

Arrival of the Steamer Baltic.
FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.
New York, Oct. 3.—The steamer Baltic arrived at an early hour yesterday morning from Europe, having been away about four days.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.—No change whatever had occurred in the aspect of the Eastern question since our last news from Europe. The Turkish Conference was still in session, attempting to adjust difficulties. It was reported that a new modification, conflicting with Russia and Turkey, was to be made by the two powers, but the substance of the opinion was that the opening of hostilities might come before the end of the month.

The Service Corps had notified the Foreign Office of the arrival of war vessels.

The King of France had concluded his negotiations with Austria and Russia, and the Emperor of Austria and Russia had signed a treaty.

The French Ambassador states that the French government confidently hoped that the Turkish difficulties would be adjusted by the King of Sardinia, who has made his residence in this State.

The decision of Turkey cannot be known until after the first of next week, when the peace will be signed.

INDIA AND THE EAST.—The Chinese revolution was extending, but no decisive action was taken.

FRANCE.—The increased bad taste of the Chinese, the increased criticality of the Navy Yard, indicated the critical condition of Eastern affairs.

The movement in Europe continued, and the movement in Asia.

AUSTRIA.—A telegraphic dispatch received at Paris from Vienna, announced that Austria had declared war against Russia, and that the other instructions had been forwarded to M. de Bruck, the Austrian Minister, in the Sultan that he should send the first troops, and without any instructions to the Egyptian troops that had been shipped to the Sultan.

M. Jackson, the American Minister, had arrived at Vienna, and would present his credentials to the Emperor of Austria at the earliest opportunity.

The harvest in Austria is favorable.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS FROM COM. Perry's Expedition.—By the second mail, arrived in England, we learn that Perry's expedition, which started from London on Aug. 22, reached Japan on Sept. 2, for Japan, the Commodore's fleet consisting of the steamers Susquehanna, Wabash, and Erie, and the gunboats Michigan, Huron, and Detroit, followed by the steamer Potomac, and frigates Vanadis.

The naval forces of the 7th state, which the Egyptian troops had been shipped to, were now at Alexandria.

THE NEW CHINESE FLUTTER.—A steamer has reached us that while the United States fleet were in the neighborhood of Nanking, the Japanese, the Russians, and Saracen, had a raid on the coast of China, and had captured the island of Hainan.

To their surprise, they discovered a few European vessels, consisting of English, Scotch, Irish, and Spanish, and the Chinese, who had listed themselves there. Among them were about eleven vessels.

The government of the Chinese is a Seminole, and the Chinese are a Seminole, and he has been settled there about twenty years.

He has a family of several children, of whom were born in the last few days.

He has been successful in his endeavor to make his fortune.

(Cont.) Perry made a purchase of a piece of land consisting of six acres for $100. It is a fine piece of land, and the best part of the harbor, and is intended for a government deposit. The island is very small and the harbor excellent, having a deep water port, and a good harbor for the anchorage. The fish, such as lobsters and fish, are abundant, and plenty of wild game, plants, bananas and fruit.

The Chinese frigate Pallas and a Russian ship of war immediately followed the American squadron.

IMPORTANT REPORT FROM GERMANY.—On the 20th inst., from Constantinople, dated September 2d, the Minister of the Interior is said to have received a letter from the Sultan, addressed to the Prince of Nanchang, the principal city of Kiangsi province.
