	AND BANNE	One Week Linter of the Constant of the Constan
""BY D. A. & C. H. BUBHLER. (aver an example and the second of the second strategy and the second and the second second second and the second	TWO DOLLARS PBE ANNUM
WOLL AXX - 243 - 2	PAT REPAIR AND AND A COMPANY OF THE AND	NEW SEBIES NO. 205

VOL. XXI-43

BOOKS AND STATIONERY.

The Largest Assortment ever opened in Gettysburg.

S thom the City a large additional supply of Books7 and has now on hand, at his old setablished Bookstors, in CHAM-BERSBURG STREET, the largest and bistassoriment of that is STANDARD BOOKS, ological, Liferary and Misconancous, with the same the vivid ignored in this market, all of which will fic grandeur. Then came the vivid ignored in this market, all of which will ning; flash following flash above, around, and the very lowest rates. In ing; flash following flash above, around, we are of fire. We ological, Literary and Miscellaneous, ev-"He hes also constantly on hand a large and full assortion of SOHOOL BOOKS and STATIONERY, Pen-kaives, Gold

Penn. Pencils, Letter Envelopes, Visiting | ed forward to seek a more secure asylum. Cards. Motto Wafers, with a variety of Fancy Articles, to which the attention of purchasers is invited. The subscriber returns his acknowledgment for the long continued and liberal pa-tronage extended to him, and thinks that, in the variety and excellence of his present got into it. supertment of Chedp Books and Stationery. will he found widence of a determination to continue to merit that patronage. Arrangements have been made by which sity Books not embraced in his asforment can be promptly ordered from the Cay.

GETTYSBURG FEMALE SEMINARY.

TAHIS Institution, under the direction o Miss WALLACE, will be re-opened on Monday the 2d of September, and continue in two sessions of five months each, until the last of June ; leaving July and August for vacation instead of May and October. ceeded.

TERMS .- Ten dollars per session of five months ; with extra charges for the Languages, Drawing and Fancy Work. Pupils will be charged from the time of enstering till the end of the session ; and no deductions from the price will be made, except for time lost by the Teacher, or pro tracted illness of the pupils.

pection made to the n: ., ., .
Rev. Dr. Schmucker,
Rev. Dr., Baugher,
Rev. Dr. Krauth,
Prof. Jacobs,
Prof. Stover,
Rev. R. Johnston,
h 3,)—1y

FOR RENT. DWELLING HOUSES, OFFICES, SHOPS & A FOR Exhibitions, Concerts, Associations

An Avventure if he would have dragged it to the ground. MONG THE MOUNTAINS But having, at length, succeeded in getting Sector of ProQUITO.

On leaving the Indian village, we conof the cave. tinued to wind round. Chimborazo's wide base ; but its snow-crowned head no louger shone above us in clear brilliancy for or shone soove us in clear orminger, for a dense for was gathering gradually around it. Our guides looked anxiously towards it, and announced their appreheusions of a violent storm. We soon found that their tears were well founded. The thunder began to roll, and resounded through the mountain passes with the most terri-fic grandeur. Then came the vivid lightthem, and began to examine them closely, turning them cautiously from side to side. As soon as he became aware that they beneath-every where a sea of fire. We were dead, he utilized so piercing a howl of sorrow, that we were obliged to put our sought a momentary shelter in a cleft of lands to our ears. the rocks, whilst one of our guides hasten-The thunder had now ceased, and the storm had such to a gentle gale : the senge the head of the tiger, that the animal In a short time, he returned, and informed of the birds were again heard in the neighus that he had discovered a spacious cavboring forest, and the sunbeams sparkled ern, which would afford us sufficient proin the drops that hungs from the leaves. tection from the elements. We proceeded thither immediately, and, with great We saw, through the aperture, how all na difficulty, and not a little danger, at last ture was reviving, after the wild war of elements which had so recently taken place; but the contrast only made our When the storm had somewhat abased, We were in situation the more norrible.

