There are those, who, prompted by selfish motives, sometimes decry Ready-made Clothing, as being defectively made up or made out of damaged materials. This may do to blind the unthinking, but not those who will take the trouble to exam ine my large assortment of goods. I invite gen-tlemen to call and say whether they have not paid as high as $8 and $10 per yard for cloths no bet-ter than that in my coats, which are made up too by a regular New York tailor. Occasionally an article may prove defective, but where is the mer-chant that has naver sold a piece of cloth, cassinette, enlicoe, or muslin, which did not turn out to be had.
