ple. Gibert Aldinger, superintendent of temperance work of the Dauphin County Sabbath School Association, who issued a call for a meeting to organize a temporary no-license league, said this morning that he expected a large attendance this afternoon.

At this meeting a temporary or-ganization of the Dauphin County No-license League will be affected and the methods used in Chester county, where nethods used in Chester county, where a no-license league has had great success, will be explained by the Rev. W. F. Nyce, of Chester county.

Mr. Aldinger says it is not the inention of the league to make any tremuous campaign between now and he license court in February because not sufficient time remains in which obtain evidence, except perhaps in few instances.

We shall organize the league perhaps in the city with subdivisions hroughout the county, so that a contant watch can be maintained overwery license holder in the county during the coming year. When any intembers of the league will make resorts and if sufficient evidence can be orcurred, efforts will be made to have the license of the offending hotel-weeper revoked.

the license of the offending hotel-keeper revoked.

When Climax Will Come

"Naturally, the climax of our present efforts will come in February, 1915, at the license court, when we shall throw all our forces together in an attempt to have every license in the county revoked. Of course we can't accomplish everything in a few months or possibly in a year, but from the enthusiasm that seems to prevail among those who will attend the meeting this afternoon, there can be no doubt that Dauphin county is as much aroused against the saloon as are other sections of the State where these campaigns have been started. The meeting which will be held at 4.30 this afternoon at the Masonic temple was called by the Sabbath School Association of Dauphin county, for the purpose of organizing a nolicense league.

Invitations were sent to the Anti-Saloon League of Pennsylvania, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the City Councils of Harrisburg churches, and numbers of individuals, ministers and laymen.

Claiming the police department knew of the existence of the Capital street resort in time to make a raid, the Rev. H. N. Pringle, of the International Reform Bureau of Washington, D. C., to-day expressed surprise at statements made by Colonel Hutchison, who said yesterday that too much publicity made good work by the police impossible.

The Rev. Mr. Pringle also takes exception to other things Harrisburg's chief of police said. He said this morning:

"I was surprised to learn from the evening papers that an investigation of Harrisburg's brothels, by the International Reform Bureau had spoiled 'chances for arrests.' Fifty policemen cught to inspire more fear among law breakers than one preacher, and they do when they are on the job.

"It is indeed unfortunate that the Capital street resort, which has run nineteen years without an arrest or a raid, was disturbed by public mention, just three days before Chief Hutchison was going to 'pull' it.

"A group of men tried to induce him to raid it last Saturday night, before any public mention, just three days before Chief Hutchison was going to 'pull' it.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27.—Plans for conducting a legislative State-wide investigation of alleged graft in State departments were discussed in a conference of the Republicans of the Senate and Assembly held last night but no decision was reached. Several speakers warmly endorsed the plan and urged the selection of District Attorney Charles S. Whitman of New York county, for inquisitor in case the investigation is determined upon. Two plans for conducting the hearings were considered. One plan is to entrust the matter to a standing committee of the assembly while the other proposes the appointment of a special committee.

Another conference probably will be held soon to decide whether an inquiry shall be undertaken in behalf of the legislature.

acres of grain near Hanford.

Backbone Has Broken

The backbone of the storm has been broken north of the Tehachapi mountains and the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers have cleared themselves of an overplus of water that for a while caused fear for the safety of several towns. At Sacramento the river climbed almost to 28 feet, the highest since 1909.

Washouts have disrupted train service in various parts of the State. Through service between San Francisco and Los Angeles has been impossible for forty-eight hours. Heavy snowfalls and washouts have tied uptraffic in various parts of Nevada. A Southern Pacific train is stalled between Wabuska and Hazen. Several miles of track were swept away by high water on the Nevada, California and Oregon road and tie-ups on the Virginia City. Rotary plows have cleared the Southern Pacific, Ogden line tracks in the high Sierras and snowbound trains were released.

In Oregon and Washington considerable damage has been caused by heavy winds.

Do You

PLAY FAIR

Mr. Storekeeper?

Of course you would resent any idea that you did not play fair with your customers.

But do you play fair with the manufacturers who help you? Do you play fair with yourself?

When a manufacturer places his advertising in the newspapers of your town and makes a market for you do you back him up?

Do you let the public know you have the goods?

If not, why not?

This is a line of questions you should ask yourself until you find a satisfactory answer.

The right answer will go far he right asswer will go far he right asswer will go far he right asswer will go far he dollar wagon is starting. Now is a good time to climb aboard!
