It

EDUCATION AND CRIME .- Mr. J. J. Randall, of New York, states that an ex- "But you are about to remove, are you amination of the official return to the Sec. not ?" "No." "Why, you write up retary of State by the Sheriffe of the sev. Selling off." "Yes, every shop here is selling off." "You say, 'No reasonable eral countins, of the convictions had in the several courts of record throughout the his daughters from their bed, simply to en-quire if they hay warm. He bestions in the respective cities, from the offers, "" "Why, I should be very unressonable if I did refuse such essions in the respective cities, from the offers," " "But you say, "Must close on ven 1840 to 1849, both inclusive, com- Saturilay." " "To be sure ; you would not "If you were the Emperor himself, I less fuger at the matchless double spring, siring to hide herself, as she would not de formes in the several counties and entry. London paper. citize in the State, during the eriou relerturned as having received a common edur ucation, and 129 only as well educated. Of the remaining 26,225, about half were due were destitute of any education what-red to, was 27,949; of these 1,181 were re- which is cut while it is in blossom and eraging one trip each 20 days. carefully made, will fatten cattle nearly as cation, 414 as having a tolerably good od, well in dry as in a green state. Some of the best farmers in the Western part of able merely to read and write. The real hay for this purpose; Mr. Bowdish, of due were destitute of any education what for its quilities and fine condition, informlike the lady, he shuts the door, and she that the young swarm, who begin making honey three or four months after they are born, and immediately construct their mathemetical cells, should have gained the mathematical knowledge as we gain ours, and in three months time outfore a magistrate. The magistrate asked to know enough mathematics for the calcuif he was worth £200; he said "Yes."- | lation of the problems, with which not only every queen bee, but every under-"Why, you write up, graduate grub is acquainted the moment it is born .- Sidney Smith.

CROSSING THE ATLANTIC .- Capt. Emmons, the veteran chief steward of the Royal mail steamshins, sailed from Boston in the Asia on Wednesday, on his one hundred and sixty-eighth voyage across the Atlantic occan, within the twelve years last past. Allowing the distance across to be 3,000 miles, he has sailed within the period named over 500.000 four Swirn no longer" stands at the head of the list for indefiniteness. There Vermont are particular in making their are on the Boston Directory but 12 John Smiths, while there are 13 James Smiths, 14 Daniel Sullivans, 15 Michael Sullivans, 22 John Sullivans. There are enough Murphys in Boston to establish a colony ed us that he found no difficulty in main the West, and to warrant them in upplie, which is fearful to contemplate, was and steers are fed liberally on the best plying for admission into the Union as a recently averted in London by the set of hay throughout the winter. With care- separate State. YANKEE SPLIVAN, the notorious prize fighter, whom Tom Hyer bruised so hadly some time ago, has met with an untimey end, (says a California correspondent of a New Jersey paper.) at Sacramento city. Sullivan, it is stated, struck a man a blow with his fist, and was shot dead with a pistol by the person assailed.

and joy When at the solum evention we stray, "Mid-the still gathering of the twilight shades, "To muss upon the dear and hallowed past With its deep mountful memories, a voice "Coissa from the still recesses of our hearts, "Hom its nor stars !" In the gay, festive hour, When music scale upon the suffuence hour, "When music peaks upon the perfumed air, When music peaks upon the perfumed air, And wis and mitth are ringing in our ears, And kight forms floating round us in the dance, And jewels flashing through luxuriant curis, And deep tones breathing vows of tenderness And truth to listoning beauty, even then, Amid the wild enchantments of the hour, To many a heavt the past comes back again "And, as the fountein of its tears is stirred, A noise sequence seanding from its holicet depths, "Attast was is wort!" The spring time now Is forth upon the frish gross earth, the value Is born upon the risin groun earth, the visa Age age Meight wilderness of bloem, the woods With all their wealth of rainbow tints, repose, Julie fairy clouds, upon the vernal sky, And very gale is burdened with the gush Of grasis, free wild masie, yet, lost one, such all those wildering melodies, that voic As fion the very heart of nature comes, "At as sus re nor nous!" But list ! oh, list From the claunal depths of yonder sky, d'rote where the flash of sun and stars is din Be unrevented light, an angel strain, An away as that in which the morning stars Together may o'er the creation's birth. "Underficeling downwardthrough the ravished w "Jor ! sor ! sur's unn's unn's unn's unn's "

