RECEPTIONS, PARTIES, WEDDINGS, ANNIVERSARIES

TROUBLE IS CAUSED GUNS LOADED FOR BY COLD WEATHER

Waterwheel at Dillsburg Light and People of York Springs Have Power Plant Freezes Shut

tense Cold Tuesday and Wednesday

Dillsburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—Communton services will be held in the Barrens Church by the Reformed conservices will be conducted by the Rev. C. E. Heffleger. The revival services in the Opera House, conducted by the Rev. G. H. Eveler, will continue all next week.—Frank Karns returned to his home from New York, where he spent seven weeks learning the barber trade.—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sheffer have removed into their new home erected in place of the one destroyed by fire last June. — W. D. Menear, who has been seriously ill, is now improving.—On account of the extreme cold on Tuesday and Wednesday morning, the public schools were compelled to close until noon, not being able to heat the rooms.—Mrs. Lizzie Bentz, who was very ill, is now able to be about again.—On Monday night the water wheel at the power plant of the Dillsburg Light, Heat and Power Company. On the Yellow Breeches creek, froze shut, leaving the town without light.—Walter B. Dick has gone to Philadelphia to take a course in commercial training.

York Springs, Pa., Jan. 17.—At the annual election of directors of the First National Bank of York Springs on Tuesday the follow-ing were chosen: Anthony Deardorff, E. W. Cashman, H. J. Gardner, Joseph W. Brame, H. C. Strayer, J. L. Bosserman and A. B. Mummert. I. W. Pearson was reelected cashler and G. W. Griest, clerk.—The Rev. L. M. Gardner, who has seen 83 winters, can now be seen daily on Meadow Hill Lake and none of the youthful skaters enter into the sport with more zest than he when he puts on his ancient turned-up skates. — Chicken thieves operating in this section almost every night and few farmers have escaped their depredations. The farmers have loaded their shotguns and threaten to shoot on sight if they hear any disturbance at their barns and chicken houses, but the trouble is that the thieves operate in the dead of night when every person is sound assep. Westward Chronister is one of the heaviest losers, 100 of his pullets having been carried off by thieves one night recently.

United Brethren Sunday School Officers Elected

Rauch left Monday for Snippensous hormal.—Miss Ruth Garrett and Miss Lillie Sherk, of Harrisburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Koons on Sunday.—Mrs. Elizabeth Baithaser intertained the following guests on sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Melwin Balthaser, of Harrisburg, Samuel Balthaser, of Jersey City, Mrs. Gertrude Nissley and daughter. Miss Gertrude Miss Bessie Hassler and Mr. and Mrs. Emory O. Hassler.—Mrs. Washington Keffer, of Harrisburg, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Cassel Sunday.—Revival services are being held in the Church of God by the pastor, the Rev. George Sigler, to continue throughout the week.—Mr. and Mrs. John Early, of Paxtang, on Sunday were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Feeser.—An election of officers was held in the United Brethren Sunday School on Sunday as follows: Superintendent, O. B. Leese; assistant superintendent, David Shadle; planist, Marion Smith; assistant, Anna Feeser; secretary, Gldeon Feeser; treasurer, Eliza Buck: Ilbrarlans, Sara Zimmersecretary, Gideon Feeser; treasurer, Eliza Buck; librarians, Sara Zimmer-man, Anna Feeser, Lester Rowe and Paul Zimmerman.

Riverton Water Company Threatens to Cut Off

By Associated Press
Mayville, N. Y., Jan. 17.—The fifth day of the siege of Edward Beardsley in his farm house near Summerdale was ushered in by rapid firing from the Beardsley stronghold. Timothy Van Cise and William Walker, friends of eBardsley, who have acted as "go-betweens" in the parleys between Sheriff Anderson and the beleagured farmer, approached the house this morning, hands above their heads. As they entered the yard they were halted by the whizzing of bullets sent over their heads from the attic window, Beardsley's lookout.

Trial of Army Officers Attracts Much Attention

By Associated Press
London, Jan. 17.—For many years no sult has aroused such widespread interest in the British Isles as the proceedings opened to-day at Bow street police court against eight officers of the British army and eight civilians, on charges of wholesale graft in connection with purchases for the army "canteens."

According to the opening speech of the prosecuting counsel, "bribery and corruption have been going on for upward of ten years."

