Convicted Gunmen Break Down Under Heavy Strain

Lip to a late hour this afternoon the police had found no clue to the identity of the two highwaymen who last night attempted to hold up G. H. Ayle, a conductor on the Fourth and Sixth streets line of the Harrisburg Railway Company.

The attempted hold-up occurred shortly after 11 o'clock. Quick action on the part of Conductor Ayle in closing the rear door and signaling his motorman, E. T. Jones, to go ahead frustrated the highwaymen.

The attempted hold-up was the culmination of frequent annoyances at Sixth and Division streets by a gang of rowdies who have for weeks been throwing stones and other missiles at members of the various crews.

Conductor Ayle had changed the trolley to return to Market Square last night, when two men approached the car. Jones, the motorman, in the meantnime had gone to the front of the car to lower the fender. Lean-of the car to lower the fender. Lean-of the car to lower the fender.

pany over the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad near Wiconisco.

Elias Sassaman, of Center Valley, has filed with the Commission a complaint against the Lehigh Valley Transit Company. It appears that on the Bethelehem, Catasauqua, Siegfried, Slatington and Emaus, a monthly trip book, or ticket, at reduced rates is used, whereas a full fare is charged between Allentown, Coopersburg and intervening points.

D. O. Kerr, Kingsville, informs the Commission that there are no station facilities at that point, on the line of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad and that several deaths are attributable to exposure at the station.

Curtis E. Blin-Singer, editor of the Roxborough Independent, wants the Commission to render a decision as to whether a railroad company cannot contract with a newspaper to pay for its advertising in as many miles cash value as the advertising bills amounts to, by issuing a mileage book for the use of the newspapers advertised in Regular monthly business will be transacted at the meeting of the board of governors of the Dauphin County Medical Society to-night. The Harrisburg Academy of Medicine will meet Friday night for the election of officers.

This May Happen To You

Life, limb and sight are of all capital the most exposed to anni-hilation or impairment.

Injuries and sickness cut down earnings and increase expenses.

One person in every seven is injured every year. There are so many risks you must carry; why not let us carry the risk of accident and sickness

The new policies of the General

Accident are strictly up-to-date and will help the clouds roll by. I. MILLER General Agent