"Tis midnight deep And a pale cloud, the that when shadow foll Anna a pase croud, sne that remainbored eve. Upins wir heatts on that remainbored eve. Bending o'er the inica, hat now the shade illufin on one heart sione. I am alone, My dear and long last friend. Oh I whereast both the share statement of the initial statement. In the west seriverse of God they art. Thrat the scop at this mystorious hour To the disk each from thy all-radiant home, A structure to the second structure of the Aidin the licens departed.

I define the trues departed. I be true to the back has a loot. (Breast spirit, the back has a land blessed my gray-plant, the resting of thy angel-plumes for Abort and ground me—the very six if forting with a thousand sorraph thoughts, Differ is the spiritles of a shooting star-A hand from which the electric fire of heaven Resea defining the start from the start. Seems flashing through my frame is clusped Thy blened voice, with its remembered tones [m bened to more than mortal melody, Southing through my heart, as 'twere the veice To die eternal void-and our two souls Bland once again as cest they used to blend The beavenly with the earthly I Fare thee well !

"But they, this night, hast whispered to me here A house the mound that hides thy mortal form, The best the ills and agonics of life, And point me to an immortality Will thes in God's own holy parailise.

-Z: MONUMENT TO ADDISON .---- The follow ing is the inscription upon the stone retiently placed by the Earl of Elismore ov-"erthe grave of Addison in Westminster Abbey The lines are by Tickell. The House gue alluded to was Charles, first Earl "WP Hallfax :

ADDISON.

The by to these chambers, where the mighty rest, d'their foundation, came a nobler guest; The b'er was to the bowers of bliss conveyed Athler spirit, or more welcome shade. Born' 1672-Died, 1716. it W. Hartoti, Earl of Ellesmere, P. C. 1848.

In Greece a law against the freedom of the press has been passed at the chambers. which has created great sensation in that small country.

roar the chorus, sweeping the march of God,-there he brows it, that beverage of "Have you a vivandiere in your companv " Yes, Sire," replied the Captain. "Has she not a child !"

"Yes, little Genui, whom we are all so and of." "Has not this woman been beat by her veil over the settin sun, or a white gauze usband ? "I was not aware of the circumstance around the midnight moon : sporting in the till some time after the occurence. I have cataract ; sleeping in the glacier ; dancing in the hail shower : folding its bright enow reprimanded the man." "Is he generally well conducted ?"

curtains softly about the wintery world; "He is the best behaved man in compaand weaving the many colored iris, that ny. He is very jealous of his wife, but without reason. The woman's conduct seraph's zone of the sky, whose harp is in the rain drop of carth, whose woof is the sunbeam of heaven, all checked over is irreproachable." "Does he know me by sight ?" "I cannot say, Sire-but as he has just arrived from Spain, I think it is probable beautiful-that blessed life-water ! no poison bubbles on its brink ; its foam brings he does not. "Try and ascertain whether he has ever not madness and muriler; no blood stains seen me, and if he has not, bring him hith-er. Say you wish to conduct him before orbhans webn not burning tank in lite orphans weep not burning tears in its

the General of the division.' lepths; so drunkard's shricking ghost On inquiry, it appeared that Napoleon from the grave curses it in words of eterhad never been seen by the grenadier, who nal despair ! Speak out, my friends, was a very fine looking man of about fivewould you exchange it for the demon' and-twenty. When he was conducted to drink, alcohol !"

Napolcon, the latter said in a familiar A shout like the roar of a tempest answereu "No!" one :