Geo H Sourbier Funeral Director 310 North Third Street

CHICKEN THIEVES

Been Suffering From Raids on Coops

TOWN WAS WITHOUT LIGHT ONE MAN LOSES 100 PULLETS

Schools Closed on Account of In- Minister 83 Years Old Is Most Expert Skater on Old-fashioned Blades

Peru Mills Lumber Teams Haul Heavy Loads of Ties

School Officers Elected

By Special Correspondence

Linglestown, Pa., Jan. 14.—Miss
Martha Buckwalter, of Royerford, was the guest of Miss Marion Smith,—Dr. and Mrs. Harry Schaner and son John and Mr. Brown of Harrisburg, were the guests of Mrs. Rebeca Baker on Sunday.—William Harrison, of Harrisburg, on Sunday was the guest of Miss Jessie Lenker.—Dr. E. R. Rhein and family and Dr. Rhein, of Harrisburg, on Sunday were the guests of Mrs. Mary Rhein.—Elias Seltzer has purchased the Spangler family will reside in Penbrook—Miss Lillian Hain, of Hairton, was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Rheimert—Mr. and Mrs. John Clay gave a reception on Sunday to their daughter Jennie who was recently married to Harry Ricker, of Hershey. Fifty guess were present. Miss Margaret Rauch left Monday for Shippensburg normal.—Miss Ruth Garrett and Miss Lillian Hain, of Sharon, Pa.—R. Barton Short spent a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wellyim Komson Sunday.—Mrs. Elizabeth Balthaser entertained the following guests on Sunday. Mrs. and Mrs. Melwin Balthaser of Harrisburg, Samuel Balthaser o of Pittsburgh, spent an evening at th of Pittsourgn, spent an evening at the McClintic home in Cherry street.—The Rev. Mr. Morgan, Lutheran pastor, and the Rev. Mr. Deaver, Methodist pastor, conducted evangelistic services in their church the past week.—

College Represented at Great Student Convention

Annville, Pa., Jan. 17.—Clement and Henry Kreider, sons of Congressman A. S. Kreider, returned to school on Monday, the former to the Yale Preparatory School at Andover, Mass., and the latter to the University of Pittsburgh.—Squire Z. S. C. Light, re-elected at the November elections for a term of six years, took the oath of office at Lebanon Tuesday morning.

Lebanon Valley College was repreton Water Company
reatens to Cut Off
Supply For Camp Hill
Hill, Pa. Jan. 17.— Camp Hill of office at Lebanon Tuesday morning.
Lebanon Valley College was represented at the great Student Volunteer convention at Kansas City by two students, Miss Mary Daugherty and Faber Stengle, of Oberlin. The expenses of the delegates were raised by popular subscription and many friends of the delegates contributed liberally toward sending them to this meeting.—

Perry County Paper Has 38 Sale Advertisements

January 22. The citizens' committee, composed of G. C. Gochnauer, Fred Cleckner, Dr. W. Fred Kendall, Warren B. Keim and G. I. Naylor, advised all consumers not to pay their bills until the Public Service Commission and the courts pass on the case. They rely on a Supreme Court decision that water companies do not have the right to ut off the water during the progress of such a dispute. The committee has retained John W. Wetzel, of Carlisle, to represent them in the courts. The frank B. Ellis, of Philadelphia, viscosuch a dispute. The committee has retained John W. Wetzel, of Carlisle, to represent them in the courts. The frank B. Ellis, of Philadelphia, viscosuch and Mrs. Ho. Reuter.—Frank B. Ellis, of Philadelphia, viscosuch is with the understanding that the Campany was with the understanding that the Camp Hill rates should never exceed those of Harrisburg. The new rates amount to a 200 per cent. increase over the old, which for meter users were ten cents for 1000 cubic feet.

Mayville Man Continues

His War Against Posse

His War Against Posse

Allen's Cove, Penn township, killed two big hogs on Friday; one weighed 589 pounds and the other 457 pounds.—In the public sale registry columns of one of the county papers there are thirty-eight sales announced.

