Harrisburg Tossers Received Their Letters Have Hard Practice; Nanticoke Is Coming

In preparation for what is expected to be the hardest game of the season the Harrisburg basketball squad is practicing every night. Nanticoke is the next proposition. This aggregation of tossers is traveling at a fast pace and the locals must put forth special efforts to win the game Saturday night.

As the season moves toward its close, the Harrisburg five will have many big teams to tackle. Nanticoke is looked upon as one of the strongest of the season's schedule. Because of the unusual interest manifested by the local fans the Harrisburg Basketball Association anticipates a record crowd and will make preparations for additional accommodations. The game starts at 8.15 o'clock and will be followed with dancing.

FALKENBERG EXPLAINS;
CLEVELAND PRICE LOW

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 29.—Cy Falkenberg, Nap pitcher, who is reported to have signed a Federal League contract, gave out an interview in which he said he is disgusted with the treatment he has received under organized baseball.

"I was whisked away from Cleveland to the minors when I possessed major league ability," said he. "I showed that by leading the American Association in 1912. In 1913 I came back and worked under a salary almost equivalent to that of a recruit pitcher. And I won twenty-five games and lost ten for Cleveland in 1913. I feel that my 'come back' increased the profits of the Cleveland club $50,000 and yet the contract I was expected to sign for next season granted me an increase in salary of $9.38 a week."

KIRK BROWN AND HIS COMPANY
One entire week of pleasing performances is announced at the Majestic, beginning Monday afternoon, when Kirk Brown, the popular actor and producer, supported by Miss Marguerite Fields, will appear with his capable company of players in a series of plays that range from a Shaskesperean love tragedy to a modern drama of the present day. An entire carload of special sceney is carried by Mr. Brown, who believes in mounting his plays with metropolitan lavishness and who has the reputation of never neglecting the minutest detail in his stage work. The Kirk Brown productions are so far removed from the average stock productions that they are in a class by themselves.—Advertisement.

After McDevitt had spent his last dollar in playing "millionaire for a day" it was a long time before he was again the owner of any money. He wrote a book of his life, for which, to his great surprise, he was offered $3,000 in cash.

No sooner was the offer made than John Jay sought a sculptor and ordered his statue.