our guides ventured out in order to ascera grave from which there was no deliver tain if it were possible to continue our journey. The cave in which we had taice : wind a monster, worse their the fabled Cerborus, kept watch over us. " The ken refuge was so extremely dark, that, tiger had laid himself down beside his if we moved a few paces from the entrance, whelps. He was a beautiful animal, of we could not see an inch before us; and we were debuiling as to the propriety of great size and strength ; and his limbs be-leaving it, even before the Indians came ing stretched out at their full length, dising stretched out at their full length, disback, when we suddenly heard a singular played his immeuse power of muscle. A groaning or growling in the farther end of double row of teeth stood far enough spart the cavern, which instantly fixed our at to show his large, red tongue, from which tention. Wharton and myself listened the white form fell in large drops. All at onber another-ruar was heard at a distance, anxiously ; but our daring and inconsiderate young friend, Lincoln, together with and the tiger immediately rose, and anmy huntsman, crept about upon their swered it with a mournful howl. Brthe same instant, our Indians uttered a shrick, hands and knees, and endeavored to discover, by groping, whence the sound pro- which announced that some new danger threatened us. A few moments confirm

They had not advanced far into the ened our worst fears ; for another tiger, not vern, before we heard them utter m ex: quite so large as the former, came rapidly clamation of surprise ; and they returned towards the apot where we were. The howls which the tigress gave when to us, each carrying in his arms an anishe had examined the bodies of her cubs, mal singularly marked, and about the size of a cat, seemingly of great strength and surpassed every thing of horrible we had power, and furnished with immense fangs, yet heard; and the tiger mingled his mournful cries with hers. Suddenly her The eyes were of a green color ; strong claws upon their feet; and a blood-red roaring was lowered to a hoarse growling, tongue hung out of their mouths. Whar- and we saw her anxiously stretch out her head, extend her wide and emoking noston had scarcely glanced at them, when he exclaimed in consternation, "We have trils, and look as if she were determined He was to discover immediately the murderers of interrupted by a fearful cry of dismay her young. Her eyes quickly fell upon from our guides, who came rushing pre-cipitately towards us, calling out "A tiger 1 the intention of penetrating to our place a tiger !" and at the same time, with ex-traordinary rapidity, they elimbed up a cedar tree, which stood at the entrance of away the stone, had we not, with all our When the cave, and hid themselves among the she found that all her efforts were fruitless, After the first sensation of horror and she approached the tiger, who lay stretchsurprise, which rendered me motionless ed out beside his cubs, and he rose and for a moment, had subsided; I grasped my joined in her bollow roarings. They fire-arms. Wharton had already regain- stood together for a for a few moments, dc. Apply, before 15th of January, ed his composure and self-possession ; as if in consultation, and then suddenly to D. M'CONAUGHY. and he called to us to assist him instantly went off at a rapid pace, and disappeared and he called to us to assist him instantly went off at a rapid pace, and disappeared in blocking up the mouth of the care with an from our sight. Their howling died a-immense stone, which fortunately lay near way in the distance, and then entirely a the trop, and torp it with his slaws, as a footing. The Ladians again uttered a They written in a Openany Charge wild shrick, as if all hope had been lost. But Wharton, who, was nearest, the rid of the arrow, be became more calm.] edge of the rock, advanted courageously and laid himself flown, as before, in front [towards the tiggt, and struck his sword

The builder to be the train of parting day, The builder to be the train of parting day, The builder down of the builder to be the builder of the builder of the builder of the build be build be build be build be build build and be build be world we derivery and to build the cave. Enraged trous the lower and all measure, the wild beast collected all Nois class the affer aligning historia to the anti-And all the air desirate influen bestall and an aligning Sate where the triate which the desirate afferts of the dep, and a gimes showed us while his strength, and, with a violen (effort, fix-he hid been doing. In each hand, and ing one of his hind legs upon the edge of daughing from the end of a string, were the cliff, he seized Whaton by the thigh And drivery linklings bill the distant fails an the two cabe. He had strangled them ; and That heroic man still preserved his forti-before we were ware of whit he intends tude ; he grasped the trunk of a tree with Buve that hais youther try infailed divert ed, he threw them shrough the opening to his left hand to steady, and support him the tiger. No sconer did the animal perceive them, than he gazed carmently upon | and violently turned the sword, that was still in the breast of the tiger. All this was the work of an instant. The Indians, Frank, and myself historical to his assistance ; but Lincoln, who was already at his side, had seized Wharton's gun, which lay near upon the ground, and struck so powerful a blow with the butt end upon, Each in his narrow coll for ever faid, The rade forefathers of the hamilet stupp.