Five Members of Famous

Logan Guards at Lewistown

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 17. — John C. Powell, one of the best known citizent of the town, has had a severe seige of pneumonia. — Mr. and Mrs. John Mc. Auley, of Grand Island, Neb., have been stalling on friends here. — Mrs. J. B. McVey, after a short visit to friends in McVeytown, has returned home to Spearfish, South Dakota. — Mrs. James MacDonald, of Germantown, Philadelphia, called on friends here this week. — Mrs. Henry Heigh has been visiting friends in Lancaster county. — Dr. J. H. Hunter, who has been in Michigan friends here. — Miss N. E. Ott. of Baltimore, is visiting friends here the famous Logan (Gards in this place — F. W. Went, chief engineer of the Hendertson Fire Company) is one of the oldest firemen in the State.—Mrs. H. L. Haverstick and child, of York, Pa., has been calling on her parents.

Supprise For Mrs. Kuhns. Shepberdstown, Pa., Janu. 17.—Mrs.

Haverstick and child, of York, Fa., last been calling on her parents.

SURPRISE FOR MRS. KUHNS.

Shepherdstown, Pa., Janu. 17.—Mrs.
Marys Brenner, after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Harrison Knouse, has returned to her home at Altoona.
Frank Bream, of Dawson, N. D., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. M. E. Spahr.
First Sarah, of York, Spent several days with the Rev. A. B. Mower and family.—On Monday evening a surprise party.—On Monday evening a surprise party of her fifty-fifth birthday standing the very rough weather about forty guests were present. Recent ments were several and a very inch ments were severed and a very and family was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was yell largely attended and interesting.

Excutive committee with the citizens and councilmanic committees here last ught.

The veterans wanted the encampment the week of September 7, but the Michigan State fair will be in progress here that week and they were persuaded to accept the earlier date.

ALLEGED BANDIT IN JAIL

ALLEGED BANDIT IN JAIL

Allanta, Ga. Jan. 17.—The police who for years has served as ger and assistant custodian in the bandit who last night terrorized to passengers on a southbound Western and Atlantic passenger train near here and robbed them of several hundred dollars. The prisoner, who was capitary and altantic passenger train near here and robbed them of several hundred dollars. The prisoner, who was capitary and the lived in Atlanta. The police was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was held in the town school house, Friday afternoon and evening and was

Personal News Items From Nearby Towns in Central Pennsylvania

By Special Correspondence

this week. — Mrs. O. E. Seagrist spent Wednesday at Harrisburg.—Mrs. Harvey Boyer and daughter, Grace, left for their home, in Middletown, after spending a few weeks with Mrs. Boyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lantz. — Ex-Burgess Isaac Chubb has received his commission as justice of the peace. — The Christmas Savings Club, of the Hallfax National Bank, will be open for new members until January 26. — Miss Amelia Rocks, of Lancaster, visited Miss Minnie E. Bickslee, at the Reformed parsonage, recently. — Mr. and Mrs. George Stein and Mrs. Boyd Renn, of Millersburg, spent several days at the formed parsonage, recently. — Mr. and Mrs. George Stein and Mrs. Boyd Renn, of Millersburg with the Ster, Mrs. C. L. Stephenshade, at Cressona. — O. E. Seagrist spent Wednesday with his sister, Mrs. George Stein, at Millersburg. — At the annual election of trustees in the Methodist Church, on Monday evening, the following were chosen for three years: J. S. Gemberling, David G. Sweigard and W. C. Heisler, — C. C. Metzgar spent Monday at Harrisburg, the guest of his brother, William Metzgar. — Mrs. William Nelson, of Millersburg, called on friends in town on Monday. — Elmer E. Daugherty spent Thursday with friends in town on Monday. — Elmer E. Daugherty spent Thursday with friends at Harrisburg, — Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sweigard entertained the following guests on Sunday: John Shyder, of Millersburg. Misses Elsie Hoffmen and Ida Shoop, of Armstrong Valley; H. R. Landis, of Matamoras; Misses Minnie Alvord and Aldia Arnold, David Alroid, Phillp and Byron Meader and Reuben Shoop, of Armstrong Valley; H. R. Landis, of Matamoras; Misses Minnie Alvord and Aldia Arnold, David Alroid, Phillp and Byron Meader and Reuben Shoop, of Halifax. — Charles E. Motter has gone to Watsontown. — Mrs. Bertha Rohrback spent Tuesday in Harrisburg, the guest of friends. — Mrs. J. R. Sterringer and daughter, Ethel and Catherine, of Harrisburg, were guests at the home of the former's father, G. P. Koppenhaver, this week.

