John H. Myers Talks

Special to The Telegraph Reading, Pa., Feb. 5.—John H. Myers, of Lancaster, president of the Reading Tri-State team, was in Reading when he declared that this city the league and that it will be a farm

Referring to the selection of a man ager, Mr. Myers said that owing to war between the big leagues and the Federals, which prevents the owners from making definite negotiations he is unable to say at this time who

"NICK" YOUNG IS BLIND

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—Nicholas E. Young, secretary of the National League of Baseball Clubs, when it was organized, its president from 1885, to 1902, and familiarly known by baseball fans by "Uncle Nick," has lost eyesight with advancing age.

During the last few years his sole interest in life has been in witnessing big league games here.

STATE TAKES UP BASEBALL

Every manager signed up to date in the Tri-State favors the elimination of the individual salary limit and an increase in the monthly figures that will put the standard of baseball in the league on a par with other leagues of the same class. The general opinion prevails that there will be less incentive to override the salary limit rules if an increase is allowed,

STATE TAKES UP BASEBALL

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 5.—A State baseball commission of three members is proposed in a bill introduced in the Legislature yesterday by a New York city Assemblyman.

The commission would have supervision of all games to which admission fees are charged. Five per cent. of the gate fees would go to the State.

Carbon in Coal

It's the life of fuel—it's the factor that determines its best efficiency, its worthiness as fuel.

Kelley's Coal is fresh from Pennsylvania's famous anthracite veins and has that known quality of carbon richness that gives the largest percentage of heat with least waste of ashes and clinkers.

Imit rules if an increase is allowed, and the $150 individual monthly limit wiped out.

A change in the Salary arrangements to opinions expressed by both owners and managers, give the league a standing that has long been desired. Youngsters with ability will show a greater desire to play in the Tri-State known ing that good work will bring a return in salary. Every club in the Tri-State would have an equal chance to wim a pennant.

The backers of George W. Heckert, who will manage the York Athletic Club. These directors were chosen at a meeting last night: J. J. Gerry, George W. Heckert, H. S. Schmidt, George Stalman, W. W. McClune, H. F. Kohler, Irwin G. Shedrick and Arthur G. Fry. Heckert was elected manager. It was decided to hold a banquet to stir up interest in the local club before the opening of the season. The gazets of honor will be Governor Tener and the new president of the league, George M. Graham.

Manager Heckert is now in a position to go ahead and map out his plans. He has already sent out contracts to a number of the players who were with York last season.

Heckert will have to get four new pitchers. Last year's staff consisted of Milliman, Shaw, Williams and Schmidt. Of these Shaw is with land the property of the New

Lancaster Tossers

Lancaster has a team of tossers that as been making good. There is a CENT. OF DEATHS AMONG HOGS has been making good. There is a probability that Tech will not have its regular line-up because of a mix-up in last Friday's game, which, according to opinions expressed yesterday, makes a Tech player the "goat" and bars him from playing until he "kowtows" to the person offended. Tech had a lively scrimmage with the scrub team yesterday. The Crescents, a strong local five which includes several Tech students, will play the scrubs between the halves to-morrow night.
