

INCOME TAX HITS PLAYERS
New York, Feb. 2.—The high-salaried players of the major leagues will be hard hit by the income tax. Every regular member of the Giants will probably be liable for the tax. Unmarried men are taxable if their net income is more than $2,000, and married men are taxable if their net income is over $4,000. Counting regular salary, world's series receipts, money earned in business ventures during the winter months and all other means of revenue which ball players have, the Giants will soon have to be watching out for the revenue collector.

STEELTON'S NEW TEAM
Steelton has a "big five" aggregation of tossers and they will get into the game with all crack teams. William Rutherford is manager. The team will include Baumbach, Depe, Henger, forwards, Rutherford and Keefe, center, Shellenberger and McNair, guards.

Governor to Attend the Allentown Rally
Allentown, Pa., Feb. 2.—Upon request of no less a lover of the diamond than Governor Tener, the head of the National League, the initial meeting of the directors and fans to arrange for the financing of the Allentown Tri-State club has been postponed from February 4 to February 10.

MOGULS PLAN FIGHT AGAINST FEDERALS
Lengthy Conference Is Held at Pittsburgh by National Commission
Special to The Telegraph
Pittsburgh, Feb. 2.—A bitter fight to the finish will be waged by the major leagues and the Federal invaders.

Manager Cockill Here Today Conferred With Local Officials
Favors Albany Contract, But Has Doubts as to His Success Without Cash to Get Players
Unless the Harrisburg backers are able to produce stronger persuasive arguments than the men back of the Albany team of the New York State League, George Cockill will this season cast his lot with Albany.

Blue Pencil Sale

The Blue Pencil Sale Starts Tomorrow
DO YOU KNOW THE STORY OF THE "Man and the Blue Pencil" HERE IT IS BRIEFLY:
Two years ago the new manager of the Men's Clothing department took hold. He wanted to reduce stock and start afresh (all new managers do). So he marked down the prices on all Suits and Overcoats and held a sale. And it was a sale—a big sale. Men who knew the stock were among the first here for the bargain plums. Other men heard of the sale—heard of the man who "Blue-Penciled the Stock" and came, too. The result was extraordinary, the stock was reduced, the new manager started his department with new goods. He repeats the "Blue-Penciling" each year at about this time. And the best thing about the sale is the new goods—fresh high grade clothing—suits and overcoats that were bought for regular stock.
Here are the Blue Pencil Sale prices:
$7.90 to $9.90 Suits and Overcoats, $5.50
$9.90 to $11.50 Suits and Overcoats, $7.50
$12.50 to $16.50 Suits and Overcoats, $9.50
$18.00 to $22.50 Suits and Overcoats, $12.50
Begins to-morrow and continues a number of days until the stock is pretty well disposed of. Then spring goods will be shown.
All garments arranged for easy choosing. See some of the values in the window.

Things in Allentown look rosy, especially since there has been a definite engagement of John Francis Castle as manager. Few men have ever created such enthusiasm in so short a time. Castle has the distinction of having been launched in baseball by Connie Mack, and he has also played with the Phillies. The big new board of directors heading the Allentown team this season has asked him not only to assemble the old team under the rules, but to engage some promising new material he has his eyes on.

From present indications the pitching staff will be the best Allentown ever had, and the infield and outfield will be as good as a minor club can secure.

The players who have jumped will be given an opportunity to renew allegiance to the clubs which claim them, if the courts decide that they cannot play with the Federals. Those players who voluntarily return to their teams before the legal war is begun will be protected in the courts by organized baseball.

CENTRAL HIGH GIRLS HAVE HARD GAME
The Central High girls will play the Agathalatha girls on the Cathedral floor to-night, starting at 8 o'clock. The Central team has been doing splendid work, knocking their opponents, and the game will arouse much interest, as the Agathalatha club is known for its plucky little players. The line-up will be as follows:
Central. C. Melville, f. K. Simonetti, f. M. Velder, f. E. Mulcahy, f. H. Hauch, c. L. Sweney, c. (captain) M. Dougherty, g. B. Hinkle, g. A. Fogarty, g. B. Shaffer, g.

BITS OF SPORTS
Reading may get a new baseball park. The late John R. McVey, of Sharon, willed $300 to teach his son the baseball game.
"Pop" Foster, a former Harrisburg, is looking after Mercersburg athletes who want to get into the baseball game.
The Franciscan girls will go to York to-morrow night to play the Friendly girls of that city. Coach McConnell will accompany the team.
Manager Ed. Schlayer, of the All-Scholastic basketball team, wants games. His address is 122 Sayford street.
The Central Grammar School five, of Middletown, is anxious to meet the local teams. Swiler Conklin is manager.
Millersburg will meet Monday night, February 8, to discuss plans for the coming season.
The Methodist Boys lost to Carlisle Athletic Club five on Saturday; score, 32 to 25.

