

ACTE THE IN THE VOLUME XXII.1.

PUBLIC SALE.

and annut it

GETTYSBURG, PA. FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 26, 1851.

MULBERRY HILL

BY, virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Adams County, the subseriber. Administrator of the Estate of A-DAM GARDNER, late of Latimore township, Adams county, decessed, will sell at For there, at her spinning, beneath a broad tree, public, sale on the premises, on By a rivulet shining and blue as the sea, public, sale on the premises, on Saturday the 27th day of September wext

AT ONE O'CLOCK, P. M. the Farm of said deceased, situate in Latimore township, containing more or less, of land, and adjoining land of Elizabeth Vale, Christian Miller, Jesse Clock, and others. The improvements are a two-story

92 ACRES

STONE HOUSE, H with Kitchen attached, double Log Barn

well of water near the door. Abou 15 Acres of this Farm are in first rate Meadow, and the same proportion in excellent Timber: the residue being under cultivation and good fencing. The Farm is well watered; the Bermudian Creek running through it near the dwelling, and Springs being scattered over the whole of There is also on the premises,

An Orchard of choice Fruit.

from York Sulphur Springs, and will be tound a desirable property. Or Persons wishing to see the premises can do so by calling on the widow residing thereon. it's Attendance will be given and terms

inde known on day of sale by PETER H. RAFFENSPERGER

Administrator. By the Court-H. DENWIDDER, Clk.

PUBLIC SALE.

Y virtue of an order of the Orphans Court of Adams bers, Administrators of the Estate of JA COB HOWARD, late of Mountpleasant township, Adams county, deceased, will expose to Public Sale, on Friday-the 24th day of October next, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on the premises, the

VALUABLE FARM of said deceased, containing 60 ACRES. more or less, situate in Mountpleasant tp., | his fingers, or Thomas must come in on tip-and adjoining lands of Benjamin Wister. The should disturb the baby.' And yot he improvements are a two-story LOG DWELLING. with a one-story kitchen and a Shop at ed by the croup, or might cry to have some factied, a log stable, and other out-build- one walk up and down the floor with it in ings. About 15 acres are covered with its arms, and then he would not be within good theiving timber, the balance being call. In short, when 'the baby' slept, the leared and under good cultivation .---There is a well of good water convenient chantment consisted in profund silence and to the dwelling, and the property has a unbroken stillness, and all who came withnumber of excellent fruit trees on it. It lies near the Bonaughtown road, about 4 miles its influence. from Gettysburg. Attendance will be given and terms made known on day of sale by GEORGE HOWARD, Ex'rs. Clerk.

TOUCHING NARRATIVE. BY ALICE CABET. O, sweet was the eve when I came from the mill, Adows the green windings of Mulberry Hill; My heart like a hird with its throat all in tune,

That sings in the beautiful bosom of June. First saw I my Miry-her tiny feet bars, And the buds of the sumach among her black hair.

They called me a bold enough youth, and would Have kept the name honestly earned, if I could ; But, somehow, the song I had whistled was hush-

And, spite of my manhood, I hlushed, deeply blushed. would tell you, but words cannot paint my delight, When she gave the red buds for a gatland of

'Governor,' said she, 'I am the mother When her check with soft blush Hearing of his sentence, in Maryland, Enough that I loved her, and she loved me again.

Three summers have come and gone by with their charms, And a cherub of purity smiles in my arms, With lips like the resolut, and locks softly bright, As the flax which my Mary was splusing that night.

And in the dark shadows of Mulberry Hill, By the grass-covered road where I came from the mill, And the rivulet shining and blue as the sea, ("This Farm is located about one mile My Mary lies sleeping beneath the broad tree. Home Journal.

The First Baby.

