Court Doings-Selling Liquor on the Sabbath.

The April Term of our Court communed Monday last, and is still in session as we go to press. The list of causes tried will be given next week. There has been little or no criminal business, but one bill having been presented to the grand Jury by the Prosocuting Attorney.

The grand Jury, in making its Report to the Court, drew attention to the general and almost constant violation of the law against selling liquor on the Sabbath day. The Court, we are gratified to my, strongly and warmly endorsed the sotion of the Grand Jury, and, through his Honor Judge Dunnin, announced its determination librouther refuse to livense any house where liquor may Advi been sold on the Sabbath day. This decision of the Court will be hailed with pleasure by every good and virtuous citizen, and it is to be hoped that it will be rigidly enforced. The President of the Court (Judge Durkee) moke in strong terms of commendation of the porsi sense of the Grand Jury as evinced in thus maticing a great public evil, involving a violation of positive law and the foelings of a moral and rehigious community, the influences of which are so corrupting and demoralizing, and expressed a de-termination to use all proper meases for its suppresdrink, it could never fit the mind for sober, moral and religious reflection and self-examination—that it could never fit a man for pious meditation, for prayer, or for a sent in the sanctuary of God—but that it was a profanation of the Sabbath—unprothat it was a profanation of the Sebbath-unpro-table to all, displeasing and offensive to the vir-table to all, displeasing and offensive to the vir-table to all, displeasing and offensive to the vir-taous and the good, and sinful in the sight of Heaven. He supposed the sale of liquor in pub-S56. Fo extend the provisions of the Act relating Heaven. He supposed the sale of liquor in pub-lic houses on the Sabbeth was oftener the result of thoughtlessness, than of bad in-tentions—that the long neglected set of Assembly inhibiting it, (passed more than a hundred years go) seemed scarcely to be known, or, if known, probably regarded as obsolete—that there was mothing in the terms of the license to probibit it, and that in doing what had so long been done by others, without molestation of complaint, the ent of mong years in the biogness and bad decrees for the pay-ment of mong y to the without molestation of complaint, the others, without molestation of complaint, the ent of mong what had so long been done by others, without molestation of complaint, the others, without molestation or complaint, the keepers of public taverns were probably in most cases unconscious of the extent of the offence .--Under this view, the Court would direct the Report of the Grand Jury, as well as the act of Assembly, to be published, with a hope that the practice, being thus solemnly and publicly rebuked and condemned, would at once be given up by all res-condemand, would at once be given up by all respective fund stillers and the fund stiller of the extension function on exempt property.