"What is the reason, my lad, that you beat your wife ! She is a young and pret-RUBBIAN LAW OF MARRIAGE .---- By a late ty woman, and a better wife than you are a order of the Russian Government, all marusband. Such conduct is disgraceful in riages are forbidden, except where the parties first obtain the consent of the parish a French grenadier." "Bah, General ! if woman are to be beauthorities, which must in every case be licred, they are never in the wrong. I withheld, unless the persons asking it are have forbidden my wife to talk to any man capable at the time of supporting families. have forbidden my wife to talk to any man whatever ; and yet in spite of my com- and can also furnish a strong probability mands. I find her constantly gossiping that such capacity will continue to the end The increased number of individuals falwith one or other of my comrades." "Now, there is your mistake. You ling a burden on the State during several years past, is the reason given for this evant to prevent a woman from talking-you might as well try to turn the course dict. of the Danubo, Take my advice; do not There is good reason to hope that the

be jealous. Let your wife gossip and be merry. If she were doing wrong, it is statue of Mr. Calhoun will be recovered from the wreck of the "Elizabeth." All there, who had recently arrived, "well," likely she would be sad instead of gay .-efforts to discover the position of the box Your comrades are not absolutely capuenclosing it were without avail up to a day chins, but I am much mistaken if they will not respect another man's wife. I desire or two since, when it was ascertained by that you do not strike your wife again ; Lieut. Maxwell Woodhull. The box has and, if my order be not obeyed, the Em- not yet been raised, but has been identified peror shall hear of it. Suppose his Ma-, by the cloth torn from its exterior.

"I am delighted, gentlemen, to see you stirring in this matter at last."

A candidate for fame, proposed to fly Doctor Byles, mingling with the growd, life, health-given water. And everywhere t is a thing of beauty gleaming in the dowdrop ; singing in the summer rain ; shining

"We hav come, sir," said one, '"to see a man fly."

"Poh, poh," replied the Doctor, "I have seen a horse fly." Upon the 19th of May, 1780, the memorable dark day, a lady wrote to the Docrestod. tor as follows :---"Dear Doctor :--- How do you account for this darkness ?" And received his immediate reply-

"Dear Madam :--- I am as much in the dark as you are."

with celestial flowers, by the mystic This, for sententious brevity, has never hand of refraction. Still always it is been surpassed, unless by the correspondence, between the comedian. Sam Foote. and his mother :

"Dear Sam :--- I am in fail." "Dear Mother :---So am I." He had, at one time, a remarkably stuid, and literal Irish girl, as a domestic .----With a look and voice of terror, the said entirely stripped, grass fields caten to bar-to her, in basts : "Go and say to your mistress, Dr. Byes has put an end to himself." The girl flew up stairs, and, with a face of horror, exclaimed, at the top of her

"Dr. Byles has put an ond to himself!" The astonished wife and daughters rushed into the parlor-and there was the Doctor, calmly walking about, with a part of a cow's tail, that he had picken up in the street, tied to his coat or cassock, behind.

From the time of the Stamp Act, in 1765, to the period of the Revolution, the cry had been repeated, in every form of phraseology, that our grievances should be redressed. One fine morning when the multitude had gathered on the Common, to see a regiment of red-coats parade

ds. Dr. Byles.

said the Doctor, gazing at the spectacle, I think that we can no longer complain, that our grievances are not red dresssed !"

"True," said one of the laughers, who was standing near, but you have two

A RONAWAY LOCOMOTIVE .- A catastro- king his cattle thrive on Hay. His oxen the telegraph. "A collision had occarred ful driving they perform the farm labor in Notice was immediately given by the telearly beef.

A SWIMMING PREACHER .--- The Rev. while the line was kept clear, an engine and other arrangements were prepared as John Graham, of Davis county, Indiana, a battress to receive the ransway. The had agreed to meet with Maria Creek Suparintendent of the railway also started church, in Knox county, Sunday, (July the 9th,) being accustomed to travel on from the North Chuch steeple, and had down the line on an engine, and on passing the 9th.) being accustomed to travel on already mounted and was elapping his the ranaway he reversed his engine and foot, in his seventy-second year. Fearful winge, to the great delight of the maby had it transferred at the next crossing to he would not get forward in time, when the up line, so as to be in the chase, and reaching White River, at Edwardsport, inquired what was the object of the gath- on overtaking the other he ran into it at full as the ferryman was not at his post, alter speed, and the driver of the engine took hallowing a few times, he stripped himself possession of the fugitive, and all danger and waded over, the water being nearly was an end. Twelve stations were pas- waist deep. He was soon on the opposite eed in sufery. It passed Woolwich at bank, pursuing his journey to meet with fifteen miles an hour, and was within a the old church where he was ordained to ouple of miles of London when it was arthe work of the ministry near a quarter of a century since.