The breezy call of incruie breathing form, The availor twittering from the breave bu stunned and overpowered, let go his hold and fell back into the abyss. shed, The cork's shrill clarions or the scholog land

A MOTHER'S CLAIMS.

For them no more the blasing licefth shall burn. Filial kindness is dways suggestive of Or bury housestife ply her evening this ; No children run to the flats she areany, Or climb his knock the envied his to there. the good and the beautiful. There is not a more touching picture in the Bible than that of Ruth, while answering the chtrea-ties of her mother-milaw, Naomi, to re-Oft-did the harvest to their sickle wield Their furning and the studborn give has broken Their furning of the studborn give has broken Hew joonand did they drive their tests afford ! Hour how d the wrods beneath, their stur-strucks ! turn unto her own people : "Whither' thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest 1 will lodge Thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God : where Let not ambition mock their ment toil, thon diest I will die, and there will I be

Their homely joys, and desiny obscurs t Nor grandeur hear with a disciniful smile The short and simple smills of the poor burled." "I will never marry & man who doe The bess of hereidry, the point of points. A and all that beauty all that weaks of Await alike the Thevitable hour. The paths of gloif Wall but to the grave. not treat his mother wea," said a lively friend to us once. ""And why not ?"we queried. "If he is "inkind to her to whom he is so deeply indebted," she ré-Nor you, ye proud impute to these the fast, If memory or their tomb no trophies raise Where through the long drawn also and frett walt, plied, "what need we expect from him to whom he owes comparisively nothing !" There was sound philosophy in this remark. Most of our truly great men have The peaking anthem swells the note of prais been noted for the kindless yea, rever Can storied uni or spinisted host; "" their mothers. Wathingon revereil his ; Roger Sherman treated he with the most In henor's which morely the allost dust. Or flattery sooth the dull beld our of death 1 marked attention'; and it was one of the Parhape In this noglacibl spot is fail . . . famous Judge Story's last requests that he Sume heart may programs with oil atial fre'; Hands, shat the road of ompire might have sway might be buy en beside his mother in Mi. Auburn. But Alial respect and love is Or waked to ecstacy the living lyre :

not often rewarded as in the following in But knowledge to their symbol emple page slance: Rich with the spoils of time did ne'er anroll Gustavas III., King of Sweden, passing one morning through a village in the neighborhood of the cattle, observed a Chill penury represent their note rage. And from the genial current of the sent. Full many a gem of purest ray serone young peasant girl of interesting appear-The dark unfathom'd caves of ocean best : full many a flower is born to blush unseen, And waste its sweetness on the desert aiv. ance drawing water at a fountain by the. wayside. He went up to her and asked ome village Hampden, that, with dauntless bra The little tyrant of his fields with atood, her for a draught. Without delay she lifted up her pitcher, and, with artless Some mute inglumious Milton here may out simplicity, put it to the has of of the mon-arch. Having satisfied his thirst, and The applaum of listening senates to command, courteously thanked his benefactress, he said, "My girl, if you would accompany me to Stockholm. I would endeavor to fi you in a more agreeable situation." "Ah, sir," replied the girl, "I cannot ac cept your proposal. I am not anxious to rise above the state of life in which the Providence of God has placed met but if The threats of pain and ruln to despise, To scatter plenty d'er a scaling land, . And read their history in a nation's eyes. Cheir lot forbade ; nor circumscribed alone Their growing virtues, but their atimes e fined :

