SUMMER HOTEL AT PEN-MAR BURNED

Defective Flue Causes Destruction of Property of Mrs. Charles Wolford

Special to The Telegraph
Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 22.—Shortly after 12 o'clock last night the fourth disastrous fire occurred in the Pen-

Mar section, when the large summer hotel of Mrs. Charles Wolford, located a short distance from the ruins of the Blue Mountain House, was totally destroyed, along with a kitchen a short distance away. The fire is supposed to have started from a defective flue in the sitting room, as there had been a hot fire kept during the evening on account of the extreme cold. Mrs. Wolford and her son, the only persons in the building, had retired, and did not know of the fire until aroused by neighbors who discovered it and gave the alarm. They had barely time to escape from the building and were unable to save any of their personal effects. The only pieces of furniture taken from the rooms were a table, two chairs and a bed. The neighbors made efforts to save the surrounding buildings and succeeded in preventing the destruction of the stable, which was on fire several times, by throwing snow on the flames. The hotel had accommodations for about 100 guests, but was closed for the season early in the Fall. The loss is estimated at about $4,000, on which there is some insurance.

The big Blue Mountain Hotel was burned on August 5 last, with a loss of over $100,000, and during that fire sparks caused the destruction of the handsome residence of Oliver Ott, a mile away in the valley. A short time ago the Mystic Theater, a moving picture place owned by William Libby, of Philadelphia, who controls all the amusement concessions of the Western Maryland Railroad at Pen-Mar, was burned with a loss of $2,500.
