Twenty Dentists Pass State Exams

No Harrisburgers Among the List Made Public at the Capitol Today

An announcement was made today of the names of the twenty dentists who passed the Pennsylvania State dental examination and who will receive State certificates permitting them to practice.

The list is as follows: Harry Bingham, W. A. Borden, Jr., John C. Challenger, George A. Coleman, Louise B. Bennett, J. Lee Eberly, Laurence L. Fagan, Walter A. Fitzsimons, Edward A. Flanagan, Joseph H. Fletcher, Henry M. Garrett, Raymond S. George, Jacob F. Goldberg, Theron J. Hickey, George A. Jenkins, Frank M. Jolly, Carl E. Levan, Harry H. Levine, James N. Perry, Jr., Louis Powell, Charles E. Quiley, Joseph H. Richman, Alfred Laurence Robinson, Joseph L. Ruddy, James Blair Sampson, James Davis Shortt, Paul V. Soxhlet, Winfield B. Stratford, Guy F. Stover, Charles B. Williams.

Veteran Helped.—William Dunn, now of Washington, was one of the Pennsylvania emergency men who hustled south when the battle of Antietam was impending, to help fight the Confederates. Although on the job when his country called, he was absent from duty when a paymaster visited the place, some time later, to settle with him and the other members of Captain Lloyd's company. The others got their money, but when Dunn returned the paymaster said the opportunity had gone. For fifty-one years Dunn has kept that account receivable in mind, and now feels that the time to realize upon it has come. He has written to Auditors General Powell explaining the circumstances and making a request for payment; and Powell, who was in the Philippines war, will mail the veteran a voucher instructing him to present his claim in a formal way.

Clerks Dropped.—Next to the attempted slaying on Commissioner Dixon today by an overzealous auditor, the sensation of Capitol Hill was the notice given to several well-known clerks of the State Treasury that their services would not be required after the close of the fiscal year. The men who go are said to be Ard C. Steel, Blair, who comes of one of the most influential families in Philadelphia; Joseph L. Gates, former cashier of the Treasury; John S. Sloan, Philadelphia, and one other.

Erie Smallpox.—Reports were sent to the Department of Health to-day that smallpox had broken out in Northeast borough, Erie county. There are eight cases.

Powell Answers.—The Attorney General's Department to-day filed an answer on the part of Auditor General Powell to the mandamus proceeding of Representative Max Aron, Baltimore, to compel him to pay him the full salary as a member of the Legislature. Aron succeeded John H. Riebel, who died in the midst of the session, and claims the full salary. Powell held that he was not to be paid for only the part he served and the Attorney General's Department has upheld him.

First Coal Report.—The first reports to be made by anthracite coal companies of their production were filed to-day. These reports will be the basis of tax settlement.

Institutes On.—The Cumberland county farmers' institutes closed to-day and to-morrow the Berks county series will open, with one scheduled for Berks county in Philadelphia county on January 23 and 24. The attendance at the Cumberland series was unusually large. The Berks series will be Wednesday, January 14 and 15; Centreport, January 18 and 19; Gettysburg, January 19 and 20; Jacksonwald, January 21 and 22. The York county series will follow Philadelphia, followed by Franklin and Delaware.

Deer Buying.—If people who live in Eastern Pennsylvania counties and are talking of having their counties closed to deer hunting for three years under the new law, they should arrange to co-operate with the State in buying them," said Dr. Joseph Kaibus, secretary of the State Game Commission to-day. The State does not have the money available to buy deer. We had hoped to secure some of the funds from hunters' licenses, but it is not possible because of the failure to make a specific appropriation.