In a new novel, "The Glenns," recently published, occurs the following striking picture of domestic felicity, which crusty old bachelors will read with much interest : "If the baby' was asleep, no one was al lowed to speak except in a whisper, on pain half. of instant banishment ; the piano was clo-sed, the guitar was tabood, boots were in-'Only give me the respite, and it shall each him in time. I shall see him anyterdicted, and the bell was muffled. If Mr. how, before he dies ; but I have no time to Vincent wished to enjoy a quiet cigar, he must go out of the house, lest the smoke might hurt 'the baby'; and, lest the street 'Madam,' said the Governor, 'I most leeply sympathize with you, and it pains door might disturb its slumbers, he must make his exit by the back way, and reach the street by the garden-gate. The Doc-tor was scarcely ever out of the house; not because 'the baby' was ill-for indeed it our son's favor. was most alarmingly healthy-but because she was 'afraid it might be taken with some dreadful disease, and no doctor near.' coal was placed in the grate, either Mr Vincent must put it in lump by lump with the murderer. Oh, Governor ! here on my knees before you, I pray you have pity hat and unibrella from the stand, clapped upon a poor heart-broken widowed mother !! the one careleessly on his head, and strode Our wives sobbed aloud, and the Gover- | out flourishing the other .- Inverness Cou must not take a bed in another part of the nor and myself mingled our tears over the rier. house, because 'the baby' might be attack-

already filled with tears, for no Governor

him with it, in your feeble and exhausted

Yes, I will, Governor; give it to me, nd I will have it in Columbus before the situation, in time to save him."

hour of execution arrives.'

bending suppliant. There was but one of the group that could speak, and that one bore the burden of us all, multiplied a That apparitions do not always wauder housaud fold. The Governor raised her whole house was under a spell, whose enof the head, what he had already said.

in the magic circle were at once laid under

A GOLDEN THOUGHT .--- Nature will be oported. All things are engaged in wri- that is cloquent in grief, and melting in departments, the door was suddenly flung abhorrence of it. It has no idea that you Macaulay the Historian. There is a common pedestrian of London streets well known to all who are acquaintScene at the Tremont House.

Dising Room - Yankee at table cating soup.] Yankee ... I sa-ay, waitor! This 'ere Wailer .- Sir! I don't know wot you

He had more'n forty things oher-

Aristocracy.

means by such an insingeration. I must toop an't so clean as I hev seen !

speak to Mr. Carvinknife about that !

that official to Yankee's chair.]

The following narrative, giving a glimpse ed with their hotabilities. He is a short; at the misey which strong drink has occase stout, sturdy, energeties man. He has a ioned, is extracted from "The Lights of big round face, and targe, staring, and very Temperance," a new work published in bright hazel eyes. His hai is cut short, Louisville, Kentucky : I witnessed once a scene which comes his head. His gait is firm and decided, appropriately in place here. During the sommencement exercises of Emory College, upon one occasion the Governor of the swings and flourishes, and batters on the specting the soup f state of Georgia, and his lady, with a pavoment with mighty thumps. He seems goodly number of other friends, were stay generally absorbed in in exciting and iming with me. All were light-hearted, pulsive thought, the trades of which he denyth' that. takes no pains to conocal. His face works, orful and happy, when a female form, and advanced to my door. I roceived her, and finab. Squat as is his figure, and not drat the soup is dirity 1. and, upon her request to see the Governor, particularly fine his features, there is an unmistakeable air of mental power and energy appoaching 'to grantleur, about the of the man who is to be executed, four man. He is evidently under the influence days hence, at Columbus, for nurder.— of the strong excitement of fory thought. People gase curiously at him, and stop to where I live, I hastened with all speed to Milledgeville, to beg of you a respite of his sentence, till the meeting of the Legisla-ture. There my money gave out,; but not finding you there, I have followed you who stare and shile, or of the few who hither, having walked most of the way (six- step respectfully aside, and look with curity-five inites) to make the request. Gover or, will you not suspend the sontence?" Macaulay. 'Madam,' said the Governor, his eyes

