All Winter Trimmed Hats Selling at the Reduced Price of $2.95 & $3.95
On Sale Saturday at $1.95

Here's a model that was formerly $5.95—another shows a reduction from $6.50—and others were originally $8.00, $10.00 up to $14.00. We would rather take a loss and quickly clean-up the remainder of the stock than carry this small group of hats on the inventory sheets. Hence, these trimmed hats that were recently reduced to $2.95 and $3.95 go on sale for a quick dismissal tomorrow at $1.95.

Surely at such a price you can afford another hat to tide you over till Spring, especially if your early Winter hat, as is usually the case at this late date, shows signs of wear.

Altogether there are close to a hundred hats to select from—best qualities of velvet, plush and hatter's plush. Many have the popular soft crowns and ostrich trimmings—some fur trimmed styles, too.

M'DEVITT RECITES HIS CLAIMS TO FAME
 "Millionaire of a Day" Compares Himself to Nation's Great Men

Special to The Telegraph
 Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—John J. McDevitt, the Wilkes-Barre "millionaire of a day," who intends to come here next Tuesday with a statue of himself, has written many letters seeking permission to parade.

In one of his characteristic notes to Speaker Clark he gives reasons why his statue should be placed in the Hall of Fame. Among other things, this letter says:

"Washington, our first President and father of our land, worked as a surveyor, so did I.

"Franklin published a book. I am an editor.

"Lincoln split rails. I saved wood for many days.

"Garfield drove a mule on a canal. I drove a mule in a coal mine.

"Cleveland was sheriff. I acted as constable for many years.

"Grant fought in the Civil War; start a war and I will do likewise.

"Poe lived and died in poverty. I expect to do the same.

"Bryan tried to be President and failed. I was elected for Congress.

"Teddy started a new party and lost out. I lost out with him.

"I have been about all one man could be and remain sane. I have been a preacher, a doctor, a salesman, a merchant, lecturer, manager, writer, and it is not ample and sufficient argument to satisfy a curious public, then let them wait, until I deliver my dedication speech."

In a letter to Representative John J. Casey McDevitt says:

"As I never before have dedicated a statue, the affair will have to be handled with kid gloves. I don't know exactly what steps to take when I reach there, but I suppose I shall have to appear before the Senate and House and allow them to look me over before placing the statue in the desired spot."

"I would suggest that Vice-President Marshall be invited and properly cared for, as his office has very little in the line of glory, and this will give him a chance to get in the public eye."

"It will be impossible for me to fuse over all the big fellows who will clamor for recognition. You can invite the entire Cabinet, a few foreign Ambassadors, particularly the Irish representative, and don't overlook the United States Senators."

Thinking of Quality
 These days, most men when they think of a smoke, think of King Oscar 5c Cigars
 It's the way quality always affects the mind. Its influence is simply irresistible. Think of soap, silver, flour and what not and the quality kinds are the ones you instinctively think of.
 It's a good thing, too.

Samuel Gompers Replies to Charges of Miners
 Special to The Telegraph
 Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, defended that organization and its executive council in a speech yesterday before the convention of the United Mine Workers of America against charges made by Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners; Duncan McDonald, of Illinois, and others. Mr. Moyer charged that if the copper strike in Michigan should be lost it would be due to the inactivity of the executive board of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Gompers asserted that it would be impossible to levy an assessment for the copper mine strikers of Michigan, and denied that the organization "is reactionary, fossilized, worm-eaten and dead," and that the executive council is made up of "booze fighters."

MOTOR CLUB DOES MUCH FOR THE CITY
 Reports For Year Show Community Has Been Benefited by Members' Efforts

Reports of good work during the past year will be made at the annual meeting of the Motor Club of Harrisburg on February 9. Not only have the direct interests of the members been advanced, but things have been done by which the entire community is benefited.

Among these things is the movement to co-operate with the police in enforcing the traffic regulations. The members observe the rules themselves, tell their friends to do likewise, and warn violators of the laws.

During the year the road committee spent nearly $100 in laying drain pipes, $48.55 for road drags, and $35.50 for road signs. During the Orphan day outing 299 dinners were served to the children.

Officers for the year will be elected from the nominations made by the board of governors. These nominations are: President, Frank B. Bosch; first vice-president, H. W. Stubbs; second vice-president, C. W. Penny; third vice-president, H. H. Helfkin; secretary and treasurer, J. Clyde Myton; board of governors, F. H. Bomgardner, R. C. Haldeaman, W. Spry Hurlock, D. M. Dull.