MHIerstown — Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kipp visited their son, Harry Kipp, at McAllistersville, over Sunday.—Mrs. J. T. B. Parson, of Port Royal, spent Wednesday with her father, William Kipp. —Mrs. Annie Brindel, of Lewistown, is a guest at the home of Roy Patton. — Raymond Wagner, of Lemoyne, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wagner, — Harry Rippmen and son, Charles Rippman, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Habrecker, of Altoona, over Sunday — Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shenk attended the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Michael Shenk, in Harrisburg, on Monday. — Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. C. C. Page, Merrs H.E. Walker and Mac Walker attended the funeral of their brother and uncle, Graham Walker, who died in Altoona, on Saturday, and was burled in Mount Union, Monday. — Mrs. O. D. Wingert is visiting her son, Rudolph Mount Joy — The Rev. C. Stewart (stchen, formerly of St. John's rectory, aporte, Pa., is the newly appointed ector of St. Luke's Episconal Church, of this place — Daniel L. Hauenstein, who spent the last year with his son the Massillon, Ohio, has returned to Mt.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 17.—The Grand Army of the Republic will hold its forty-eighth annual encampment in Detroit the week of August 31. The date was agreed upon at a conference of the Grand Army of the Republic excutive committee with the citizens and councilmanic committees here last night.

The veterans wanted the encampment the week of Sentember 7.

the Michigan State fair will be in progress here that week and they were persuaded to accept the earlier date.

ALLEGED BANDIT IN JAIL.

Atlanta. Ga. Jan. 17.—The police to-day believe a man in jall here is the bandit who last night terrorized passengers on a southbound Western and Atlantic passenger train near here and robbed them of several hundred dollars. The prisoner, who was captured near the scene of the holdup, gave his name as John Jones and sald he lived in Atlanta. The police, however, say he is James Nolan, of Des Moines, lowa.

Son Sentenced to a

Term in Penitentiary

The funeral of Louis Paganelli took place this morning. High requiem mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock at the St. Francis Roman Catholic Church by the Rev. Father D. J. Carey. Burial was made in Mt. Calvery cemetery. The pall-bearers to from one to three years in the East-ern Penitentiary.

Green, pleaded guilty to several dollars. The prisoner, who was captured near the scene of the holdup, gave his name as John Jones and sald he lived in Atlanta. The police, however, say he is James Nolan, of Des Moines, lowa.

LOSS SMALL IN 1913

Nineteen Alarms During Year, With Damage Amounting to Only $2,870

NEW FOUNTAIN FOR CEMETERY

Extreme Cold Weather Freezes Up Horns of Band in Waynesboro Parade

By Special Correspondence Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 17.—The loss by fire in Waynesboro during the past year was the smallest for a number alarms of fire, which aggregated : loss of $2,870 .- Superintendent Fred S. Gilbert, of Green Hill Cemetery, has received a very handsome iron fountain for erection in the new portion of the burial place .- Mrs. Mary Cline 74 years old, is confined to her home as the result of a fall down stairs .-John Deeter is suffering from blood poisoning .- Mrs. Samuel Harris was stricken with paralysts on Tuesday evening.-Members of the Wayne and from the railroad station Tuesday inconvenience while on their of the station. The temperature

Bleeding Kansas" Gets Editor's January Grand Jury Follows Lead Former Clerk to Mayor Failed to Personal Reasons For Declining Gubernatorial Nomination

Special to The Telegraph Emporia, Kan. Jan. 17.—William Allen White, who wrote "What's the Matter With Kansas?" did much to put or Emporia, for Governor. They wanted him to run as a Progressive canididate.

"To which the Gazette says no, a thousand times no, for we are on to that man White, and without wishing to speak disrespectfully of a fellowtownsman, who, so far as we knew, may be at least outwardly decent in the simpler returns of life-perhaps he pays his debts when it is convenient and he may be kind to his family, though that's not to his credit, for who twouldn't be?—and he may have kept out of jail, one way or another for some time. Without, as we say, desiring to speak disrespectfully of this man, we know that he is not the man either to run for Governor, or if such a grotesque thing could be imagined, to serve as Governor.
"He can't make a speech. He has a with his brother. James C. Webb.