Anything wrong Sir ! the poet still gives freer vent to the menever had a kinder heart, 'if I were to grant tal impulses which appear to be continually working within him. A friend of mine lately recognised him dining in a coffee-room of the Trafalgar Hetel at Greenwich he respite, you could not possibly reach yet soop at all, of that jacket feller hadn't -a fashionable whitebait house which, poked a bill for the diffner in my face a fore I begun ter eat. I shan't pay in sdit appears, he frequently patronises .-He was alone, as he generally is, and Then you will have to travel night and the attention of more than one of the comvanice. ged on it-more'n I could eat in tew fortday, for four nights, and three days and a pany was attracted by his peculiar mutter-ights. Had a lot of wine charged, when the mute gesing and fidgettiness, and by I belong to the Sons. What I hev, I'll pay for, when the work's dun. This hare tures with which he ever and anon illustrated his montal dreamings. All at onceit must have been towards the climax of was reccommended to me, for a fust-rate the prose or verse which he was working is vern.

Superintendent .- My dear Sir, that was up in his mind-Mr. Macauley seized a massive decanter, held it a moment susonly our bill of fare, designed simply to indicate what dishes may be called for .--me to tell you, that I should violate my pended in the air, and then dashed it down upon the table with such hearty good will Our prices are uniform. Fankee .- The dure it is-well, the fact official duty to grant you the respite. I upon the table with such hearty good will have examined the case, and I cannot find that the solid chrystel flew about in fraga single mitigating circumstance in it, in ments, while the nomerous parties dining , I didn't mean anything agin yet soop.

around instinctively started up and stared 'Oh, Governer I my son is not a murder-er at heart. His disposition is peaccable. He was not himself when he committed well known to the waiters, called loudly for, yer see, when I was travellin' in Pennsylvania, they had som soop at one tavern; so clean that of yer should dip a while cam-brick handkercher into's twouldn's the deed. He drank-and Alcohol was for his bill to be made out at the bar, and then, pulling, with a couple of jerks, his greese it l.

Exit Superintendent and "linen jackt jellers" amid great laughter from the company.]

Capital Ghost Story.

bracy, is from the pen of the nuble and N. O. Picm.tent. from her knees, and repeated, by a shake the well attested fact which we give with the endorsement of the Montreal Transcript.

with in the following extracts : And now went forth from that poor Last Tuesday fortnight, as Mrs., (a. woman's heart-what shall I call it? A lady of literary taste and rather studious Let me give it an off hand blow, hare sigh? It was not that. A sob? It was habits) sat reading in her drawing room, not that. A groan? It was not that; the clock on the mantel piece struck twelve; above all things. I was subjected to its bloated frown, when I was a boy, and I but an indescribable out-breathing of all as the last stroke reverberated through the have a very early, if not a native, inborn ting her history. The planet, the pebble, sorrow. Her accents had caught the ears open. In the act of raising her head to have any rights or any feelings. You do goes attended by its shadow. The rol- of the group in the adjoining porch, and reprove the intrusion (uprung for) of her not belong to the same race with your palting her history. The planet, the pebble, sorrow. Her accents had caught the ears open. In the act of raising her head to have any rights or any leadings. You do which the beam continually assailing him, ---- of an a-ing rock leaves its schannels in the soil. the inv habitation, so lately the scene of mirth. In the act of raising her head to have any rights or any leadings. You do which the soil to have any rights or any leadings. You do have any rights or any right

The Elopement. Oh! is it jay or sorrow, hope or fear, Awakes this tremor in my timit breast ? I baust commune in storet. Come not near, Aught that my solemn musings may molest. He woulded and unwedded-ecstory ! The scroll of Fato is then, at last, revealed, Which hid from Love a deeper mystery Thad ever Sphing from Edipus concealed !

Waiter runs to Head Waiter and brings Virtue. Chaste Heaven ! that dost the chastest love ! Head Watter .- Heg pardon, Sir ! Did you have the honor of makin' remark respire, Temper the heart, which sudden hope elates, And calm to reason ov'ry rash desire, 'As purest gold all dross precipitates.

Oh, teach me ! in life's most refulgent hour, Clouds still may overshade serencet skies Heuit Waiter [looking red in the face]. That, when such storms appear, I may have Bir, shall I have the pleasure of saying power To face their darkness with unquailing eyes !

