

WAGE FIGHT ON MEN WHO HELP SALOONS

W. C. T. U. Plans to Publish the Names of All Who Sign Liquor License Applications

Five members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Dauphin county, will visit the Courthouse next week to obtain from the records the names of men who sign liquor license applications.

News Items From Points in Central Pennsylvania

Waynesboro.—Last evening woman's Relief Corps, No. 26, met in the G. A. R. rooms in the Wayne Building, and elected officers for the year.

Second Fire in Same Building in Two Days

Columbia, Pa., Jan. 10.—The second fire in the same dwellinghouse within forty-eight hours caused considerable excitement in this place late last night.

ASKS FOR INVESTIGATION

Washington, Jan. 10.—Representative Faison, of North Carolina, in a statement filed with the House Committee on Agriculture has asked for an investigation test and studies of electrical processes of getting nitrogen from the air at a high temperature.

UNITED EFFORT TO PERPETUATE G. A. R.

Commander Lantz, of Central Pennsylvania Association, Outlines Plans of Veterans

Lebanon, Pa., Jan. 10.—With a purpose of discussing ways and means of perpetuating the Grand Army of the Republic in the fact of increasing depletion of the ranks by death, rallies of the Civil War veterans in all the counties of the Central Pennsylvania district will be held during the coming summer.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Grantville.—Mrs. William Hetrick, nee Look, of Shellsville, died on Thursday evening after an illness of a week of pneumonia.

Lewistown Fire Warden Orders Shacks Torn Down

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 10.—Robert Hoffman, of Harrisburg, has returned home after a visit to friends here.

Test Measures of the Ice Cream and the Peanut Vendor

Whether or not both the peanut and the ice cream man have been slipping one across on innocent patrons through the medium of short measure is to be the subject of an investigation in the near future by Harry D. Reel, city sealer of weights and measures.

Advertisement for 'NEXT SUNDAY'S PUBLIC LEDGER' featuring 'Violet Oakley's Paintings' and 'THE COPPERPLATE PICTORIAL SECTION'. Includes details about the series and contact information for the Harrisburg News Agency.

Two Well-known Lawyers of Allegheny Courts Die

Pittsburgh, Jan. 10.—J. Scott Ferguson and John Marron, two of the best known criminal lawyers in West Pennsylvania, died yesterday within two hours of each other.

Friedmann Patient Dies in Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Mary Clara Heid, wife of Mr. Austin Heid, who went to Germany almost one year ago to obtain cultures of the then famous turtle serum of Dr. F. F. Friedmann, the German scientist, died yesterday.

Murderer, Pardoned, Refuses to Leave Jail

Baltimore, Jan. 10.—Pardoned by Governor Goldsborough December 21 last, after serving 15 years, Matthew Jones, a prisoner in the Maryland penitentiary, refuses to leave.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT DANDERINE

Girls! Girls! Save your hair! Make it grow luxuriant and beautiful. If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter.

Increase in Wages For Firemen and Policemen

Boston, Mass., Jan. 10.—Mayor Fitzgerald, last night announced an advance in wages for firemen and policemen, affecting 2,600 men.

WANTS 'FORTUNES' TAXED

Washington, Jan. 10.—Characterizing the District of Columbia as a 'paradise for tax dodgers,' Representative Borland, of Missouri, today announced that he would introduce a bill when Congress reassembled calling for a revision of the taxation laws whereby 'the fortunes brought here from other States to escape taxation will be taxable.'

Resumption of Buying Expected This Month

While there has been an increase in purchases of finished steel during the last two weeks, values have been sacrificed, and whether current quotations will continue is open to debate.

Mechanicsburg Business League Elects Officers

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Jan. 10.—On Thursday evening the annual meeting of the Business Men's League was held in the League House.

BLINDED BY FLASHLIGHT

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 10.—Claude Haugh, electrical contractor, will be confined to a dark room at his home in North Potomac avenue for about four days, as the result of his eyes becoming affected Wednesday evening while he was making a flashlight for a photographer.

Advertisement for 'That Wonderful Event' featuring Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Includes an illustration of a woman and child.

Advertisement for 'ED. PINAUD'S LILAC' perfume. Includes an illustration of a man in a suit.

Advertisement for 'Help for the Hair' featuring Ayer's Hair Vigor. Includes text about hair care and a small illustration.