TO SHOW INSIDE OF WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

Clergy, Mayor and Chief of Police Will Be Asked to Witness Initial Performance

The much talked of moving picture, entitled "The Inside of the White Slave Traffic," are to be brought to Harrisburg next week, under the auspices of the Sociological Society of the Review of Reviews, of which Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. Carry Chattman Catt, and other prominent society women of New York are members. The pictures will be shown in the Majestic Theater each day during the entire week.

New Council Organized For Year at Selinsgrove

Special to The Telegraph. Selinsgrove, Pa., Jan. 8.—New helmsmen took the wheel of Selinsgrove borough here Tuesday night. Dr. William H. Ulrich was made president. I. Newton Catherman moved that the old council adjourn, and thereby Harry Weis, Elmer Long, Professor Allison and Catherman quit as borough councilmen. Burgess Miller then took charge of the meeting. The newly elected councilmen are: Harvey S. Sterner, John C. Thompson, Dr. A. C. Spangler and McClellan Wentrich.

MEN'S LEAGUE CELEBRATES

Lebanon, Pa., Jan. 8.—Observance of the first anniversary of the Men's League of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, on Tuesday evening, assumed the proportions of a mass meeting of the men of the Lancaster conference of the church, guests being present from several counties. Harry Hodges, of Philadelphia, made the address. G. H. Moyer, of Palmyra, and the Rev. H. Branson Richards, of this city, also spoke.

This is Guaranteed to Stop Your Cough. Make this Family Supply of Cough Syrup at Home and Save $2.

This plan makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer an ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price. Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 2-ounce bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

IN BED SIX WEEKS WITH COUGH. A Tamaqua, Penn., woman, Mrs. Christa B. Goff, who was thought to be dying from consumption wrote this letter after Goff's Cough Syrup brought her around. "Seven years ago I had a cough for six weeks. I had doctored with two doctors and tried everything I could think of. Nothing helped. I was nothing but a living skeleton and friends and neighbors said I was dying of consumption. I was that weak I could not move out of the bed, so one day I heard of Goff's, so I sent and without the least thought that it would do any good, for I thought nothing could help me any more, but the first dose so much good that I sent and got two bottles until I had taken that. I was like a new woman. I am never without it in the house ever since. Anybody that speaks to me that has a cold I always tell them to go and get Goff's. "My four children had the whooping cough. I thought they would choke on me. I had a doctor for them, tried everything, nothing helped. I got Goff's, it cured."

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC. To-night—Annie Russell in the old English comedy—"She Stoops to Conquer."

ORPHEUM. Keith Vaudeville—Every afternoon and evening.

COLONIAL. Vaudeville and Pictures—Every afternoon and evening.

ANNIE RUSSELL. Miss Annie Russell and her comedy company, composed entirely of English players of distinction, will present to-night, at the Majestic Theater, Goldsmith's delicious comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer." Goldsmith's humor can be spoiled by maladroit and insufficient acting. We are glad to say that the actual event of Miss Russell's presentation is, according to America's most enlightened critics, an always creditable and delightful representation of a play that has abounding humor in every situation, compact technique, literary distinction, and a polish of workmanship almost totally absent from the many passing plays of the degenerate and mushroom drama—Advertisement.

"WITHIN THE LAW". Few plays of recent years have been so enthusiastically praised as the new acting dramatic comedy of New York and Chicago as Bayard Veiller's absorbing new human interest drama of modern metropolitan life, "Within the Law," which is to be offered here on Saturday matinee and night, at the Majestic Theater.

"THE INSIDE OF THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC". The most interesting, compelling and gripping motion picture ever produced is Samuel H. London's film, "The Inside of the White Slave Traffic," which comes to the Majestic Theater for one week—four performances daily—beginning Monday.

CLARK GOOD COMEDIAN. It's the wise vaudeville critic who says the Orpheum's best bill is here this week. Lovers of the popular type of entertainment have something to rejoice over this week and that they advance sales that are reported at the box office for the remainder of the week. Bert Clark, of Clark and Hamilton, who heads the offering, is a comedian of the first class, combining mental and physical agility with a certain irresistibility whimsicality that has made him one of England's favorite musical comedy stars. Mabel's performance is pretty and versatile. On this same offering Elida Morris scoring with a clever singing specialty. Rice is a big favorite with a rattling monologue of good laughs and good songs, and there are three or four others of almost equal merit and importance.—Advertisement.

SEVEN CASTELLUCHES. The Seven Castelluches, who rank with the foremost novelty comedians appearing in vaudeville, are slated to make their first appearance at the Colonial to-day, heading an offering that looks as though it will measure up strongly with the one that proved so popular during the early part of the week. Supporting this big attraction will be "The Game," a comedy in two parts, will be a special feature in the way of "movies."—Advertisement.

VICTORIA THEATER. Henry H. Blossom, Jr.'s great American play of racing life, "Checkers," the vehicle in which Thomas W. Ross, the popular actor, has for so many seasons starred throughout the country, has been adapted for motion pictures, and under the direction of August Thomas, the eminent playwright, dramatist and author, has been produced in a spectacular motion picture by the All Star Feature Company. "Checkers" will be shown for the first time in this city at this theater to-morrow. Thomas W. Ross and supporting him in the role of "Checkers," are Gertrude Shipman, Katherine L. Salle, William W. Williams, Charles Graham and others. Other first run pictures will be shown.—Advertisement.