A Judge Puzzled.

Yankee [throwing himself, back w, the chair.] Look here-yeu can report to the Sewperintendant, of yen've got such an A western Justice of the Peace was reently thus hothered by one of the halfofficer over yer-I s'sposed they had sow-permitendants in Sunday Schools, but I wild vagrants of the back woods, who was brought up with an empty whiskey bottle never learn of one in a tavern before-yew kin jest say iew him what'l said to that linen jacket feller there-and mind, in his own personal custody. "So, sir, you're there ?" said the Justice.

now, of yew pervart the truth, I'll teach "Do you always come as near the truth as that ?" was the reply.

ye that the gods of the heathing are a vain thing in jest no time st ull 1. Tell the sew p what I said, but don't yer lin ! "Silence, sir ! where do you come from !" "You'll be smart if I keep silence and Superintendant [coming forward]-Anything the matter bers, Thomas Iyou find out !" "Don't be impudent, sir ! what is your Weiter .--- Ho says the soup ain't clean occupation ?" "Look here, Judge, I'll tell you one Fankee .- That's teetotal lie. I didn't thing, and I want to do it respectfully." "Well, sir." av 'twas dirty-I didn't say 'twan't clean "You're very impudent yourself." t have said anything about "This will not answer : where do you come from ?" "This side of of sundown."

"Have you an occu vation ?" "Reckon." "What is it ?".

"Bet you n pint of whiskey, Lecan tell on what yours is."

"De you mean to satisfy me ?" "Certainly, Squire, what'll you have ?" "It is necessary that you should under stand that order and peace are necessary in society. Whatever wild freedom you may find in the woods, you are now here in a community of law and order, and quiet will evince wisdom on your par t."

"Squire, I should like to understand you, What I was was agoin 'ter say' was this, the the soup wasn't so clean as I had seen, but you are too big for me. Just say no more about it, and let's go and take a drink."

#I not	er drink."
Wha		• : •
"Nev	er, sir."
- You	don't ?"		÷
"No,	sir, never."

"Sir, I bid you good morning. I have no desire for any other acquaintance with yon: Whooh I I'm coming !" and the The following foff hand blow" at arisbackwoodsman broke out of the Court .-- filted Rogers. He is dead but his spirit POLITICAL.

er 👔 🖓 👾

In his speech at Philadelphia last week Gov. JOHNSTON alluded to the charge with members were already on their way down which the Locofoco Press of the State has the board walk.

tion to a street in Brookville, and the rea for vetoing it, was because the previous, Legislature had passed the same law word for word exacily. [Roars of Inughter and applause.] The next was a bill, provid ing for the construction of a railroad in the the the interior of the State. After it had been it passed, 22 members out of 30 in the Senate, sent him a written request, to veto the bill assinging as their reason, that they had absolutely passed the bill, but they did not really know what they had voted for. [Renowd laughter.] The next till he velocil was that portion of the apportionment bill which destroyed the right of the proplet surged to them, but formidable to demagones. He had also vetoed the hill passed giving the Cohris the power to grant license foe the retail of liquor, for he believed that no Court that held the rights and liberty of the citizens under their control should liave the power to grant a license. The next was the veto of a bill that required in the rural districts that lawyers alone should be entitled to be elected Associate Judges. He believed that the beople had the right to elect whom they pleased, and to abridge that right was in direct violation of the Constitution of the State. On this question there was not a single man in the Leislature, after reading the Veto Message, that would cust a vote against it. For this exercise of the void power, the tharge is made against me, of violating a pledge given to the people .----He did not know that any other charge had been made against him during his official term of three years."

INUMBER 29.

