

State Library
Harrisburg Pa
July 14

HARRISBURG

TELEGRAPH

LXXXIII— No. 27

HARRISBURG, PA., SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 31, 1914.

14 PAGES. * POSTSCRIPT.

MALE HANGER-ON ATE FOOD INTENDED FOR WOMAN NEAR DEATH

Charities Investigators Find Pitiful Case in Cherry Street House

"BOARDER" HAS LEFT TOWN

Friends of Tuberculosis Patient Tell of Sacrifices Girl Had Often Made

Many a tale has been told of sudden departures from the tenderloin as a result of the recent police "clean-up" but the abrupt decision of one so-called "star" boarder in a Cherry street house to leave Harrisburg is a little tale of its own.

Woman Accused of Killing Her Husband Takes Arrest Calmly

MRS. LEWIS GERHOLD WOMAN ACCUSED OF MURDER AND MAN SHE IS SAID TO HAVE POISONED

Mrs. Gerhold and Mothen Will Try to Regain Their Liberty in Court February 6

Special to The Telegraph
Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 31.—Calmly awaiting their appearance in court on February 6 to attempt to regain their liberty by habeas corpus proceedings instituted by their attorney, Mrs. Lewis Gerhold and her aged mother, Mrs. Reuben Ricker, accused of poisoning Mrs. Gerhold's first husband, Floyd Keller, have settled down to the routine of jail life.

150 CRIMINALS FALL INTO NETS LAID BY PHILADELPHIA POLICE

Highway Robbers, Second-story Men, White Slavers and Cocaine Sellers on List

Philadelphia, Jan. 31.—In an effort to clear this city of yeggmen, highway robbers, second-story men and other criminals, a special squad of police early to-day swept through the Tenderloin district and arrested about 150 men. No women were taken into custody, but alleged dealers in cocaine, white slavers and others who the police say have varied records, were among those captured.

HEARINGS IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 31.—Twenty-seven hours' continuous train riding gave Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Secretary of Agriculture Houston, organization committee of the Federal Reserve Board, plenty of time to-day to reflect on what they have heard in connection with the establishment of regional reserve banks. They are en route from Portland, where hearings closed last night, to San Francisco, where other hearings will be opened Monday.

LINER RETURNS TO PORT

Glasgow, Scotland, Jan. 31.—The Scandinavian American liner United States crept into the Clyde to-day, having been forced to turn back on her voyage from Copenhagen to New York by the bursting of a cylinder on Thursday when 200 miles from the Scottish coast.

CONGRESS URGED TO BUY TELEGRAPH AND PHONE LINES IN U. S.

Postmaster General Burleson Tells How Purchase May Be Accomplished

Washington, D. C., Jan. 31.—Postmaster General Burleson to-day submitted to the Senate the recommendations of the departmental committee appointed by him to investigate the practicability of government ownership of telephone and telegraph lines.

FORCES OPPOSING UPTOWN SALOON TO MARSHAL BIG HOST

Opposition to the invasion of the West End by another liquor dealer will be given expression to-morrow afternoon at a mass meeting arranged by the uptown churches to be held in the First United Brethren Church, Boas and Myrtle streets.

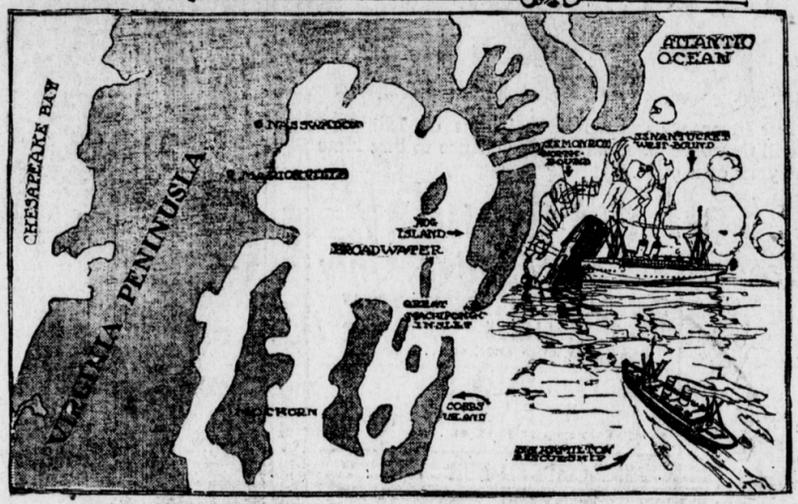

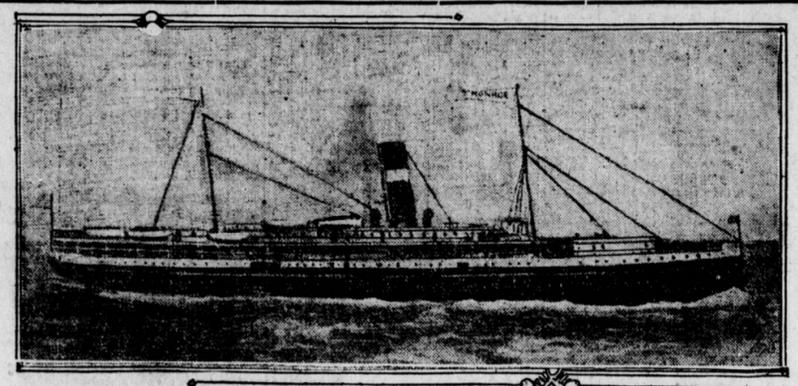

Tilden Celebration Will Cover Three Days

New York, Jan. 31.—The Tilden Memorial Commission, appointed by the Legislature to provide a fitting celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Samuel J. Tilden, announced last night that it has made extensive preparations to honor the event.

