The Patent Self-Heating ROTARY SMOOTHING IRON.

HOUSEKEEPERS, Ladies that are boarding, Tailoresses, and Dressmakers; in-deed all who have occasion to use a FLAT IRON, are interested in this new and useful invention, possessing advantages over the old Cabas, Travelling Bage, Backgamma plements that are evident at sight. This iron has two smoothing surfaces, very highly finished, which rovolve on an axis, and are heated by an alcohol lamp attached to the handle, which is supplied with an incombusti-ble wick; or those who have gas in their dwellings may avail themselves of a very ingenious arrangement by which the same iron is convertible into a GAS IRON, and is heated at a mere nominal expense, by an clastic tube attached to any gas fixture.

The great secret of the popularity of this eintment es in the fact that it accomplishes all it is recommended to do, and that I do not recommend it to cure any thing but what from the nature of the ingredients, it is an absolute specific for, while other preparations of the kind are recommended to cure every disease that human flesh is held to, from Consumption that the state of the consumption of the state of om Consumption down to the bite of a flea, when, in fact, all the medical properties they contain are in the handbills, and the thousands of fictitious certificates published in their praise.

I invite these troubled with the above complaints, (particularly Salt Rheum,) to take a box and try it,—if you are not fully satisfied, return it and take back your money.