Forhade to wade through slaughter to a throne, And shut the gates of mercy on mankind. The struggling pangs of conscious truth tohis friend, Mr. Pottnall. 👘 🕬 and himself met at four o'clock Mr. Ulav eve of Mr. Clay, but a man fearless, and expressing the mingled sensibility and as live. It has been my misfortune to witness several ducis, but Ineverant one at least in its sequel, so deeply affecting the survey was just setting behind the blue hifts of Randolph whom Virginida's Hore were two of the most extraordinary main our country in its prodigiality this produced, about to meet in morial combat.-Whiles Tatunit was toading Randolph's platelet, I up preached my friend; I telievi elly for the fait since "I logk his hand; there was not in the todely the quivering of one puliation He turned to me and nid, "Ony is calm/bat not vindictive-I hatd my spurpose, Hamilton, in any e-venty readinater this." On handing him his plant, Out? (athail spring the hairtrigger. Mr. Randolph said, "Tattnail, although I am one of the best shots in Virginiz with either a pietol or gun, vet I never fire with the hair-trigger ; beaides, I have no thick buckship glove on, which will destroy the delicacy of my touch and the trigger may fly before position; the fact, turned out as Randolph anticipated ; his pistol went off before the word with the muzzle down. The moment this event took old &, Gen. Jessup: Me: Chy's friend, called dut that he would instantly leave the ground with his friend, if that occurred again. Mr. Clevatonce exclaimed'it was an accident, showed to go on. On the word being giv-en, Mr. Olay fired without effect, Ran-delph discharging his pistol in the air.---The moment that Clay saw that Randolph dolph, and said, with an emotion I can never forget-"I trust in God, my dear sir, you are untouched ; after what has occurred, I would not have harmed you for RARE FREAK .--- About five weeks sgo, a thousand worlds." The close of this passage in Randolph's career, makes too complete a picture to be ommitted. Returning from his mission this time, hightly tettres under the hen's as Minister to Russia, broken in health, sick at heart-at death's door-he went me up," said Randolph, "I want to hear that voice again." When Mr. Clay had concluded his remarks, which were very few, he turned round to see from what quarter that singular voice proceeded .---Seeing Mr. Randolph. and that be was in

INCIDENTS OF A DUEL

We select from the biography of John Randolph, by Hugh A. Garland, the aninquares. Notwithstanding the absurdi y of the "code of honor," as it is most bows traits of ingate nobleness of characler that will be appreciated by all good and areas mon.; and the duel," says Gen-

The singuly ortificer to the spon out of the singulation of the second s etal James Hamilton, of South Carolina, Have how the second when that breathen and Rendolph sent for me. I found him calm Bids every, flores teamslister poster classe i a still small scenate whispering from the groun A grateful earnest of eternal peace. int in a singularly kind and confiding mood He told me he had something on his mind to tell me. Hie then remarked. "Hamil Beneath those rugged elms, the yew-tree's shad Where herves the turf in many a moulder ton, I have determined to receive, without raturning Clay's fire-nothing shall in an it is an a ship and the same of it is a star of it is a star of it is a star of the sta

