Harrisburgers Elected Historical Officers

Benjamin M. Nead, of this city, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Historical Societies yesterday, at the annual meeting held in the State capitol room in the Capitol. Two representatives attended the meeting from most of the thirty-two county and local historical societies, which are members. Reports were received on many subjects relating to the work of the societies of the State. Other officers elected were: The Rev. M. D. Lichter, Harrisburg, first vice-president; State Senator William D. Sprull, Chester, second vice-president; Charles I. Roberts, Allentown, third vice-president; Dr. S. P. Hellman, Hellmandale, secretary; State Librarian Thomas Lynch Montgomery, Philadelphia, treasurer.

The executive committee elected is composed of Messrs. Nead, Hellman, Montgomery, Miss Martha Bladt, Clark, Philadelphia; Dr. Hugh Hamilton, Harrisburg; Benjamin F. Owen, Reading; B. Frank Eshleman, Lancaster; Dr. H. M. M. Richards, Lebanon, and Professor Alfred E. McKinley, Philadelphia.

SLEDDERS INJURED

Two brothers, Franklin and James Marks, of 2904 State street, were injured last night when an automobile ran into their sled at Twentieth and State streets. The accident was unavoidable. The boys were coasting and collided with the automobile. At the Harrisburg Hospital it was found that Franklin's injuries consisted of a fractured right shoulder and several broken ribs. James has many bruises.

BEILISS OFF FOR PALESTINE

Special to The Telegraph
Kiev, Russia, Jan. 16.—Mendel Beiliss recently acquitted of the "ritual murder" of the Christian boy, Andrew Yushinsky, left here, accompanied by his family, for Jaffa, in Palestine. Baron de Rothschild, who manifested great interest in the trial, has bought a small farm in Palestine for Beiliss.

$25,000,000 to Be Given States For Good Roads

Special to The Telegraph
Washington, Jan. 16.—The House good roads committee reported a bill appropriating $25,000,000 government funds for assistance to the States in the construction of good roads. Apportionment to the States is to be made on a basis of population, acreage and rural mileage. Each State is appropriate for roads annually an amount equal to that allotted to it by the government.
