ITH the present Number, ends the Fourth Volume, and the second year of Pulnam's Monthly.

In commencing the undertaking, the Publishers were fully aware that in a time of immense intellectual activity, and in a country of great and various literary rivalry, where, in the absence of an internatiqual copyright, the choicest works of the best foreign genius are to be had for the taking, the task was notensy, of founding and sustaining a Magazine, at once universal in its sympathies, and national in its tone. The communed and increasing favor with which the Monthly has been receive ed is the best possible proof that the task has been in some degree fulfilled.

The New Volume of the Magazine comnences under the best possible auspices. It position is now assured. Two years have demonstrated the extent of its circle of friends, and that circle is constantly The Magazine has not only the sympathy, but the actual literary support of the most eminent authors in the country. The greatest care is exercised in the selection of articles for its pages, from the immense number of MSS. repress of material to be considered, the Publishers appeal confidently for patience to all who favor them with their contributions, while they heartily thank them for their good will.

While care is taken that nothing in the remotest degree offensive to propriety or good taste defaces these pages, and the blest talent is secured to make a Magazine, which for variety of interest, and excellease of tone shall be surpassed by no similes publication in the world, the Publishers neoure the Public that their motto is still onsound, and that every year's experience will enable their more fully to deserve the favor which they so gratefully acknowledge.