The Governor closed by adverting to to his course in reference to the law. nassed at the close of the last session, repealing a section of the law of 1847. All candid and honorable men will approve of the Governor's action under the circumstances, however much they may differ as to the propriety or the expediency of the haw itself. We extract a few paragraphs : "He did not wish to defend himself. for that was not necessary. On the 3d of March of the year, 1847, an,act was passed in which was a section relusing jails for the custody of runnway slaves. It was signed by the late Governor Shunk; and remained the law of the State for four years. On the 27th of March last, the Senate passed an art repeating this clause, and the bul was sent the House of Representatives, where it was permitted to lay upon the table, unnoticed, until within one hour of the adjournmen.

A committee had already been appointed to wait on the Chief Magistrate, to an4 nounce that the Legislature was ready to adjourn. A committee was also appointed to wait on the other branch of the Legislature. The customary resolution of thanks were passed, and after all this, and in direct violation of the joint rules, Let me give it an on anno party is a detest it Gov. Johnston & the Veto Power. passed it through, and in so short a thing before their adjournmentas to entirely prevent a message being returned. Some lic importance at an early stage, and if they believed this of so much importance, as is

BY Aug. 1, 1851-u

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL PROPERTY.

THE undersigned, Assignee of GEORGE JACOBS, Sr., will offer at public sale, on Thursday the 9th of October next, at 12 o'clock, M., on the premises, a aituate in Mountpleasant township, Adams county, about 5 miles from Gettysburg, erate circumstances, loading herself with bounded by lands of John Miller, sr., John Eckenroth, John Felix and others. The Monday morning, look to it, whether her farm contains 54 Acres and some Perches.

FARM,

The improvements are a 2-story Log Dwelling House, a good Log Barn, and other out HU buildings, a well of water near the dwel-ling, a good Orchard, bearing choice fruit. There is a good meadow, and more can ensily be made. There is a good proportion of thriving Timber. The land is in a high state of cultivation, part of it having been well limed, and is laid off in conve nient fields, with good fences, &c.

ALSO,-A Tractof Land, adjoining the above, containing 6 ACRES, about the half being covered with thriving young Timber. Luke Woodbury, for Governor of New Persons wishing to view the property Hampshire. Now both are withdrawn by ean do so by calling on George Jacobs reber next.

House & Lot of Ground, gentle spirit pain." lying in the town of East Ber-Store, flegh M'Sheery, and bounded by a ton fors : alley. 'The house is two-story, old bachelor's funeral." and well finished, with a large back build-ing. OF Terms of sale will be made known and attendance given by JOSEPH J. KUHN,

. Bept. 6. 1851 Assignee.

1. Minte WAS FOUND,

Atre. 1 a On the 111 Set, on the crossing be-tween Fahnastock's Store and the re-sidence of John Barrett, a sum of money. Purther information can be list by inqui in ping at this office.

a 14 Nept, 12, 1851.

NOTICE TO GUARDIANS.

The Guardians whose appointments have been made for three years and supwards, are required to render an account al of the minors property under their care. to be filed in the Orphans' Court for the information of the Court and all parties V Konverned, on or before the 18th day of October next, sgruenbly to the Act of ded. Bent. 12, 1851. A. Clerk. A. Sept. 12, 1851. A. Sept. 12, 1851. A. Sept. 12, 1851. Bept. 12, 1851.

collect at once, or make up your mind to take a per centage. There is a good time coming, hoys ! And will have to the last Then tarry not, oh ! eager youth, For fairer gales to blow, But bear in mind this best of truths---The heat of times is NOW 1

WHAT IS LIFE !-- The Democratic papers of New Hampshire, only a few days ago, had at the head of their columns, the name of Levi Woodbury for President of death !

widing thereon. Likewise, on Saturday the 11th of Octo-Lamb, "to call my mother back to earth, for one day, to ask her pardon upon my at 1 o'clock, P. M., on the premiser, a knees for all those acts by which I gave her

> A Western Editor, who is an old bach lin, adjoining J. S. Hildebrand's elor, says: "We never cared a farthing a bout getting married, until we attended an

When Mrs. Hannah More asked Dr. honestly and wisely said, because if I drink at'all, I shall drink too much. Abstimence is as easy as moderation is difficult. A Temperance pledge issued by Father Mathew at Cleveland, Aug. 8, bears the number of six million, sixty-four thousand, two hundred and fifty-one.

