

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart

Men's Suits and Overcoats in This Great January Clearance at Savings That Are Greater Than Usual

Savings are greater than usual because we bought for less than usual. The unusual weather last season caused heavy overstocks even in the best regulated houses in the country.

Hundreds of freshly tailored suits in distinctive patterns-- Plain blue unfinished worsted. Black unfinished worsted. Plain and fancy fine blue serges. Plain black chevots.

Fancy Scotch mixtures. Black and white silk pin stripe. Fancy tartan plaids. Fancy Scotch silk mixtures.

Men's Winter Suits--Actual Values to $30.00

$12.50--$15.00 $18.00--$20.00

Hundreds of new overcoats in all the latest styles--

Chinchillas, blue, grey, black, brown. Meltons, grey, black, brown. New and very swagger Bal-macans, good shades.

Brown plaid-back chevots. Black and white Scotch tweeds. Light tan and white mixed tweed. Dark green and grey mixed homespun.

Men's Fine Overcoats--Actual Values to $35

$12.00--$15.00--$18.00--$20.00

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart--Men's Clothing, Second Floor Rear.

$7.50 & $8.50 Mackinaws at $6.50

Clearance of men's Mackinaw coats. These are regular $7.50 and $8.50 values. The coats are waterproof. Sizes 34 to 46. Special, $6.50.

Clearance of Golf Vests and Sweaters

Women's $1.00 wool golf vests, white, grey, cardinal and black. Special $1.00. Women's $1.50 and $1.98 golf vests, fancy cable stitch, brushed wool simulating angora, white, grey and black. Special $1.19.

Small Rugs and Short Carpet Lengths in a Pre-Inventory Clearance: Beginning Tomorrow

Many attractive items in "Olde Tyme" Raglan rugs and in various lengths of Body Brussels and Axminster Carpets are to be found in the pre-inventory Clearance, beginning to-morrow. The reductions are interesting enough to warrant early buying.

Olde Tyme Raglan Rugs Reduced

Regular $3.00 rugs, 36x72 inches. Reduced to $1.75. Regular $2.50 rugs, 30x60 inches. Reduced to $1.75. Regular $1.25 rugs, 30x60 inches. Reduced to $1.00.

STEEL GLAD SHELL ROUTS ASSAILANTS

Oberlin Farmer Tells Poor Board Authorities Story of Attack on Foreigner

One of the loneliest thin steel-clad bullets that Uncle Sam provides for his soldiers and sailors probably prevented a double attack by thugs along the Almshouse road to Oberlin, according to the physicians and attendants at the Almshouse.

Handsham this morning said he remembered having been followed by three negroes himself just before he came upon Draga. He feared an attempt was to have been made upon him and it was then he remembered a pocket-piece, a relic of the Spanish-American War.

To Consider Mothers' Pension Plan.—The County Commissioners at their meeting Wednesday, it is expected, will consider the letter of the Civic Club relative to the plan for inaugurating the mothers' pension plan here.

Commissioner Lynch's Father Ill.—Commissioner W. H. Lynch, superintendent of streets and public improvements, was called home this morning by the sudden illness of his aged father, John S. Lynch, 224 North street.

Saturday's Realty Transactions.—Realty transactions in city and county Saturday included the following transfers: D. Z. Bolton's heirs to Albert G. McCoy, Hummelstown, $500; Mary J. Swab to James E. Harman, Elizabethtown, $150; M. M. Martz to Sidney A. Klingner, Elizabethtown, $755; G. C. Peecer to F. B. Aldinger, West Hanover township, 1526 Walnut street, and 1639-42 Apriloot, $1.

Labels in Divorce.—Labels in divorce were granted to-day by President Judge Kunkel to Ida Beard vs. J. M. Beard, and to Christina Straw vs. Raymond. Desertion is the ground in each instance.

January Criminal Court's Cost

January criminal court cost the county something in the neighborhood of $2,000 and the end is not yet. The cost of the jurors serving in the Eckert case is yet to be reckoned as well as the witnesses. The outlay by the county to date for last week's criminal sessions follows: Police constables' returns, $145; other constables, $272.42; grand jury, $390.12; petit jurors, $194.40; witness fees, $654.59; tip-staves, $182.

