Mc Cracken's Invaluable Remedy

THE THE RESTORATION A PRESERVATION OF THE HUMAN HAIR.

A FTER many years of laborious research and experiment, I have the gratification to announce to those of the public who may be afflicted with baldness or premature grey hair, that I have succeeded in the preparation of an article that is an infallible remedy for either of these disorders. For a considerable length of time I have been in the habit of using it upon my own customers, and in no instance has it failed to render the most entire satisfaction. Having long entertained the belief that, in a-vast majority of cases, Baldness and prema-ture greyness were induced by disease, or want of vigor and vitality of the scalp, rather than heing the necessary consequence of mere accumulation of years.

My whole attention was directed to the discovery of some preparation, which, by remov-ing the dandruff and other foreign matter which, in spite of the utmost precaution, will collect upon the scalp, would through bone or meat of any thickness. This part all its vigor and vicinity, and thus remove the great cause of both these diseases. In offering this preparation to the public, I have body, curing the most dangerous inward come full confidence that it will not disappoint the expectations of many who may feel inclined to give it a fair and impartial trial. It more of feetually, than any other preparation, removes the dandruff and cleanses the head, thus re-No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin whatever form they and luxuriant crop of hair. For the premamy assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore Heads, Serofilm or lation of its natural fluid, and, in an almost installating the control of the Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence — credibly short time, brings to it its natural. The inventor has travelled over many parts of healthfulness and color. Although this prepthe globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its public through the medium of advertising, yet application, and thus been the means of restor- by its own inherent virtues, it has won its way into favor in many of the counties of this and neighboring States. At the solicitation of many of my friends and patrons who have been benefitted by it. I have been induced to give it to the public, and in doing this, I do it with the confident assurance that any who may try it, will find it to possess all the merit claimed for it. In case of partial haldness, when used agreeably to directions, this Restorative has not failed, in a single instance, to produce a luxuright growth of the natural hair.

In the hands of mothers and nurses, it is a capital curation for all those diseases of the : calp incident to infant children.
In fine, as a toilet article, it should be in the hands of all who wish to expell the dandruff. preserve the hair, prevent it from falling off, and render it soft, glossy and wavy. by McCRACKEN, (second door to the Union Hotel.) Shippensburg, Cumberland county,