A LOOK INTO ETERNITY .- When Summerfield was on his death-bed, he exclaimed "Oh, if I might be raised again, how could I preach ! I could preach as I have never reached before; I have had a look into elernity.'

LONDON,-If the streets of London ere put together, they would extend 8000 miles in length : the main thoroughfares pon it. are traversed by 3000 omnibuses and 8500 cabs, employing 40,000 horses.

When the heart is pure, there is hardly sin, the river its channels in the soil. the my habitation, so lately the s animal its hones in the stratum. the fern was like the court of death. and leaf their modest epitaph in the coal. At length she broke silence:

The falling drop makes its sculpture in If there is no hope, I must hasten to ny child before he dies." the sand or the stone ; not a foot steps in-

She rose, and trembling advanced to the porch, followed by the sympathizing friend, to the snow, or along the ground, but prints in characters more or less lasting a map of its march ; every act of the man in- but unyielding Chief Magistrate. She pas scribes itself in the memories of his fel-lows, and in his own face. The air is full them ; and, as her foot fell upon the stop lows, and in his own face. The air is full of sounds, the sky of tokens ; the ground that was to conduct her away from the is all memoranda and signatures, and ev- habitation of hope, she cast back a melting ery object is covered over with hints, look, and commenced her last appeal, with which speak to the intelligent. she sunk to the floor. At length, rising, When you see the wife of a man in mod as if moved by the thought that she was husband is in your debt; in case he is, questions were asked on his return, I doubt presence of her attendant, retiring alone to not that he offered her the best solace that case. Multiply her afflictions by ten thousand, and you will get the exponent of her of all power to screan aloud. She de-what one class, and that the best of our scribes her very blood regurgitating with icy race, have suffered from the use of inebriation in the set of the counternance of her loved in life wore the United States, and that of his coutsin, der at the court of Heaven, for our dealings with this class of the human family. The nearer young men approach man nood, the less liberty they allow their necks. On "entering the world," a daniy submits to almost as much choking as the shadowy form, waving in its hand a felons, when going out of it. Queet that small roll of paper; "Jessie; pay my hows there should be such a connexion between paper accounts, and let me rest in peace !" gentility and strangulation.

But her's was no uncommon

A temperance paper extending its views into the region of tobacco, exclaims :---What a strange figure the apostle Paul would have made had he gone about to proclaim the soblime truth of Christianity

Johnston, why he did not drink wine, he with a quid of tobacco and a long nine in bis mouth !" In the City of Augusta, Me., not a drop of intoxicating liquors can now be purchasisters, not one of whom will preach in the ed. All former venders have abandoned the sale voluntarily, and the drinkers take and more than any one else, to civilize milk, water, tea, coffee, and so, forth-the these clergymen ! last article is rather scarce.

little ways which every person may put on possession, health; the greatest ease, without beeing deemed either affected or sleep; and the greatest medicine, a true foppish.

Guard against reading too much or too rapidly. Read rather with stiention ; lay the book often down; impress on your There is a certain softness of manne mind what you have read, and reflect up for lack of beauty.

Unjust riches curse the owner in getting, in keeping, and in transmitting. They curse his children in their father's memory. without bridle.

Some bignts would much rather hear a Standerers are like files that leap over all man condemn , reigiou ; slogether, than a man's good parts, to light upon his cores. speak turshiy of stair o wa particular sect.

WNo."