Many Church Beneficiaries.—Among the bequests contained in the will of Isabella Stouder, formerly of this city, probated Saturday by Deputy Register of Willis C. W. Rubendall, in Philadelphia, included the following: Pastor's Fund Society of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church, Women's Bible Readers' Society, Philadelphia, East Pennsylvania Synod, $1,000 each, and the Board of Home and Foreign Missions, each $500; remainder goes to the children of a brother John and a sister, Mary Anne Brightbill, Decatur, Ill. The estate is valued at $12,000. John E. Patterson is named as executor.

Wants Bail Reduced.—Attorney Robert Rosenberk this morning asked President Judge Kunkel to reduce the bail of Vida Donevic, charged with robbery, from $1,000 to $500.

Trust Co-Guardian.—The Harrisburg Trust Company was appointed guardian to-day for Boyd F., Leroy R. and William C. Graham, sons of William F. Graham. Each inherits about $60.

Cause of Miss Giles' Death Still Unknown

Sassari, Sardinia, Jan. 19.—The reasons which prompted Miss Ellen Giles a writer and artist of Philadelphia, to kill herself here last Thursday are still unknown, but it is said that her relations with her mother were strained, and that the mother left Sassari some time ago and took up her abode in the village of Ololai. Miss Giles shot herself through the heart with a revolver as she sat in her bedroom.

MRS. ELMER FRITCHEY NAMED IN DIVORCE and a woman friend entered the Van Buskirk house and hid in a linen closet on the second floor. Their evidence and map out the plans for issuing the bonds.

Efforts to-day of reporters to get into touch with the Fritchey family here were fruitless, there being no response to repeated calls.

URGES U. S. CONTROL.—Congressman Foster, chairman of the House committee on mines, exhorted the people of Colorado to yield their radium-bearing ores to the United States, in order that cancer fatalities, which are a disaster every week, might be averted.

Morgan Raises Hands in Amazement at the Extravagance of Field

Boston, Jan. 19.—Junius Spencer Morgan, son of J. Pierpont Morgan, student at Harvard, lifted his hands in amazement when shown the statement that the grandson of Marshall Field, a student at the University of Cambridge, in England, spends $10,000 a year.

"I spend only about one-tenth of that," said young Morgan. "I spend about as much as the other men in Hollis Hall."

Here is the Morgan budget, as estimated by an acquaintance: College tuition, with extra courses, laboratory and gymnasium fees, $150. Room rent at Hollis Hall, $100. Board at Phoenix Club, at $8 per week, 30 weeks, $240.

Board at varsity training table, at $6 per week, four weeks, $24. Books and stationery, $20. Club dues, $2. Theater and opera, $150. Flowers, $120. Chicks, $300. Railroad fare to New York and home parties, $100. Total, $1,464.

Frank Muehlfeld Goes to Electric Chair Smiling

Ossining, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Frank Muehlfeld, alias "The Kid," went smiling to his death in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison to-day, the second man to die in the chair for the murder of Patrick Burks in New York city two years ago.

NEW TAX LICENSE ORDINANCE OFFERED

announced and Mr. Gorgas says he has given no serious thought to that question. William D. Block, who has served in that capacity, and Charles E. Erb are among those who have been spoken of as possible candidates.

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 19.—Any person who fears that some day he would welcome death is invited to join the newly organized Paterson anti-suicide association. The aim of the association is to make existence as delightful for its members that they will banish all thought of suicide and will want to live on.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 19.—"Gunboat" Smith and "Willard" were matched yesterday to fight a twenty-round contest in this city on July 4.

Mexican Refugees at Marfa Ready to Take Train For Fort Bliss

Marfa, Texas, Jan. 19.—The federal soldiers and refugees who fled to the United States from Ojinaga, Mexico, began to arrive from the border today to entrain for Fort Bliss, where they are to be interned indefinitely. All the 3,300 soldiers and 1,300 or more women and children were not expected before night, and it may be tomorrow before they are loaded on the ten trains which are to carry them to El Paso.

Use Artificial Means to Bring on Crisis in Pneumonia Case

Artificial means of bringing on a delayed crisis in a case of pneumonia were tried for the first time in this city at the Harrisburg Hospital yesterday. George Moore, of Philadelphia, who is visiting at 130 South Second street, this city, was the patient.

