

REPUBLICANS LINE UP WHILE THEIR OPPONENTS FIGHT

Movement Back to the Party Never Stronger Than It Is in These Lively Times

DEMOCRATS' WIDE BREACH

Wilson Declared Not to Be Taking a Hand—Bull Moosers Divide Over Governor

While Democrats and Washingtonians are engaged in factional warfare over who shall have the State nomination plums, the return to the Republican party of the men who left it in 1912 for Roosevelt or for Wilson is growing greater day by day.

Yesterday's developments in State politics are significant. The announcement of A. Mitchell Palmer that he would be the Democratic candidate for senator and that Vance C. McCormick would be a candidate for governor brought a yell of defiance from the camp of the Old Guard and was promptly met by inspired dispatches from Washington that the President of the United States would send cabinet officers to Pennsylvania to help net out the Democrats who did not bow the knee.

Democratic War Is Epoch-making, Declare Noted Democrats

Briefly stated the Democratic situation is that President Wilson is being claimed, as the sponsor for the Palmer-McCormick ticket, although up to date nothing in the way of a direct statement has come from the astute gentleman in the White House.

TOLL EXEMPTIONS PROVISION OF CANAL LAW IN CONGRESS

Repeal of Section Is Administration Measure Backed by Wilson

WILL END ENGLAND'S PROTEST

President Will Probably Deliver Message Before House and Senate

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—Repeal of the toll exemptions provision of the Panama Canal law was before Congress to-day as an administration measure backed by President Wilson.

Although a repeal of the section which would give free passage to American coastwise ships through the great waterway involves a practical repudiation of one of the planks of the Democratic platform adopted by the Baltimore convention which nominated President Wilson, administration leaders are pressing for action in the House and began lining up their forces in the Senate, where the hardest fight will come.

G. HOG, ACCUSED OF FOOLISHNESS, IS AT LAST ACQUITTED

Br'er Woodchuck Would Chuckle Today If He Wasn't Asleep in His Hole

REPORTER IS HIS ATTORNEY

In Rambles Through Slush the Cold Truth Is Gathered For the Jury

If the "proof of the pudding is worth two in the bush" why are not a few of the facts herein related proof that a certain groundhog who scampered to cover on Monday was a "wise father who knows his own sun."

Briefly the facts are these: On February 2, 1914, G. Hog leaving his winter home for a minute blinked at a bright sun, and scampered back to a hole in an old tree. Certain enemies of his constitution and signs of scrofula said there was nothing to it.

Publicity and Pure Foods

Publicity has done more to raise the standard of food products in the last few years than has any other cause.

To-day the leading advertised brands on the market are standards of food quality. Their names are household words standing for purity.

The use of these advertised brands is growing because they have made good.

It does not pay to advertise a poor food product—and the manufacturers and dealers know it.

Notice the food products that are advertised here from time to time and you will see that they are the brands whose names are known the country over as standing for distinct quality and character.

It is a safe and profitable rule for you to give your patronage to the dealers who feature these advertised products.
