POSTMISTRESS WILL NOT GIVE UP OFFICE

Alabama Woman Defies Government and Is Prepared For a Siege

New York, Jan. 5.—Mrs. Ida O. Tillman, the deposed postmistress of Geneva, Ala., defies the Federal Administration in a message which she sent to the New York Times yesterday, and in which she says: "I shall refuse to surrender my office to a post office inspector. If I am arrested, I have a corporation bond ready. I have decided to go to jail if I must, in order to get an open investigation. I am very comfortably installed in record room back of work-room in post office building and prepared to remain indefinitely. "Right after the visit of the inspector sent to get up evidence against me, got out among the patrons of got strong endorsements certifying to my efficiency. I sent this list to Congress-

DR. S. W. MITCHELL
DIES OF INFLUENZA

Was Among Best Known Physicians and Writers in State of Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, Jan. 5.—Dr. S. West Mitchell is dead. The end came at 3 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, 1524 Walnut street. Influenza was the direct cause of death, though old age had a contributing influence. Since the distinguished writer and physician became ill, six days ago, it was generally thought that he would not recover. On Thursday a slight improvement was noted in his condition, but the mending did not continue. Dr. Mitchell, whom ex-President Taft once called the most eminent physician in America—it was when Professor Taft, then President, was in Philadelphia and the guest of Dr. Mitchell—had been practicing his usual pursuits when he caught the cold that caused his death. He had been in good health, considering his years, for he would