No more shall rouse them from their lawi

duce me to, harm a hair of his head-I will apariment, where, according to etliquettes not make his wife a widow, or his chilshe was to remain till the French suches drep orphans, Their tears would be shed sador who was to conduct her to Paris over his grave ; but when the sod of Vir went to hand her to the carriage. When ginis rests on my bosom, there is not in Berthier, Prince de Neufchatel, went into is wide world one individual to pay this her cabinet for this purpose, he found her tribute upon mine." His eyes filled, and, weeping most bitterly. For some time she was unable to speak : at length words maling his head upon his hand, we re mained some moments silent. I replied, of passionate grief found their way, noshumons friendship, bequeathed by our mothers,) I deeply regret that you have leave, is so dear to me : there are my side mentioned this subject to me : for you call ter's drawings ; my mother herself worked upon me to go to the field, and to see you this tapestry ; these pictures were painted by my uncle Oharles." hat down, or to assume the responsibility in regard to your own life, in sustaining your determination to throw it away .-But on this subject. a man's own concarpets, and all her pets of whom she was science and his own bosom are the hest monitors. I will not advise, but under birds, that she loved to sit and listen to ++ the enormous and unprovoked personal insult you have offered Mr. Clay, I canparrot that she herself had taught to speak a not dissuade. I feel bound, however, to communicate to Col. Tatnall your decisfavorite companion, even he was not to on. He begged me not to do so, and said that he was yery much afraid that Tattnall would take the stude and refuse to go with him. I, however, sought Colonel Tattnall, she caressed the little creature, her twars fell faster. Rethier was sensibly touched and we repaired about midnight to Mr by the marks of affection bestowed by the Randolph's forgings, whom we found read-ing Wilton's great poets. For some momyoung princers on all the objects associa-ted with home. He told her that all would ente he did net permit us to say ons word not be in readiness for their departure for. In relation to the approxiding duel and abouple of hours. So the poor princess he at once commenced one of these de lightful orfficisite on the pistings of this me allowed the indulgence of her grief for a little while longer. But the moment, met in which he was wont so entimiliatically to indufer. After a passo Outonel came, and she was to tour berself away from Tatinall remarked, Mr. Randolphy I ame the scenes and the friendsthat occupied all told you have determined inout to return her affections. An enthusiastic greeting a-Mr. Clay's fire ; I must say to yon, my waited har from the crowde assembled welcome her. Splendor surrounded her dearshy if I an only to ghioat to see you shot down, you must find some other on every side ; but home and dear friends were far away. As Napoleon led her friend." Mr. Randolph remarked that from the balcony of the Tuilleries, where conversation on the subject, Findousd Only she had been gazed at and hailed with acl'atmail to allow Mr. Randolnh to take clamationa of yoy by the populace, he hie own priemest as this withdrawal, as stad-entroite "Come, Louisa, I ought to give you one of his friends; might had to very some little seward for the happiness which injurious misdonstractions At last Mr. Randolph; swiling said; Wulk Fatnall; you have conferred on man the great hap. piness which I have just enjoyed. Ney-I promise you one thing, if I see the devil in Clay's eye, and that with malice pre- nay, don't be sfruid to follow me," conperse he means to take my life, I may 'tinged he, as he led her along one of the change my mind ;" a remark I knew he narrow corridors of the palace lit by a sinmade merely to proprisate the suzience of gla lamp ; "day, nay, don't be afraid, to follow me." Suddenly they stopp the succeeding evening, on the hanks of a room wherein a dog was making efforts the Potomac. But he saw "no devil in the to get out. The emperor opened the does -the favorite dog was there. He testi-fied his joy at again seeing his mistress irmness which belonged to the occasion; by a thousand wild pranks ; bounding and I shall never forget this scene, as long jumping about her. The motusing of a line is a long in the scene is a long in the scene is large in the scene in the scene is large in the scene is large in the scene is the scene is large in the scene in the scen covered to Maria Louisa that it man furnished while the very chairs hind the serness of her anariment at Vienne. These ware her sister's drawings, and the tapestry wrought by her mother's hands ; there were the pictures, painted by her uncle. Charles; there was her parrot, and there. her singing birds ; and, above all, the pet dog. Boniss was greatly affected and de-lighted by finding herself surrounded by these dear, familiar objects. So well had Berthier planned and executed this sorresable surprise for the disconsolate princess, whom he had found weeping over all that bad been endeared to her by the fundesa associations, that she never suspected his design in delaying their departure from Vienna. "Come in, Berthier," said the emperor. opening a side door, "and let the empress thank you. There, Louisa, thank himembrace him who planned this pleasure for vou." How frequently genius affects great ends by the simplest means ! It is most interesting to see the greatest difficulties give way before its magic influence. That nobility is the truest which a man derives, not from his pedigree, but from himself; that excellency is the greatest which is personal ; that glory is the most estimable which is fixed in our intellectual and moral attributes, not that which a man locks up with his cash, or puts by with and begged that the gentleman might be his ribbons. Let the domestic circle be the scene of woman's ministrations, her infant group the subject for whom she legislates, and had thrown away his fire, with a gush of home the sphere where her influence in sensibility he instantly approached Ran- exerted by a well ordered life and godly conversation. It is difficult to conceive any thing more beautiful than the reply given by one in affliction, when he was asked how he bore it so well. "It lightens the stroke," said he, "to draw near to him who handles the rod." Hon. W. C. PRESTON .- The friends of this distinguished man will be happen. into the Senate Chamber, and took his learn that his health has much improved as a senate of Mr. Clay. That gen- and he will retain the Presidence, of the tleman happened at the same time to be South Garolina College, the trustees Jan Ve on his feet addressing the Senate. "Raise ing refused to accept his resignation. True religion will show its influence in every part of our conduct, it is life the sap of a living tree, which prioritistic the most distant bought. "Advice," says Coleridge, "is like enow. whe shine it false the longerst fivele upon, and the deeper at shink into the