FEDS WANT CREE
Special to The Telegraph
Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 2.—"Doc" Gessler, manager of the Pittsburgh team, of the Federal League of Baseball Clubs, was here yesterday trying to get Birdie Cree, outfielder on the New York team of the American League, to sign a contract with the Federals. He went away without getting any satisfaction. Gessler, according to Cree, showed a certified check for $15,000 made to the player's order.

BASEBALL AT ROME
Rome, Feb. 2.—The American baseball players of the National and American Leagues, who have been around the world, are expected to reach here February 10. They will be received in audience by the pope and will play an exhibition game at the stadium, which seats 100,000 spectators.

There will be other teams in the race long enough to make it interesting, but the general opinion prevails that Binghamton has a good backer and is a sure winner.
This, along with the fact that Albany may not have the cash for strengthening a team when necessary may bring a decision from Manager Cockill to remain in Harrisburg.
A guarantee from the Albany backers to give Manager Cockill full charge and plenty of cash will likely mean that Harrisburg must look around for another manager, now that it is believed Cockill will go to Albany. There are already many applications for his job. Among other applicants are Lou Ritter, John Brackenridge, "Steamer" Flanagan, Johnny Sundheim, Bert Conn and Marty Hogan.

HARRISBURG TOSSEBS TRIM THE GARNETS
Harrisburg tossers walked away from the Garnets, of Philadelphia, in a lively game at the Armory Saturday night, winning by a score of 38 to 30. McCord was the star with nine field goals and fourteen foul shots to his credit. Dienez and Halre played well for the Garnets. The line-up, and summary:
Harrisburg. McCord, f. Dienez, f. Bumbaugh, f. Ehlers, c. Giesel, c. Nessler, g. Gaffney, g. Parker, g. Atticks, g. Goals from field. McCord, 3, Bumbaugh, 6, Dienez, 4, Halre, 3, Gaffney, 4, Giesel, 2, Nessler, 3, Parker, Ehlers, Atticks, Foul goals, McCord, 14 out of 14; Halre, 4 out of 7. Referee, Johnson. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

ROYALS WILL PLAY ON TECH HIGH FLOOR
The John K. Royal team will play the Methodist club on Tech High floor to-night, starting at 8 p. m. This promises to be a warm contest. Players on each team are all P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. stars and they are about evenly matched as to their ability to play basketball. The following is the line-up:
Royals. M. Yoder, f. J. Thomas, f. N. Ford, (Capt.), f. (Capt.) D. Gregory, c. J. Yoder, f. J. Hoover, c. A. Winn, c. J. Gough, g. (Mulligan) (T. Colestock) c. Yoder, g. (L. Chard) R. Fieck, g. (Rudy)

OPTION CLAUSE OPINION
John G. Johnson, one of Philadelphia's leading attorneys, has looked over the option clause in the American League which Benjamin F. Shibe of the Athletics recently submitted to him. Mr. Johnson in his opinion says that the fact that the player agrees for a consideration to sell an option on his services to the club owner for a following season makes the contract binding in law and that the Federal as well as the State courts will so decree. Fortified with the opinion of Attorney General John C. Bell, of Pennsylvania, and former President William H. Taft that the option clause will stand the acid test, organized baseball men soon will announce that a vigorous fight in the courts will be made to restrain players from appearing in Federal League uniforms.

Why Should I Smoke TUXEDO?
TUXEDO is the logical smoke for millionaires because it is impossible to buy a better tobacco.
Tuxedo is the logical smoke for the economical man because there are 40 pipefuls in a ten-cent tin—making the average cost per pipeful only one-fourth of a cent!
To buy cheaper tobacco means to get less pleasure out of smoking, because it is impossible to make a tobacco as good as Tuxedo at less than the Tuxedo price!

Tuxedo
The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo is made of only the finest, choicest selected leaves of perfectly aged Burley tobacco. It is made by the original Tuxedo process which takes all the unpleasantness out of tobacco and leaves all the pleasantness in!
Tuxedo has a deliciously mild, fragrant aroma that is pleasant to all. It is the only tobacco you can smoke in a room full of lace curtains without leaving even a trace of an odor.
A trial will convince you that Tuxedo is superior to every other tobacco you have ever smoked. Buy a tin—today.