HONOR CONVICTS TO BREAK CAMP AND RETURN TO JAIL

Dixon, Ill., Jan. 19.—Honor convicts from the Joliet Penitentiary who were sent to "Camp Hope" here to break camp to-morrow and return to their prison cells.

Anti-Suicide Association Organized in Paterson

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 19.—Any person who fears that some day he would welcome death is invited to join the newly organized Paterson anti-suicide association. The aim of the association is to make existence as delightful for its members that they will banish all thought of suicide and will want to live on.

BELL TAPPER FALLS

The tapper on the Hope falls broke Saturday afternoon during the fire alarm and fell into the loft. The broken piece weighed fourteen pounds. Repairs will be made at once. This is the first time in forty years that the bell has been out of service.

SMITH AND WILLARD MATCHED

First of Old Wooden Poles in Market St. Is Taken Down Today

The first of the old wooden telegraph and telephone poles in Market street, which are to be eliminated by February 1, came down at 11 o'clock this morning and by 6 o'clock this evening the force of linemen expects to have at least six of the old poles removed. The first pole stood in front of the Harrisburg Club building.

WILSON TALKS BRIEFLY ON NEW TRUST LEGISLATION

Washington, Jan. 19.—The administration trusts chiefly through its trust program to "facilitate the processes of accommodation" as contrasted with "the processes of suit."

Pennsylvania Bird and Game Law Is Upheld

Washington, Jan. 19.—Constitutionality of the Pennsylvania status of 1909 designed to protect wild birds and game, by forbidding unnaturalized foreign born residents from possessing a shot gun or rifle, was sustained today by the Supreme Court.

VENTILATOR FELL ON HIM

Henry Parthemer, a Pennsy brakeman, living at 2448 North Sixth street, in a serious condition at the Harrisburg Hospital with a badly lacerated scalp, received when a 100-pound ventilator of an engine in which he was riding in the local yards dropped on his head. He has a probable fracture of the skull.

TWO SUICIDE ATTEMPTS FAIL

Both of the attempted suicides now at the Harrisburg Hospital will be defeated in their purpose, in the opinion of physicians at the Central high school, who are attending to them.

DENIES ENDORSING BILL

Pittsburgh Steel Co. Resumes Full Operation

Pittsburgh, Jan. 19.—In the resumption this week of full operations by the Pittsburgh Steel Company, which has been operating on a 60 per cent basis for more than three months, Pittsburgh business interests see a further indication of returning prosperity.

Wilson Has Confidence in Business Conditions

Washington, Jan. 19.—President Wilson has been receiving opinions and estimates on the business conditions throughout the country, which lead him to believe that a general confidence in the future exists.

HOUSE MINES COMMITTEE OPENS HEARING ON RADIUM

Washington, Jan. 19.—The House mines committee to-day began hearings regarding radium and the economic questions involved in proposed legislation for withdrawing from settlement public lands containing radium producing ores.

DEATH OF INFANT

Robert Smiley Brown, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Welcome S. Brown, 1813 North Sixth street, died this morning at the home of the parents. Funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

DR. SHAW RIDUCLES UNION

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw ridiculed threats made by the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage to oppose the candidacy of Democratic members of Congress for their refusal to establish a committee on suffrage.

WANT TO ADJOURN IN JULY

GOSPEL YARDSTICK IS OF LITTLE USE

United Brethren Bishop Says Pulpit Is No Cold Storage Warehouse

That the minister who uses only his intellect and culture in his preaching is not successful I was forcibly brought out this morning by Bishop William M. Weekly, of Parkersburg, W. Va., bishop of the East District of the United Brethren Church, in a talk in the "Emotional and Sentimental in Preaching" before the United Brethren ministerial meeting, Bishop Weekly said:

SNLZER WILL TESTIFY

Special to The Telegraph

SEALS SLAUGHTERED ILLEGALLY

Special to The Telegraph

WILL PAINT WILSON'S PORTRAIT

Special to The Telegraph

FULLY $500,000,000 LOST

Special to The Telegraph

BEARDSLEY STILL SAFE

FOR SALE FOR RENT FURNISHED ROOMS UNFURNISHED ROOMS