here expressly to have this interview will RANDOLPH AND CLAY. lo meet more.

They grasped hands and parted, never DELICATE COMPLIMENT.

The fies of relationship are held most acted in the imperial family of Austelarie

Maria Louisa had been taught to reversion them from her infancy. She was tenderly attached to every member of her lenvily.

risgo with Napoleon were arranged, and she knew that she was about to leave all who were so dear to her, and with whom she had passed all her days, her bears sank within her, and the tears flowed ind cessantly. The day came : she was to leave forever the home of her childhood.

She took a most affecting leave of her fame

"I cannot help crying," she said ; "ev-

Thus she went on apostrophizing every article the room contained, even the very so fond, so cherished, and caressed ; her these were all to be left behind-and the but, above all, the little faithful dog, the, accompany her-for it had been said that the Emperor did not like pet dogs. As erything I look at, and that I am going to ily, and then shut herself up in her: own ind when the proliminaries of hor mars

100 AGENTS WANTED,

Northern States. Steady employment will be given for a number of years to respectable young men of busness haadvantage, as it will afford an opportunity to see a large portion of the country, and at the same time earn, besides all expenses, from $300 to $500 a year. Some agents have earned double that amount. Much depends upon ability to act, perseverance and economy, it being a pleasant business Those who desire further information eah obtain the same by addressing, post paid, JACOB MONK, and his glowing eyes, which he rulled glaring, with fury-upon us. His frightful roaring, too, penetrated to the depths of the cavern,

Doc. 13, 1850 .--- 81 Philadelphia. FOR SALE OR RENT, THAT SMALL Two-story Brick House, well of water, and also a good brick Stable on the premises. Also for sale, treat.

MANDERLEBRATION.

THE BERLIN BENEFICIAL SOand Brobession, on NEW YEAR DAY. (Janwhite dat, 18651) at East Berlin, on which cusion the association will be addressed by H. La Finner, Beq. of Gottysburg, in -the Village Churcha "The personales will the will venetiby in Band of Musical and off -improvide citizene generally are invited

-ing rie a constant of they have and behavior of the bar of the ba

Tolugoia A. TAR BAUGHER I no out they ave . 810 has Oollectors, & Pakea Notice. ol relation al Baris WELE Conscions of Taxes in the Shift The state of the second of the win meer at the bis and south a ver no. The start way when we we we we we we way the start of the asthlida shuil douglaton Gainatian "Commissioners."

J. ADOHID VARON, OUTK. "[NOV! $2:24d ""TATA RIBBONS! "RIBBONS!

TO travel in the Southern, Middle or augmented our strength ; for we now dis- Our Indians descended from the tree. tincily heard the growl of the ferocious and called upon us to seize the only possianimal, and we were lost beyond redempt-tion if he reached the entrance before we flight; for that that the tigers had only could get it closed. Ere this was done, gone round the height to seek another inucation and gentlemanly address. Such we could distinutly see the tiger bounding let to the the cave, which they were, no young men would find it greatly to their towards the spot, and stooping in order to doubt, acquainted with. In the greatest towards the spot, and stooping in order to to creep into his den by the narrow opening. haste the stone was pushed aside, we stepped forh from what we had consider-At this fearful moment, our exertions were a liger !

ranches.

