RUN-DOWN FOR YEARS

Strength Restored by Vinol
Strength and even life itself depends upon nourishment and proper assimilation of food, and unless digestion is good the whole body suffers. Mrs. C. W. Busby, of Moundsville, W. Va., says: "For years I was in a weakened, run-down condition, and I could not find anything that would help me. Vinol was recommended and I tried it. Before I finished the first bottle I was better. I continued its use and am as well as ever. I have gotten several neighbors to take Vinol with the same result." We know the great power of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, in building up all weakened, run-down persons, and for chronic coughs, colds and pulmonary trouble, and that is why we guarantee to return your money if it does not help you. George A. Gorgas, Drugist, Harrisburg, Penna. Vinol is sold in Steelton, Pa., by T. Prowell. P. S.—Our Saxo Salve is truly wonderful for Eczema. We guarantee it.—Advertisement.

$8,000 FIRE BURNS PEN-MAR BUILDINGS

Bowling Alleys, Garage and Livery Stable Destroyed in Spectacular Blaze

Hagerstown, Md., Jan. 5.—Fire of mysterious origin destroyed the large skating rink, including bowling alleys and a garage, owned by Owen D. Shorley, of this city, and the livery stable in the rear of the Park View Hotel, owned by Benjamin Shockey, after midnight at Pen Mar Park, causing a loss of between $7,000 and $8,000. Both buildings were of frame construction, and when the fire was discovered the flames had reached such a stage as to render the possibility of checking them but of question. The skating rink and livery stable were not occupied, having been closed for the winter season. The rink was a large building, erected about ten years ago and was one of the best equipped rinks in this section. Mr. Shorley had plans for extensive improvements to be made to the rink before the opening of the summer season at the resort. The fire was seen for miles in the valley below the mountain. Mr. Shorley's loss is partially covered by $5,000 insurance. The livery stable was not insured and is a total loss.

RADIUM PRODUCED NEAR PHILADELPHIA

Complete Plant in Operation at Sellersville, La.; First Shipment This Week

Sellersville, Pa., Jan. 5.—Radium is being produced at Philadelphia's back door. Here, in this little Bucks county town, one of the world's most complete radium plants is in operation. It will make its first shipments on the precious metal, valued at $180,000 the gram, this week. Two months ago, the forces of the Radium Company of America, a company controlled by Philadelphia and New York capital, arrived in Sellersville. At their head was the Baltimore capitalist and manufacturer, Angus Cameron, president of the company. Technically, at their head was Dr. Siegfried Kohn, Austrian chemist, student of radium production in the greatest laboratories, and friend of Madame Curie, radium discoverer. The Radium Company of America did not shroud its work in mystery. Some forty men, whose homes are in this town, were hired. The company's chemist and doctors took up residence here. Carnotite ores, that hold the most valuable of elements, literally were poured into the town. These ores come from the Green River section of Utah, from the Paradox Valley and other sections of Colorado. In these parts the company has its several mining stations. "Laughs at 'Open Secret'" Despite the openness of the radium manufacture, no word that Sellersville possessed probably the world's greatest radium plant has found its way into the public prints. Angus Cameron laughed over this. He said: "Yes, it's rather amusing when you consider that many of America's greatest scientific men have known of the plant, and that many buyers representing great firms in England, France and Germany have traveled from abroad to see here in Sellersville. The existence of the plant is well known abroad."

"God Owns Sunbury," Says Evangelist Stough

Sunbury, Pa., Jan. 5.—One thousand persons braved ugly elements Sunday morning and over 1,500 persons were on hand in the evening at the Stough evangelical tabernacle opening. Dr. Henry W. Stough, evangelist, said that God owned Sunbury, its industries, railroads and citizens and that citizens had no right to complain that God was coming into their town and trying to run it. He said he would root out all evil and expose vice.

M'KEAN DEMOCRAT SLASHES THE BOSSES

Bitter Attack Made by Smethport Editor on the Democratic Machine

Democrats throughout the State were amazed on Saturday at an editorial broadside fired at Vance C. McCormick, and his associates in the Democratic State machine by the M'Kean County Democrat, of Smethport. M'Kean county was one of the first counties to line up for the reorganization cause and the editor of the paper, S. R. Lindsey, has been one of the standard bearers. Evidently the Smethport man has joined the rapidly growing faction of the Democracy that wants another change. "The Democrat, which is looked up to by many members of the party along the Northern tier, says: "Vance McCormick, of Harrisburg, who has assumed the role of Democratic boss of Pennsylvania, and a most intolerant one at that, as he has done little else during the past three years aside from that of trying to read out of the Democratic party better Democrats than he (McCormick) ever thought of being, simply because they positively refused to bow to this insolent boss, who at heart is only a thorn in the side of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, will certainly not assist in the proposed get together movement of the Democratic factions of this State. "It has been charged, and we have never heard the charge successfully contradicted, that McCormick has been entrusted with the O. K. seal for all Pennsylvania Federal appointments, and it is a notable fact that thus far only one faction of the party has received recognition in the parcel-out of the offices, and that faction the one that bolted Hon. Webster Grim in 1910. "To bring the matter down locally the Federal appointments, what few have already been made in this county, and the promises made for future appointments in M'Kean county all go to show that nearly if not quite one-half of the Democratic party is to be totally ignored by the office brokers now in control of the Democratic organization in this State. Democrats who stood just as loyally for the election of Woodrow Wilson as any of the reorganization bunch, seemingly, are to be shoved into the rear while the reorganizers are allowed to carry off all the offices. "This high handed way of doing business does not squint very strongly toward a getting together of the party for this year's important election. It has more of the appearance of an effort on the part of the State organization to punish those Democrats who voted for Hon. Webster Grim in 1910 in preference to that political renegade, William H. Berry.

who injected himself into that campaign for the sole object of defeating the regular Democratic nominee for governor, and for the purpose of disrupting the party. "This being the true condition of political affairs in Pennsylvania, Democratic speaking, at this writing, the Democrat is sorry to say that it does not view the outlook in this State with the same optimistic eyes as do some of our more or less esteemed reorganization friends who are coralling all the offices, and riding rough shod over the other half of the Democratic party of this Commonwealth. "Again we say, it is none too early to begin the work of rehabilitating the Democratic party in this State, which as yet has not been done, and is hardly possible so long as Vance McCormick has full swing in his work of trying to humiliate Democrats who do not agree with his policy of ostracizing life-long Democrats, who were Democrats before the Harrisburg gentleman was born. It is certainly hoped that the Democratic leaders may see the light before it is too late."
