CHILDREN AND BOY SCOUTS TO PARADE

Biederwolf Meetings at Waynesboro Attracting Thousands to Evangelistic Services

Special to The Telegraph

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 9.—Several thousand persons attended the Biederwolf meeting in the tabernacle Wednesday night and last night. Mr. McEwan, who has charge of the singing, is accomplishing results from the choir that has been formed since he has been here. While the large choir was singing "Win Them One by One" the large audience noticed that Mr. McEwan was "spotting" someone in the audience and they were somewhat surprised when he called the choir to halt with their singing and requested a little girl, dressed in blue, to come out of the audience to the stage and sing the last stanza of the song. The little girl was Miss Evelyn Staley, aged 10 years, daughter of Chief of Police Stephen Staley of this place. She is an exceptionally good singer and it did not take Mr. McEwan long to find it out.

The feature of the Biederwolf meeting on Saturday afternoon will be the Sunday school parade. The boys and girls will meet at the tabernacle at 2 o'clock and with banners and flags will march through the streets of Waynesboro, preceded by the famous Wayne band. All children 16 years old and under are urged to join the parade. The Boy Scouts will also march in the parade.

New Borough Organization Is Complete at Lykens

Lykens, Pa., Jan. 9.—Lykens borough council has completed its organization. Alfred F. Hanna was chosen president, succeeding J. F. Myers; Henry Kieser secretary, and Jacob Miller treasurer. Charles Clapsaddle was elected health officer. Council decided to combine the position of road supervisor and policeman, for which position $60 per month is to be paid. In times of public demonstrations extra officers may be employed temporarily.

Edward Kuntzleman was chosen for this position.

Chief Burgess Witmer performed his first official business when a number of foreigners were arrested by Constable Hawk and two deputies. They were celebrating their Christmas and a number became intoxicated and started a fight, which resulted in a foreigner being seriously stabbed.

SAVED CAKE MANY YEARS

Blain, Pa., Jan. 9.—Mrs. William A. Johnson, of this place, has a piece of cake she baked in the year 1881. She baked the cake for her brother, John Woods, who left for the West that Spring and on his return in five years brought a small remnant of it back and Mrs. Johnson has it yet. Mr. Woods is now a resident of Woodhull, Illinois, engaged in the dry goods store business.

Berwick Man Paid $30 to Friend to Kill Him; Money Offered Often

Berwick, Pa., Jan. 9.—That William Lechtenfeld, whose body was found riddled with bullets in Briar Creek township December 19, paid $30 for his own murder is the conclusion announced to-day by officers who have been working for weeks on the case. Lechtenfeld, they say, furnished the revolver, that he borrowed from another man, and bought the cartridges that were to penetrate his own body. Then, according to the theory, he hired the assassin to commit the deed and stood in the bushes while his slayer shot him.

To prove this the State policemen have what they describe as an amazing array of evidence. The motive for the crime was lacking from the first. There was every indication of suicide with the impossibility of it. He had threatened suicide by poisoning and shooting, but feared doing so, because he believed his soul would be lost.

In a saloon he offered money to a man to kill him, and it has been established that he left the saloon with a foreigner, although nothing was thought of it at the time. The fact that he paid for his own murder is indicated to the satisfaction of the State police investigators by the fact that he had money before the amount he offered for the killing when he left home, and there was little on his person when the body was found.

DISCUSS CO-OPERATION

"Co-Operation of the Home and School" was discussed in a paper read by Miss Edna Yost, at the second meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association, of the Maclay Building, last night. A vocal solo by Miss Ruth Hoover, and an instrumental solo by Miss Yost, were on the program. Officers were elected as follows: J. H. Garland, president; Mrs. Davis, vice-president; Miss Crane, secretary; Mrs. Gingrich, treasurer.
