

PRESIDENT GRAHAM PLANNING BIG TRIP

Will Boost the Game in Every City on the Tri-State Circuit

Plans for a visit to every city on the Tri-State circuit have not been completed by President George Graham. He is now in communication with the various owners and representatives as to the most convenient time for the trip and expects to announce his schedule within the next few days.

President Graham has notified Reading and Trenton that he will assist them if necessary in trying to locate good men.

The one big improvement in conditions this season will be of great help to managers will be the elimination of the individual salary limit of $150. President Graham wants it cut out and is of the opinion that it will prove a great help to the Tri-State game, as there will be more experienced players remain in the Tri-State ranks this season and less likelihood of other leagues getting their services by reason of better offers.

On the question of an increased limit President Graham will not commit himself until he hears from all owners and is of the opinion that there may be a slight increase in order to be able to compete with other leagues in the same class as the Tri-State.

Harrisburg Tossers Will Meet York Five

Harrisburg tossers will go to York Wednesday night for the fourth game in the series with the All-Collegians of York.

Harrisburg has won two and York one of the games played so far this season. The White Roses are going to do their best, it is said, to win the game here this week. If a fifth game is necessary, the toss of a coin will decide on which floor it will be played.

The York Daily says: "The Harrisburg team will need no introduction to York fans, for they who witnessed the game here earlier in the season admit it was one of the best played at the Coliseum this year. The York line-up has been greatly strengthened by the addition of Bredbenner and there is no reason why it will not be able to prolong the series. Bredbenner will be with the locals for the remainder of the season, according to Manager Gardner last night. It was also announced that Ralph Barnes will rejoin the team this week and will replace J. Cole at guard. Cole was obtained to play at center, but Manager Gardner is perfectly satisfied with the work of 'dusty' Bredbenner and will not keep the Harrisburg man."

"HOME-RUN-BAKER" FATHER OF TWIN GIRLS

Seafood, Del. Feb. 3.—John Franklin Baker, of Trappe, Maryland, the famous third baseman of the Philadelphia Athletics, who did not sign with Connie Mack until January 17, is the happiest man on the Eastern Shore to-day. The stork visited the Cambridge Hospital yesterday and left twin girls.

As Baker is the owner of valuable farm lands in Maryland there has been a rumor that he would soon quit the game and devote his time to poultry raising on a large scale. In reply to a question regarding this, he said, "do not expect to continue playing longer than this season."

Allentown Fighter Draws With Kilbane

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—Eddie Moy, the pride of Allentown, realized his ambition last night in the same ring of the Olympia A. A., where less than a month ago his featherweight aspirations were sidetracked in the fifth round of a scheduled contest set to be by Champion Johnny Kilbane, the little man with the big wallop. This time Moy stayed the limit with the title holder and for so doing he was carried from the rosin boards to his dressing room on the shoulders of his advisers.

To go through six rounds of milling with the Kilbane fighting machine was as much as a victory for Moy despite the fact that the champion clearly demonstrated that he was a more finished exponent of the art of self defense.

Tri-State Game Gets Boost in Re-election of Cockill

Fans All Over Harrisburg Commend Local Officials For Their Action Yesterday

Baseball fans throughout Harrisburg were again given emphatic proof yesterday that the men back of the Tri-State team here intend to do their part in bringing about a game of a higher standard in the re-election of George Cockill to manage the team. The popular manager lost no time in giving notice that he would have a hand in furnishing good sport for local patrons when he said: "I believe the Tri-State game this season will be somewhat different from that of the fans have been getting for the past three seasons. In my opinion the race will be closer. There is a concerted movement in the interest of young players and I believe a league that will show a close fight all season is the one organization that will have the big crowds at all the games.

"It is my intention to pick a fast team. I had a bushel basket filled with letters from youngsters who want to play with Harrisburg and I have also heard from a number of good men who have had experience and are anxious to get into the Tri-State. If the individual limit is eliminated I believe the Tri-State will furnish baseball that will attract attention."

Syracuse Man Hanged in Williamsport For Murdering Young Girl

By Associated Press. Feb. 2.—John Erbel, a steel mill boss and former resident of Syracuse, N. Y., was hanged in the county prison here to-day for the murder of Grace Stidfole, a 20-year-old girl of the underworld. Erbel's attorneys made a hard and long fight to save him from the gallows, the Governor respiting him several times so that his case could be taken before the Board of Pardons. His execution was delayed two hours in a final effort to secure a reprieve from the Governor.

Just before he went to his death, Erbel declared that later he made him irresponsible when he shot the girl.

Winged Feet the Latest Thing For Tango Dancers

Winged feet—that's the newest thing for the tango. Dainty and exquisite wings on the shoes of the ladies is now considered the proper thing in dancing footgear. Boston shoe manufacturers have met the demand for the latest in tango wear with this innovation which New England society is said to have received with delight.

Local shoe merchants have heard the murmurs of the approaching style and one Market street man said this morning that he would display the new style in his windows within a short time.

He says the wings are set on elaborate buckles which can be taken off the shoes.

Man Who Shot Self Is Likely to Die

After spending the entire day in saloons trying to forget his domestic troubles, Allen K. Cupples, of 17 Juniata street, Enola, shot himself in the abdomen while standing on the front porch of his home. Cupples made the attempt on his life while talking to his brother Charles, hiding the pistol under his coat.

At the Harrisburg Hospital this morning it was said that the condition of the man is critical, and little hope for his recovery is given. Cupples made a statement last night, saying that he shot himself because of domestic troubles, and though he had not lived with his wife for some time, he loved her. He said in his statement "This is the cause of it all."

Thinking of Quality

These days, most men when they think of a smoke, think of King Oscar 5c Cigars

It's the way quality always affects the mind. Its influence is simply irresistible. Think of soap, silver, flour and what not and the quality kinds are the ones you instinctively think of.

It's a good thing, too.