"Because the women are running he down so," said he. O, the scamp !

then !"

friend.

less on the floor. This brought up such He makes use of you. He does not recmembers of the family as had not yet reti- oguise you as a party in interest of what is going on. You are no more a compan-ion to him than his horse or his dog-and red to rest ; restoratives were administered, and when Mrs. M. had regained possession of her suspended faculties, being a woman of strong mind and strongly culti-vated intellect, she felt disposed to considyou are no more than a horse or al dog, if you condescend to be of his association .---He belongs to the first families. But first er the whole distress she had undergone as here is meant last and least of everything honorable to humanity. Aristocracy has none of the lion in it-but it feels bigger the result of certain associations between the melancholy tale she had been perusing and her late loss, on a partially deranged nervous system. She, however, considered than a den of linns .- You must be aware of it. It regards everything allowed to you, as an allowance-a favor. You have it advisable that her maid servant should repose in her chainber, lost a return of what no rights. If you do receive anything, you she considered a nervous affection should must do homage for it. as it moved by the thought that she was the considered a nervous another should losing the time which alone would enable distress herself and alarm the family. Last The Governor disappeared with her, his carriage soon followed, and though no months past, Mrs. M. dispensed with the It comes by birth. It comes by money, It comes by idleness even. It is engendered by trade, and by office. Old wealth, however, breeds it the most offensivelya generation or two of homage paid by novher chamber, and went to bed a little beerty to bloated opnience, will breed it-he could, in her extremity, without a breach fore ten o'clock. Exactly as the clock bused, by him who holds the power, and althe worst kind. It will turn up the nose so by those who seek to have it used. He struck twelve she was awaked, and distinct- of the third or fourth generation alongof duty. Now I ask, what is all the good that ar-ly beheld the apparition she had before had granted some pardons, but he could so that it can hardly smell common fulks dent spirits have ever done, compared with seen, advancing from the table (on which as they go on the ground. You can tell the pange which this one poor widow has stood her night lamp.) till it stood opposite its nose and upper lip as far as you can see honestly say that he never granted one from political prejudice ; he never granted to, and drew aside the curtain of her bed them. And there is a dreadful dumpsy given, such as would be sustained by jus-A sense of sufficating oppression deprived her of all power to scream aloud. She dedaisy look about the eyebrows. As much as to say. "I care considerably less than no-thing about yeh." And the voice too-it lice and truth. He had granted pardons upon information which, in his judgment, was reliable.

is amazing peculiar. I havn't any superfluity of sensefear we shall have a dread account to ren- not its benevolent aspect; the eyes, once too much to be an aristocrat. Finally, beaming with affection, were now fixed with it doesn't take much to be an aristocre stern regard on the trembling, half-dissolv-I guess aristocracy is lack of sense, as much ed being, who, with the courage of despe-ration, thus abjured him : "Charles I dear anything. Sense of a certain sort, may accompt Charlos I why are you come again ?" y it, or be in the same creature. But it "Jessic," slowly and solemnly replied s a senseless concern, and moreover superlative hateful.

ON & VIOLENT SCOLD. "Bob, did you ever see miss S ?"

Beneath this lump of clay. Lies Arabella Young. Who on the twenty nigth of May Biggin to hold ber tungue "How do you know she is handsome Since custom is the powerful magistrat f man's life, let men, by all means, endeav or to obtain good customs.

John Adams, being called upon for a He that follows his recreation instead of business to follow.

The laboring man in the present age, if he does but read, has more helps to wis-dom than Solomon had.

If you can be well without health, you

"lookers on."

man who holds your coat whilst you fight. AWFUL TO RELATE !- The Pennsylvanian has discovered that all the Whig cauditionists 1.

returned to the stage. What is lawful is not always honorable few extracts from the sneech to reader's attention is invited : "Before entering at large on the discus-

now contended, the interests of the people sion of these questions, he would beg leave should have dictated a more proper course. to advert for a brief period, to some charges But what care they for the welfare of the that had been made against him by those people? They put the passage of this who are politically opposed to him. He bill off to the last moment, and he, as Guv-obligation to them for their courtesy. There is a Constitutional right in this country never condemn a man without a hearing, for they know that under our institutions, both sides of all questious must question which was invaded by the abtion be heard. The first charge against the of the Legislature, that of giving the Chief Magistrate ten days to examine any bill present executive was unfaithfulness in that may be passed, and the failure to the discharge of his duty, as the Chief guard it.at right as a sworn officer, would Magistrate, in regard to two prerogatives not have been commendable. -the granting of pardons and the remittance of fines. In this he is charged with judgment, he did not believe that the Leg-, having failed to perform his duty to the islature repealed that clause for any other effect than making political capital for their citizens. The exercise of the pardoning own candidate in the coming content power, invested in the Sapreme Magis-[Cries of that's it-applauses trate, may be abused, and doubtless is a-

Bead the Certificate!