We and Mrs. Harry Shelley and Miss.
Kr. and Mrs. And Mrs.

Son Sentenced to a

WAYNESBORD FIRE Mt. Pleasant Church of God to Be Dedicated Tomorrow

WHAT'S THE MATTER SUGGEST WORKHOUSE ATTACHMENT FOR WITH WHITE? LISTEN IN DAUPHIN COUNTY

Taken by Associated Charities For Deserters

sions to-day recommended the establishment of a too county workhouse for the confinement of nonsupport and desertion defendants. The plan suggested follows exactly that outlined by the Charities, data upon which is now being secured by a special committee.

"We deprecate the increasing number of desertion and nonmaintenance cases," reports the grand jury in this connection, "and recommend that a county workhouse be established for the confinement of defendants in nonmaintenance and desertion cases, there to be put to work, and the proceeds of their labor to be applied toward the support of their deserted families. The grand jury passed upfamilies. The grand jury passed upfamilies. The grand jury passed upfamilies. ceeds of their labor to be applied to-ward the support of their deserted families. The grand jury passed up-on 200 bills of indictment, forty--six of which were ignored and 154 re-turned as true. City Solicitor Seitz at Desk.—City Solicitor D. S. Seitz who had been confined to his home for a few days with a severe cold has returned to his desk.

Got Letter From City

Paganelli Funeral in St. Francis' Church

Appear When His Name Was Called

Following the initiative taken by the Associated Charities of Harrisburg several months ago, the Dauphin county grand jury at the conclusion of January quarter sessions be oday recommended the establishment of a for the confinement desertion defenduggested follows.

January Criminal Court was concluded to do do with the trial of Jacob H. Glockert, formerly properter of the Ekert, or orderly was placed on trial for septing in the conclusion of January quarter sessions be oday recommended the establishment of a for the confinement desertion defenduggested follows.

January Criminal Court was concluded to do day with the trial of Jacob H. Hotel Ekert, formerly properter of the testimant properter of the Ekert, formerly properter of the content was placed by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Essex, whose license was recentified by the Dauphin County selling fugure to the Dauphin County selling fugure

Notes and yellow men of the tender-loln. Ittle excitement was given to the proceedings this morning when Hiram McG. Simmers, one of the chief wit-nesses for the State, failed to answer to his name. Simmers is a former Mayor's clerk. District Attorney Stroup called several times for Simmers, and when he failed to answer he asked that an attachment be issued and that Sim-mers be brought in by the Sheriff. President Judge Kunkel granted the request.

ROB TOOL HOUSE AGAIN
For the second time in three days
the tool house of Contractor S. L.
Thompson, Walnut and Ninth streets,
was broken open during last night.
The thieves this time got away with one pair of hip boots, three pair of rubber boots, three lubricators and four injectors. On the first visit three pair of rubber boots and several bras stopcocks were carried away. ROB TOOL HOUSE AGAIN

almshouse, was run down by team and injured.

AUTOMOBILE KILLS

Mrs. H. J. Hillegas Dies From Injuries Received in Front of Her Home

COMPANION IS ALSO HURT

Driver of Machine Was Blinded by Brilliant Headlight of Car

Handsome New Building Takes Place of Old Brick Structure Erected More Than 54 Years Ago

Dilisburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—To-morrow the handsome new church building of the Church of God in Mount Pleasant, which she changes the Church of God in Mount Pleasant, which she concerns the Erected More Than 54 Years Ago

Dilisburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—To-morrow the handsome new church building of the Church of God in Mount Pleasant, and the concerns of the Church of God in Mount Pleasant, the she was the bein charge of the Rev. Charles H. Heighes, the pastor: the Rev. Dr. William A. Nates, pastor of the Fourth of God, at Harrisburg, will preach in the morning at 10 to clock, while the Rev. S. G. Yahn, we dittor of the Church Advocate, of grant preach in the morning at 10 to clock, while the Rev. S. G. Yahn, we dittor of the Church Advocate, of grant preach in the morning at 10 to clock, while the Rev. S. G. Yahn, the street Church of God, at Harrisburg, will deliver the sermon and formally dedicate the church. The new building, which was erected of red brick, trimmed with brownstone, and has a seating capacity of nearly 500 persons, is equipped with an acceteline gas lighting plant and it in charge of the church. The Rev. Mr. Heighes will preach in the new pulption of the church of the Church advocate, of nearly 500 persons, is equipped with an acceteline gas lighting plant and it in charge, which includes Mount of the work to completion. The first sermon in the new pulption who claim they had been bilinded by the light of the car, at once stopped the auto and assisted in carrying the minister's wife to the residence of Dr. W. N. Keylor, nearly. The physical preach in the new pulption of the church of t