THE WEATHER

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Rain or snow and colder to-night, with lowest temperature about 25 degrees; Sunday generally fair. For Eastern Pennsylvania: Rain or snow and colder to-night; Sunday generally fair, colder in southeast portion; high southeast to south winds shifting to northwest.

SUNKEN STEAMER AND DIAGRAM OF DISASTER

The Old Dominion steamship Monroe, which sank with forty-seven passengers and members of the crew after it had been rammed by the steamship Nantucket off the Virginia coast on Friday morning. The accompanying map diagram conveys an accurate idea of what occurred when the steamship Nantucket of the Merchants and Miners' line crashed her bow into the middle of the Old Dominion liner Monroe on the morning of January 30, sending the Monroe with forty-seven of her passengers and crew to the bottom.

Drowning of Hound Brings Lad Within Shadow of Law

But Court Discusses Case and Censures Prosecutor When Facts Are Learned

When 11-year-old Eddie Carlson, Middletown, some weeks ago invited a couple of chums to attend the ceremonies incident to the execution and burial of "Tad," the terrier pup of a neighbor, he did so in good faith and with never a suspicion that the simple event would bring him within the shadow of the law.

COMMODITIES ACT BENEFITS CONSUMER, SWEENEY ASSERTS

James Sweeney, chief of the State Bureau of Standards, to-day invited people who have been criticizing the State's new commodities to law to look up the statutes in force in a number of other States before they undertake to say things about the Pennsylvania law on the subject.

Knights of Columbus "Oath" Story Libelous

Philadelphia, Jan. 31.—The authors of the so-called "Knights of Columbus oath," a widely circulated defamatory circular holding the members of the Catholic organization up to scorn, acknowledged in court yesterday that the document was false in every particular and that it was intended to harm the Catholic Church.

$100,000 to Be Paid Hershey Employees as Bonus Next Monday

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 31.—Every one of the 1,000 employees of the Hershey Chocolate Company will receive in his regular pay envelope on Monday a bonus of twenty per cent. on his salary for the year. Nearly $100,000 will be paid out by the "chocolate king" to his employees.

Fifteen Injured When Train Is Wrecked on Chicago and Alton Road

Joliet, Ills., Jan. 31.—Fifteen persons were injured, some of them seriously, when a passenger train from Chicago to St. Louis was wrecked between here and Lockport early to-day.

GEN. J. A. BEAVER, FORMER GOVERNOR, DEAD AT BELLEFONTE

Distinguished Pennsylvanian Passes Away Aged Seventy-six, After Lengthy Illness

WELL KNOWN IN CITY

One of Most Prominent and Highly respected Men of His Time

General James A. Beaver, governor of Pennsylvania from 1887 to 1891, and at present a judge of the Superior Court, died at his home at Bellefonte this afternoon. The judge had been ill for several months. He was 76 years of age, and is survived by Mrs. Beaver and two sons, Gilbert Addams Beaver and Thomas McAllister Beaver.

General Beaver was born in Millers-town, Perry county, October 21, 1837, and graduated at Pine Grove Academy and Washington and Jefferson College. He was admitted to the Centre county bar in 1859, and began his distinguished war service in 1861 as a lieutenant in the Second Pennsylvania Volunteers, was appointed lieutenant colonel of the 45th Volunteers; became colonel of the 148th regiment and made brigadier general United States Volunteers for gallantry. He lost a leg in battle.

On his return from war he was burgoess of Bellefonte and was commander of a brigade division of the National Guard. He was defeated for governor by Robert E. Pattison in 1882 and elected in 1886.

MUNSON HAVENS TO TALK AT LUNCHEON OF BUSINESS BODY OF CLEVELAND

Chamber of Commerce Expert Will Speak Here Next Saturday

Members of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce will have an opportunity to hear one of the biggest men in chamber of commerce work in the country next Saturday at the first noon luncheon to be given by the recently organized local commercial body, when Munson Havens, secretary of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, will speak here. The luncheon will be held in the lower hall of the Board of Trade Building.

Revised List Shows That 41 Passengers and Members of Crew Are Dead

NANTUCKET REMAINS IN DOCK Steamer, Badly Damaged, Is a Solemn Reminder of Yesterday's Tragedy

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 31.—With the final forty-one lives were lost and ninety-nine saved as a result of yesterday's disaster at sea, interest here to-day centered in ascertaining the causes that led up to the accident.

AMERICAN PRIESTS RECEIVED

Rome, Jan. 31.—The Pope to-day gave a long audience to two American priests, the Rev. Thomas D. Bevan, bishop of Springfield, Mass., and

Late News Bulletins

STATE WILL EXAMINE MID-WIVES The State Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure has arranged to have the examinations of midwives under the act of 1913 handled by the officers of the dispensaries of the Department of Health, who will fix the dates.

SMALLPOX CAUSES AMERICAN'S DEATH

Washington, Jan. 31.—Smallpox at Tampa has caused the death of one American. Rear Admiral Fletcher reported to-day sixty-four cases, and two Americans among the sick. The hospital ship Solace is there. The admiral has ordered that no one be permitted to land from the American ships. He says rail and telegraph communications have been cut.