

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW IN BOSTON. The provisions of the Fugitive Slave Law in Boston, Mass., are as follows:—

AN EXCELLENT CUSTOM.—In Munich, Germany, all boys under the age of sixteen are taken to a school for the purpose of learning the art of bookbinding. As soon as they are taken to the school, they are given a book, and are required to read it. The schoolmaster is a man of great character, and is very strict in his discipline. The boys are taken to the school at the age of six, and remain there until they are sixteen. The schoolmaster is a man of great character, and is very strict in his discipline. The boys are taken to the school at the age of six, and remain there until they are sixteen.

REMOVAL OF GEN. TAYLOR'S REMAINS.—The remains of Gen. Taylor, which were removed from Washington to the city of New York, on the 25th ult., in a splendid military funeral, are now being prepared for removal to the city of New York. The remains were taken to the city of New York on the 25th ult., in a splendid military funeral, and are now being prepared for removal to the city of New York.

THE WORLD'S FAIR IN LONDON. We are glad to learn that the President of the World's Fair in London, which is to be held in 1862, has been elected. The President of the World's Fair in London, which is to be held in 1862, has been elected. The President of the World's Fair in London, which is to be held in 1862, has been elected.

THE STAR & BANNER. FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 13, 1852. The Star and Banner is a weekly paper published in New York. It contains news, articles, and advertisements. The paper is published by the Star and Banner Company.

THANKSGIVING DAY. We observe, with regret, that our neighbor of the Star and Banner, who has been elected President of the World's Fair in London, has been elected. The President of the World's Fair in London, which is to be held in 1862, has been elected.

GR. BOTTING AND THE PRESIDENT. We are glad to learn that the President of the World's Fair in London, which is to be held in 1862, has been elected. The President of the World's Fair in London, which is to be held in 1862, has been elected.

BOOKS AND STATIONERY. The Largest Assortment ever offered in Gettysburg. A new and splendid assortment of books and stationery, including novels, tracts, and religious works. The books are published by the Gettysburg Book and Stationery Store.

PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS the Hon. David D. Porter, District Attorney for the Southern District of New York, has presented to the Court of Sessions, in the case of the People vs. John A. Sweeney, a bill of indictment against the said Sweeney, charging him with the crime of murder, the Court do hereby order that the said Sweeney be held to answer to the said indictment.

LOCUST GROVE. This establishment is now in full operation, and is situated in the town of Locust Grove, in the county of York, Pennsylvania. The establishment is owned and managed by the Locust Grove Company.

REGISTER'S NOTICE. NOTICE is hereby given that the Register of the County of York, Pennsylvania, has been appointed. The Register is to be held in the town of Gettysburg, in the county of York, Pennsylvania.

HATS. THE undersigned respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has just received a large assortment of hats, including top hats, bowlers, and various styles of hats. The hats are published by the Hat Store.

CLAIMS FOR BOUNTY LAND. The undersigned respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has just received a large assortment of claims for bounty land. The claims are published by the Bounty Land Office.

NEW GOODS. GEO. ARNOLD. Large stock of new goods, including clothing, shoes, and various articles. The goods are published by Geo. Arnold.