LEGHORN'S FALLING DOWN IN INTERNATIONAL EGG CONTEST.—The fowls competing in the third international egg-laying contest at Storrs, Conn., are showing a decline at this time that is plainly annoying to the management of the contest. This is not due to any fault of the management but to the fact that there are many new entrants whose birds were hatched too early and are now undergoing molt. The production for the tenth week was 851 eggs, 25 less than were laid the preceding week. The Leghorns are defaulting badly while the Rocks, Reds and Wyandottes have made a gain.

REV. FRANCIS H. LAIRD IS SPEAKER AT MEN'S MEETING.—The Rev. Francis H. Laird, pastor of the Olivet Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker to-morrow at the "Pleasant Sunday afternoon" meeting of the Allison Hill men's Christian Association in Lenny's theater, 5 South Thirteenth street. The music will be in charge of T. H. Davies.

A feature of the meeting will be a report which will be presented by two officers of the association who have been scouting in neighboring towns where evangelistic campaigns are underway. The report will be laid before to-morrow's meeting for such action as the association may wish to take.
