THE MOVIES IN PANAMA

As produced by the Al. G. Field minstrel, which appear at the Majestic Theater to-day, matinee and night. The evident intent of this production is to burlesque the manner in which the moving picture people obtain material for their films, however the startling effects entitle the production to a more imposing plot. Opening with a street scene in Panama City, peoples of all nationalities are seen, supposed to be there assembled to participate in the ceremonles attending the opening of the Panama

AT THE COLONIAI.

There will be fun galore at the Colonial to-night when a group of the fair sex will compete for the cash prize that floats from the pinnacle of the "greased" pole. The girls want to match their skill with that of the boys and audiences in attendance to-night will see the result. The pole contest will be one of the features of an interesting amateur bill that has been arranged. The amateur performance will be a special feature of both of to-night's performances run in connection with the splendid vaudeville offertion with the splendid vaudeville offertion that is clieiting so much favorable
