COLLATERAL HEIR TAX WAS $10,776.49

Register of Wills Danner Completes 1913 For State Departments

Collateral inheritance tax to the amount of $10,776.49 was collected in Dauphin county during the year ending January 5, 1914, according to the report that Register of Wills Roy C.
Danner has just completed for the Auditor General and State Treasurer.
The amount this year was considerably behind that of last year, the banner year, when more than $28,000 was collected.

AYER'S PILLS We have perfect confidence in Ayer's Pills. We wish you to have this same confidence in this medicine. The best way is to ask your own doctor all about these liver pills. Then follow his advice. Sold for over 60 years.

The tax is paid in from estates upon which there are collateral heirs and the Register of Wills deducts 5 per cent. for his own services in handling the money. The estates are all appraised and during the year $29,333 was paid out for appraisers' services.

Orwig Begins as Special Auditor.— Special Auditor S. H. Orwig to-day began the auditing of the books of the Prothonotary, County Recorder and Register of Wills for the past year. Mr. Orwig started on the books of ex-Prothonotary L. B. Worden first.
Realty Transfers.—The realty transfers in city and county yesterday included the following: William M.
Curry to Carrie L. Walton, Hummelstown, $1,305; Joseph Howarth to Anton Serbic, Steelton, $1,300; Minnie J.
Houck to J. E. Enders, Susquehanna township, $435; Susan Dodge executors to Katie B. Miller, Jackson township, $713; H. J. Forney to Minnie J.
Houck, Susquehanna township, $125; L. D. Landis to Pennsylvania Railroad company, Second and Mary's street, $20,000; Samuel McIlhenny et al. to Gilbert Day, 670 Schuylkill street, $1,750.

Wants $2,000 for Unrequited Love.
—Suit for $2,000 for alleged breach of promise was begun to-day by Lubica Mistic, who claims that notwithstanding the fact that Frank Capin proposed to her July 5, 1913, he never even mentioned marriage since. Now and then she asked him about the date, but he never gave her satisfaction, and finally told her that he never meant to marry her. It all pained immeasurably, beyond the value of mere money, but she thinks she should have some redress, and accordingly wants $2,000.

Month of Money.—City receipts during December, according to the monthly report prepared by Clerk Clarence Webber, totaled $56,526.23.
The expenditures amounted to $55,- 293.89, which materially cut into the city's balance.

Confer on Fee Bills.—At a meeting this afternoon County Controller H.
W. Gough, County Treasurer Bailey and District Attorney Stroup conferred relative to the method of including the mileage of witnesses in the fee bills. The amount for all the fee bills for any one court will be lumped and a voucher drawn for it by the County Controller and the County Treasurer will pay it out as the bills are presented without getting the Controller's O. K. on each separate warrant. The question of the county's annual financial report, which will be left to the District Attorney, who will keep this as a matter of record. In this way there can be no question raised as to the proper amount to allow for mileage.

Financial Report.—County Treasurer Bailey and his deputy, J. E.
Rutherford, are busy on the preparation of the county's annual financial report. This will likely not go to the County Commissioners for a couple of weeks.

Gough Still Busy.—Notwithstanding the fact that County Controller H. W.
Gough yesterday afternoon took the oath of office as County Controller, he was busy to-day with Marlon Verbeke, clerk to the City Controller, finishing up the city's annual report. This need not be ready much before February 1. The Controller didn't take the oath until after a hurried trip in an automobile to have his bond approved. The court had left chambers when the bond was finally ready for approval. After this was done Mr.

Gough went to the Prothonotary's office and Prothonotary H. F. Holler administered the oath.

Begin Mandamus.—While the plan of action has not been definitely announced, it is understood that an amicable action to require the County Commissioners to turn over to Auditors John W. Cassell and Francis Reigle the books of the county for 1913's auditing. C. H. Bergner and P. B. Wickersham have been retained by the Auditors. It is understood that because of the fact that a vacancy on the board exists by reason of Poor Director Walter's resignation, application may be made to the Dauphin County Court for the appointment of a minority member before initial steps are taken. Controller Gough, it is said, is willing to allow the Auditors to take over the books if they wish.

Pen Sentences For Two.—Daniel Carmichael and Paul Nickowich will be behind the bars of the Eastern Penitentiary just as soon as Sheriff Harry C. Wells can complete arrangements for escorting them to Philadelphia. Carmichael, who pleaded guilty to several charges of forgery, got from two and a half to five years in the penitentiary, while Nickowich got from eighteen months to two and a half years on several larceny charges.
Other sentences imposed by President Judge Kunkel included: J. H. Dinkle, larceny, two months; George L. Edle-blute, larceny, Huntington Reformatory; Charles Swartz, larceny as bailee, nine months; and Frazier Wright, five months for larceny as bailee.

As soon as a deed of transfer for the property of Adams estate in South Second street below Mulberry arrives from the faraway island of Longospro in the Philippines, the last of the properties which the Pennsylvania Railroad wishes to acquire before beginning the proposed freight station in South Harrisburg, will be purchased.

This deed, which calls for the transfer of the property to the company for $15,000, was sent to Lieutenant Robert Adams, an heir, who is stationed with the United States Marine Corps in the Philippines.

The sale of the other property in question that of L. D. Landis, at Mary's and South Second streets, has been closed for $20,000. By these transfers the proceedings instituted by the Pennsylvania Railroad incident to condemnation action will be withdrawn.

huge petition requesting the legislature to pass a bill providing for the submission of the woman suffrage question to the voters, about a score of women started on a twenty-eight-mile hike to Annapolis this morning.

OLDEST "DRUMMER" QUILTS

By Associated Press

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 6.—George A. Olney, who is said to be the oldest traveling salesman in the United States, formally "quit the road" last night after a service of fifty-eight years, when he was given a banquet by Kansas City traveling men. He is 79 years old.