DEATH FROM EATING MATCHES .----GRASSHOPPERS.-Baltimore and the child of Mr. F. McCormick, of this city, country around it, has been visited lately two years of age, died a few days since by swarms of grasshoppers. They are in consequence of eating the phosphorous aid to be so abundant in Fayene and from a box of matches, which the servant Westmortand counties, Pa., that the young girl had given him to play with. Powbuck wheat and pasture are almost destroy ed by them. They are not, however, child had apparently recovered, but about confined to any particular section-from three weeks afterwards he was taken sudthe cast, west, north and south we have denly ill. A physician was called, who stands. accounts of their devastating effects on the pronounced it a case of posion ; and, after growing crops of corn, oats and tobacco. he had been informed of the cause, said The Cleveland (Ohio) Herald says that that a particle of the phosphopous had realong the lake country, the oat fields are mained in the stomach, causing inflamation .- Newark (N. J.) Advertiser.

A Yankee tin pedlar having fixed his wagon in the stable noted for the reception of horses as lean as Pharoah's cows, the bones on the hips projecting like so many small pyramids. "Mr. Landlord."

said he, "do you make horses here ?" "Make horses here?" said the surly Dutchman, "what do you mean ?"

"Why, I thought as how you had jus seen setting up the frames.'

GEN. PILLOW'S TOAST .- The Missour Compromise Line .- We will shake hands more they draw. with our Northern brethren over it, but if they cross beyond this, it will the up on the points of our bayonets .-- N. O. The defence of the line upon which the Juli-urs.

gallant General proposes to take his stand will naturally depend very much upon which side of it the ditch is dug.-Providence Journal.

armi 9 A short man became attached to a very tall woman, and somebody said that he had faller in love with her. Do you call that to prove that Satan was a woman, and 'Arrah ! by my sowl, bad luck to the falling in love ?' said an old bachelor ; 'il name was Lucy Fir. Can's auy how. is more like climbing up to it."

The impression produced in Europe by the intelligence of Gen. Taylor's death second to have been most profound. The leading journals make the event the subject of elaborate comment, and uniformly speak of the deceased as one of the "foremost men of all this age."

A COUNTERBLAST .--- "There isnoharm," says the Rev. Mr. Montgomery, "in smoking tobacco, except that it leads to drinking-drinking to intoxication-intoxication to bile---bile to indigestion---indigestion to consumption-consumption to death-that is all."

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT .--- The convention for revising the constitution of Michigan has resolved not to alter the present rful medicines were administered, and the law abolishing capital punishment of murder by death. There was nearly a unauimous opinion in favor of the law as it

> Well, wife, I don't see for my part how they send letters on them without tearing them to bits."

'La me,' replied the knowing spouse, they don't send the paper, they just send the writin' in a fluid state."

A good farmer is generally a true friend, an affectionate husband, an excellent parent, and an honest man : and it is an ertablished axiom, that a well tilled Held denotes not only care and industry, but the supervision of an enlightened mind.

Why is a handsome young lady willing like a persiminon ?

Because the more you taste them the Quilp, calls orators; who extel our national characteristics on independence day, beyond what truth will justify, fourth of

A young Miss having been invited to a military ball, inquired, with great simplic-ity, if all the failles were experted to pure

A slanderer of the sol sex under this 30 E 16 11

renness, and the growing corn in some in-stances considerably injured. These destructive insects have in some instances attacked the apple orchards, devouring every thing but the tree and fruit, and in many cases not even sparing the fruit. THUNDER STORMS .- When overtaken out of doors by a thunder storm, never resort to a tree for shelter ; better take a wet skin and a safe retreat to the open electricity. We saw an account of a youth who was killed while whittling a stick beneath a tree while his companion ning always reeks the nearest road to the Crescent. best conductor. A bright pitchfork, spade, or manure fork carried point upwards, is give you the whole five.' ·Five,' said Teddy.

der-storm.

"Teddy, my boy, jist guess how many cheese there is in this bag, an' faith 1'll man that tould ye !"

field. Do not have any metal nor metallic impliments about you while exposed to at his side escaped uninjured. The light-certain to attract electricity during a thun-