wild beast at bay. There was a small open space, however er, left between the top of the entrance and the stone, through which we could see the head of the animal, illuminated by and was answered by the hearse growling of the cubs. Our foracious enemy attempt ed first to remove the stone with his pow ful claws, and then to push it with his with insumerable fasures. We had just head from its place; and these efforts entered upon it, when suddenly the Indi-TWO-SLORY Brick House, and troub its piece ; and itter entries entries and we were before us, stered one of this week in the rear of this week. House, and we immediate the is a never failing darted light into the darkness of our re-parault of us. Urged by despair, we rash

5 ACRES OF WOODLAND, be seminary ridge, immediately North of the railroid out. Apply to Dep. 20, -21. D. A. BUEHLER. "Now is the time to five at him." Said

Frank spized his Uouble barreled gun scemed aware that the flash indicated an attack upon him, sprang growling from the entrance ; but, feeling himself uniturt, immediately turned back again and stalioned himself in his former place. The powder in a both spices was wet.

"All is now over," said Wherton : "we and of the matter if and the works well Bo yaying, he placed himself close be-hi Mo naying i to pince runney size to side the signe, which for the moment de-fended us, and looked undanguedly upon the lighthing eyes of the light. Lucchin Pares, and Frank' fool of "pice of "stong word fourthing pochets and haltened to the the farther end of the nave-of has wight successful, and the great stone kept the ed a living grave. We now heard once more the roaring of the tigers, though at at a distance t and, following the example of our muides. we precipitately struck into a side path. From the number of roots and branches of trees with which the storm had strewed our way, and the slipperiness of the road, our flight was slow and difficult. We had proceeded thus for about guarter of an hour, when we found that our way led along the edge of a rocky cliff, ad towards one of the breaks, or gulfs, in our way, over which was thrown a bridge in the hollow below rushed as impetuous stream, and a thousand pointed and jagged and Lincoln his pistoli. "The former plat recks threatened destruction on every sule. tiger, but it missed fite. The tiger, who passed over the class in safety ; but Wharton was still in the midde of the waving bridge, and endesvoring to steady himsell, settled a pethion for life ont her motivit, when buth the tigers were som to issue with the reference to her daughter he her troat the adjoining forest and the no-ment they describe us, they bounded to wards us with Uroutful vonrings. " Meun-

while, Wharton had nearly gained the have only now to choose whether we safe side of the galf, and we were all class? shall die of hunger, together with these animale who are shut up along with us, or open the ientranes to abe blood thirsty monster without, and so make a quicker Whatten; they bill the isobelous satisfield Whatten; they bill the isobelous satisfield to the set who have a solution of the blood thirsty were clean spon him, nover lost his courhad gained this edge of the cliff, he knott using by which the bridge was situched Aver and asked what their daily receipts the bound of the proposed of the the characteristic and the second and the proposed of the second state of the second of the second state of the s using by which the bridge was attached tistie wich:

of the cave, in the most, wild and impetu-of the cave, in the most, wild and impetu-out mainet; their shoel still, and, stretch-the abyes; but the scene passed like a will bloke forth inth a defending howl. ""On we difficult but defending howl. ""On we difficult but defending howl.

tof fill opportunity to discharge several gulf, and before she reached the bottom York turned out as it had never done be-strowy from the tree. If How was struck she was torn into a thousand pieces by the fore. The terry-boats can from early light The set of the set of

"And why ?" rejoined the King, somewhat surprised.

"Because," answered the girl, coloring, my mother is poor and sickly, and has no one but me to assist and comfort her under many afflictions ; and no earth!v bribe can induce me to leave her, or to neglect the duties which affection requires from me."

"Where is your mother ?" asked the monarch.

I were I could not for an instant hesitate."

"In that little cabin," replied the girl binting to a wretched hovel beside her. The King, whose feelings were interes ted in favor of his companion, went in, and beheld, stretched on a bedstead, whose only covering was a little straw, an sged fe male, weighed down with years, and sinking under infimities. Moved at the sight, the monarch addressed tier-in so destinte and afflicted a condition. "Alas, dir," answered the vererable suf-ferer, "I should be indeed to be pitled, had I not that kind and attentive girl, who isbors to support me, and omits nothing she thinks can afford me relief." May a cious God remember it for her good," she idded, wiping away a tear.