- 1 E - 1

The following certificate, embodied in the Proclamation of Gov Johnston relation tive to the reduction of the State Debta one without having had the best reasons tells its own story. The reader will see that it is signed by Ephrain Banks, Auditor General, and John M. Bickle. State Treasurer-both Locofocos ! It snows He might have granted some that ought what Gov. Johnston's Sinking Fund is do-not to have been, but the public records will ing .- There is no humbug about this kind show by what means and on whose solici- of a document :

tation he had always granted them. As Office of the Comm'rs. of the sloking Fund, we grow older, our population increases ; HARRISSON, September 1, 1851. To his Excellency Win F. Johnston, Govern crime consequently increases, and yet he Pennayivania :

had granted lewer pardons than any of his Sin :- In compliance with the 4th, see immediate predecessors in the same space of time. His political opponents say that tion of the act, entitled "An Act to create A. whether the pardoning power has been a-Sinking Fund and to provide for the grads bused or not, he has violated his pledge bal and certain extinguishment of the made to the people before his last election. debt the Commonwealth," approved the This charge is unjust and untrue. He had 10th day of April, 1849, the Commission, declared against the too frequent use of ers of said fund hereby certify that the s of the pardoning or veto power, the abusing mount of the debt of the Commonwealth purchased since the passage of the act of of that privilege ; he said so before his elec-Assembly reterred to, and now held; by tion and he says so now. An undue exercise of this privilege is dangerous to the them, is SIX HUNDRED AND FIFTY NINE THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED general welfare of the people. The veto power is a right guaranteed to the Gover- AND TWENTY-TWO DOLLARS his business, shall in a little time have no nor by the Constitution, and too much care AND NINETY EIGHT-CENTS (#659, cannot be exercised in using it. For the 12 2,98) consisting of 5 per cent, leannineparpose of putting himself right before the gotiated under various acts of Assembly, Your obedient servante, A. I. RUSSELF people on this great question, he had prowided himself with a lew statistics by way of comparison. During the administration of Governor

Porter, a period of 6 years, he vetoed 57 bills, being at least an average of 9 bills per year. During the administration of the late (lovernor Shunk, a period of three years, he venued 60 bills, making 22 each year. At that time he (the speaker) was in the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania, and it was then contended that such an exercise of the veto power was anti-republican and a great abuse. He (Gov. Johnston) had been in power three years, and during the whole of that time, he had exercised the veto power only 7 times. [Cheers.]

n tera h£rol. • ____

JNO. M. BICKEL Commissioners of the Sinking Lund. So IT Gons-The Pacific Swam which which arrived at New York, on Saurdag last, from England, brought the following

E. BANKS,

A lange at tem of news "Breadstuffs are greatly depressed, and difficulty experienced in making sales,.... Flour declined 7d: a 1s., and Wheat 1d. a 2d. Corn is in limited demand and tower?" Glorious that for the Farmets ! What IS THP TARIFF OF 1846 1

Happiness is offen at our shies, and ale pass her by t distance in sier of , and in rach to the work has seen to see the second to the second to see the second to second to contribution for foreign missions, remarkod, "there are here, in this vicinity, six minother's pulpit ; now I will give as much as satal 5

There are a thousand pretty, engaging greatest treasure, contentment ; the greatest can be happy without virtue .-- Burke.

The greatest pleasure of life is love ; the possession, health; the greatest ease, lors Nor .-- In this theatre of human

ALLEGORICAL .--- The pawn-broker

Debt is a horse hat is always throwing its rider. Fools ride him bare-back, and life, none but God and angels should be dates for the Supreme Bench are Aboli-

Edwin Forrest, the Tragedian, has