Wormleysburg Quartet at Harrisburg Hospital

Wormleysburg, Pa., Jan. 11. — J. J.
Hemmer is installing officers in the Patrotic of the Real of the Patrotic of the Real of the Patrotic of the Real of the Real

NARROW ESCAPE IN RUNAWAY
New Bloomfield, Pa., Jan. 17.—Ross
H. Clausen, of Center township, while driving into New Bloomfield on Tuesday evening had an accident owing to the breaking of the bridle bit. Thahorse ran away and Mr. Clauser jumped out, being bruised and cut.
The horse ran to Seckert's livery stable. (where it fell on the ice.—R. 1L Hench, of New Cumberland, was in town on Monday.—D. Boyd Alter and James Miller have taken the agency for the Maxwell automobile.—There being no criminal cases to try at the January term of court the grand jurors have been notified not to attend.—Miss Theresa Miller left for Chicago, where she will spend the winter with her sister. Mrs. George Heyman.—David Fleetwood, of Joliet,
111. and William Lucas, of Centre
Hall, are guests of J. M. Gilliland.— Miss Margaret Millington who has been visiting her mother, returned to Philadelphia on Tuesday.

REVIVAL AT MILLERSBURG

REVIVAL AT MILLERSBURG

REVIVAL AT MILLERSBURG Millersburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—Charles E. Sausser has installed a gasoline engine to run his plant.—John N. Reed has secured a position with the Reading railroad as fireman with headquarters at Harrisburg. He made his first trip Monday.—Revival services are in progress in the United Evangelical, the United Brethren and Methodist Churches.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hagerty, who moved to Millersburg from Lestershire, N. Y., last spring have moved back to the latter place.
—A. N. Brubaker is visiting his daugh-ARREST HOBO GANG

A gang of hoboes invaded the open hearth department at the Central Iron and Steel Company's plant last. night, a young attorney of Chicago, was a New McCauley much trouble. In a raid five were arrested and were this afternoon sent to jail for fifteen days by Mayor Royal.

ARREST HOBO GANG

Harrisburg.—H. L. Frank was a New Harrisburg.—H. L. Frank was a New York visitor this week.—Luther Johns, and Steel Company's plant last. night, a young attorney of Chicago, was a McCauley much trouble. In a raid five were arrested and were this afternoon sent to jail for fifteen days by Mayor Royal.

"I am an old man—and many of my troubles never happened."-ELBERT HUBBARD

THE white hair and wrinkled faces of our busy men and women tell of doubt, fear and anxiety—more than disease or age. Worry plays havoc with the nervous system—so that digestion is ruined and sleep banished. What oil is to the friction of the delicate parts of an engine—is to the delicate organs of the body. It's a tonic and body builder—because it stimulates the liver to vigorous action, assists the stomach to assimilate food—thus enriching the blood, and the nerves and heart in turn are fed on pure rich blood. Neuralgia "is the cry of starved nerves for food." For forty years "Golden Medical Discovery" in liquid form has given great satisfaction as a tonic and blood maken.

DR. PIERCE'S

Golden Medical Discovery

Now it can be obtained in tablet form-from dealers in medicine or send 50 one-cent stamps for trial box. Write R. V. Pierce, Buffalo.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS Relieve constipation, regulate the liver, and bowels. Easy to take as candy.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED

I Will Prove It to You Free You who are suffering the tortures of Eczems, Itch, Salt Rheum or other skin diseases—you whose days are miserable, whose nights are made sleep-less by the terrible itching, burning pains, let me send you a trial of a sootling, healing treatment which has cured hundreds, which I believe will cure you. I will send it free, postage paid, without any obligation on your part. Just fill the coupon below and mail it to me, or write me, giving your name, age and address I will send the treatment free of cost to you.

J. C. HUTZELL, 320 West Main St., Fort Wayne, Ind. Please send without cost or obligation to me your Free Proof Treatment