Never, bethaps, was Gustavus more ensible than at that moment of the please ure of possessing an exaltad station ; Sand. dutting a purse into the hand of the young take good care of your mother ; T shall soon enable you to do so more effectually Good bye, my amiable girl ; you may de pend on the promise of your King 0

BARNUR'S FIRST OFERATION. vents ago, a small drove of Buffildes were Avion proving a failuire, they were wold in Ouds, N. Y.; to pay expenses: The Olageland Phin Dealer alys :

"Barnoty beaving of this, but no there in buying said Banatoes, getting them there. He took them to Hibbelton, where he hird them to keep, saying nothing to any one. He next weat to all the ferry-men on the Wold i this be pat the to the farther ing a witht increase above bidinary re-progress of our policuirs, bet he was nile cellul. "Po this they assented, and he likes i for he had scaledy accomplished bound the bargain by advancing a portion he mak, when the lignest, without a me of the pay. Next appeared barit-door bills ment's pause, rashed towards the chasm. in flaming expitals, posted all over New and attempted to bound over it. It was York, that on such a day there would be a a fearful sight to see the inighty animal grand buffalo chase at Hoboken. Eigh-

To quench the blushes of ingenuous shame heap the shrine of luxury and pride With incense kindled at the Muse's flame.

Far from the maddening crowd's ignoble strife, Their suber wishes never learned to stray ; Along the cool sequestor'd vals of life They kept the noiseless tenor of their way.

Yet e'en these bones from insult to protect, Some frail momorial still erected nigh, With uncouth rhymes and shapeless souly decked, Imploree the passing tribute of a sigh-Their names," their years, spolt by the or and a Muse, suite and store sets the The place of fute and elegy supply and And many a hely text around the systems That teach the rustic moralist to dis.

For who, to dash bengatishows a pay. This pleasing anglotos heing "er, recipied, Left the warm procincis of the cheerful day. Nor east one longing largering how behand

On some fond breast the parting saul relies. Some plous drops the closing set regulars a E'en from the tonb the voice of nature cites, E'en in our sales live that without fries. For thes. who, mindful of the unhopor d desc Dost in these lines the atlant cap where i chance by lonely contemplation bal. Some kindred spirit shall foculte thy fate,

Come minutes spirt main inquire day tax, "Of have we seen thin at the poop of down Bruthing with havy reputite down says. To meet the son upon the upland iswa.... "There's the for of yinder hidding beech, "There's the the for of yinder hidding beech, "There's the son the upland iswa... "There's the son the son the upland is and the son the son the son the son the son the son the His interest the son the son the son the son the son His interest the son the

Him have yre sens the preserved site alread While o'er the beath we hird, our labor done Of as the woolland piped her farewell song. With which it yes pursite the tetrahy stat. "Herd by you wool, now emiliting as in acorna, Mutering his way would fancing he would cave Now drivering would whan, like our forderin, "Or traded with Caref or other d'in house he would cave

Dne morn I inter thin on the coston i fill Along the heat hid ican the the order is the Another came , not yet beside the till, Nor by the hiws, hot as the widel was be a

The next with ninged die in and artey. Siew proug the thirth with finner with a series you being the thirth with finner a series Approach and read (for those seat read) the lay a Trange little bird was observed to have saken up him quarters among a brood of chickens balonging to our informants. He says the birt continues in the flock, up to wings, and otherwise deports itself as a bona fide chickens. When it first came, t was about the size of the chicks, but they have far out-grown the stranger which remains in statu quo. Mr. B. R. Pennybacker is the gentleman who furnishes evidence of this rare freak. He says he never saw any other bird like the one aabove mentioned. Where did it come from ?- Parkersburg Gazette.

Grayed on the storightenenth you aged thorn.

"Father, did you ever have spother wife a dying condition, he left his place and esides mother ?" "No, my boy; what went to speak to him : as he approached pesides mother ?

went to speak to ntm: as ne approached while disperse at the process of the whole operation amounted the followed her with an immense spring, the followe