proaching Presidential Election constitutes our apology for thus publicly addressing a few suggestions to those who desire the election of WINFIELD SCOTT and WM. A. GRAHAM to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of these United States. While there is nothing in the results of the State elections that have just been held to discourage the well-grounded hope that the people of this great Republic will stand by the eminent Hero and Soldier who has so long stood by them; there is yet sufficient to induce the conviction that our opponents are up and adoing, and that the friends of Gen. Scott must work if they Pennsylvania has given a decided majority for the Opposition State candidates. We need not stop to enquire into the causes that have superinduced this result, nor to discuss the propriety of the local and illegitimate issues that were introduced into
