

Will Arrest Widow on Charge of Murdering Her Husband, Floyd Keller

Mysterious Poisoning Laid to Door of Woman Now Married Again; State Police Lay Evidence Against Franklin County Woman Before District Attorney; Letters to Alleged Lover Figure in Case

Special to The Telegraph. Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 26.—Franklin county authorities, headed by District Attorney W. O. Nicklas, think they have solved the question of who killed Floyd Keller, a well-to-do farmer, who died on November 29, 1912, from Paris green poisoning.

CURTIS A. DAVIES State Trooper Who Worked Up Evidence in Poison Case

[Continued on Page 7]

CHURCH SHOULD AD, NOT SCATHE, FALLEN WOMEN—HUTCHISON

Chief of Police Raps Minister Who Tells of House From Pulpit

SPOILED CHANCES FOR ARREST Says It Would Be Impossible to Get Any Evidence Now

"Give me evidence and less publicity, advertising Harrisburg as a city of iniquity and I will do my duty," said Colonel Joseph B. Hutchison this morning when asked if he knew of a house of ill fame in Capital street, near the Central High School, referred to in statements made by the Rev. Harry Pringle, of the International Reform Bureau of Washington, at the Ridge Avenue Methodist church last night.

COUNCIL TO INSIST ON REMOVAL OF ALL POLES FROM STREETS

Expected That Central District Will Be Cleared Within Next Month

FEBRUARY IS TIME LIMIT Light and Power Company Directed Under Merger to Finish Work by That Time

Nothing in the way of municipal improvement has pleased the public more than the removal of the unsightly poles and overhead wires which have blocked the highways and sidewalks of the city for years. It is expected that within the next month the central business district will be almost entirely rid of these overhead nuisances.

[Continued on Page 7]

WHITE HOUSE HONEYMOONERS JOYOUS AT RETURN TO YANKEELAND

Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, photographed on their arrival in New York, at the end of their honeymoon tour which included all of the places of interest in Western Europe.

FOUR PERSONS LOSE LIVES IN HEAD-ON COLLISION OF TRAINS

Dozen Others Injured, Some Fatally, in Crash Near Jackson, Mich.

TWO CARS WERE TELESKOPED Cries of Mangled and Helpless Plainly Heard by Rescuers

Jackson, Mich., Jan. 26.—Four persons are dead and a dozen injured, some perhaps fatally, as the result of the head-on collision last night between a passenger train and a freight train on the Saginaw division of the Michigan Central railroad three miles north of here.

STATE WILL MAKE PRACTICAL TESTS ON MOVIE THEATERS

Committee Arranges With Dean Jackson For Making Basis of Regulations

A committee representing manufacturers of moving picture films and managers of theaters, which came here to-day to protest against the proposed State censorship of moving picture views, arranged with Commissioner of Labor Jackson for a series of practical tests of the time required to empty theaters, to extinguish fires caused by films and to operate various devices for safety of the public.

SEPARATED 17 YEARS BROTHER AND SISTER ARE REUNITED HERE

Have Not Seen Each Other Since They Left Children's Industrial Home

After a separation of more than seventeen years, in which they had lost all trace of each other, Anna Brown, of 1102 Grape street, and her brother, Lafayette Brown, of Powls Valley, were reunited this morning.

Convicts Die After Drinking Hair Tonic

Special to The Telegraph. Philadelphia, Jan. 26.—Two prisoners died yesterday in the Eastern Penitentiary as the result of drinking a bottle of hair tonic stolen from a prison barber shop as a substitute for alcohol.

Cancer Patient on Road to Recovery Dies of Pneumonia in Hospital

Philadelphia, Jan. 26.—Erman Zook, of Kennet Square, Pa., who was showing signs of improvement under the radium treatment for cancer in the Hahnemann Hospital here to-day died of pneumonia.

Harrisburg L. & P. Co. in Annual Session; D. E. Tracy a Director

Directors and officers who will serve for the ensuing year were elected this afternoon by the stockholders and the directors, respectively, of the Harrisburg Light and Power Company.

Poultrymen to Make State Society Similar to the State Grange

Representatives of the seventy poultry associations in all parts of the State gathered at the Bolton House this afternoon for the purpose of making the Pennsylvania Poultry Society a semi-secret society, patterned after the Pennsylvania State Grange.

Late News Bulletins

Sunbury, Pa., Jan. 26.—Judges Cummings and Moser, sitting in the Northumberland county court to-day refused licenses to twenty-one old applicants from Mount Carmel and held up thirteen in Shamokin new license. Temperance workers crowded the courthouse and demanded the revoking of licenses.

WOMEN FILE PETITIONS FOR PLACES ON COUNCIL

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 26.—The petitions of two women who aspire to membership in the city council were among those filed with the city clerk to-day.

Veteran Writes For Record; Told He Was Killed 50 Years Ago

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 26.—P. C. Jordan, a Confederate soldier who went to Ohio after the war, wrote to the State Auditor for his record in Moore's Company during the Civil War.

Veterans Want Bull Run Field For National Park

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—Advocates behind the movement to have the federal government create a national park out of a portion of the ground on which the first Battle of Bull Run was fought are planning to renew the fight with increased vigor.

Church Advertising Pays Says Smucker

"Advertising does just as much for a church as it does for a business," this was the declaration of the Rev. Clayton A. Smucker, D. D., pastor of the B. E. Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, to-day in speaking of the results of advertising the evangelistic services now on in the Stevens Church.

"CATCH MY PAL" FOUNDER HERE

New York, Jan. 26.—Rev. Robert G. Patterson, founder of the temperance order in England known as the "Catch My Pal" movement, which has spread as far as Australia and Canada, arrived yesterday on the steamship Cedric to lecture for the National Reform Association of America.

FORMER SUPERINTENDENT OF CHARITIES BUREAU DIES

Philadelphia, Jan. 26.—Samuel Laughlin, former superintendent of the Bureau of Charities of this city and prominent educator, died to-day from cancer. He was educated at Princeton and from Princeton he went to Lafayette College and took up a Ph.D. in education.

SMALLPOX AT NIAGARA FALLS

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Dr. Edward Clark, of Buffalo, who has been assigned by Dr. Herman M. Biggs, of the State Health Department, to take charge of the smallpox situation here, arrived here to-day. The total number of cases of the disease is now 122.

NEW VERDICT IS WANTED

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 26.—A committee of the New York Bar Association at a meeting this month will recommend the enactment of a law to provide that a jury in a murder case in which insanity plea has been used as a defense, may return a verdict of "guilty, but insane."

THE WEATHER For Harrisburg and vicinity: Unsettled weather to-night and Tuesday, probably snow or rain; lowest temperature to-night about 35 degrees.

MARRIAGE LICENSES Mike Kosen and Mari Torok, Steelton. Mihaley Wisekovics and Mari Molnar, city.

No Restraint of Trade Here Competition is the Mother of Square Deal and the Policeman of Fair Prices.

METHODISTS BUY LAND IN ROME FOR COLLEGE New York, Jan. 26.—The Rev. Dr. Ezra Z. Tipple, president of the Drew Seminary, speaking to-day of the announcement from Rome that his brother, the Rev. Bertrand M. Tipple, pastor of the American Methodist Church of Rome, had bought land there on which to erect a great modern college, said the purchase was made for the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America.

FALL KILLS OLD MAN Augustus Poolman, the 70-year-old man, who lay unconscious in his home at 1015 South Ninth street for hours after he fell down the stairs died at 1015 South Ninth street this morning.