Stackpole's Shooting Was a Big Feature

Special to The Telegraph
Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 9.—In the game played here Saturday night between Cornell and Yale basketball teams Stackpole was the big star, not only for Yale but in the game, but he got poor support from his teammates, and Cornell snowed the Elis under by a score of 40 to 26.

Stackpole's shooting was a sensation and his work at forward also attracted much attention. His goals were all from difficult angles and because of the interference of Cornell had to be made at lightning speed. The Cornell leader, Captain G. C. Halsted, was also a star and his new line-up was responsible for Yale's downfall. The line-up and summary follow:

Olsen, f.	Cornell.
Stackpole, f.	Louden, f.
Smith, c.	Brown, f.
Wilson, c.	G. Halsted, c.
Wheeler, f.	H. Halsted, g.
Substitutions, Cornell, Cross for Louden, Haeblerie for G. Halsted, G. Halsted for H. Halsted, Yale, Arnold for Olsen, Swihart for Wheeler, Goals from field, Brown 4, Louden 3, G. Halsted 6, Jandorf, T. Halsted 2, Olsen,

Prohibition Up as Big Issue in Next Campaign

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—The spread of prohibition sentiment in the United States in the last year has made a deep impression on leaders in Congress. The events of that period, when viewed in the light of the ambitious program that the temperance advocates have set for themselves in the immediate future, are causing much serious thinking and some anxiety on the part of members of Congress who look beyond their noses.

In fact many of the leaders in the national legislature believe that they already see the prohibition question looming as a national issue. They fear the time is near when a constitutional amendment providing for national prohibition will be submitted by Congress to a referendum of the States.

As the result of the passage of the Jones-Works bill the city of Washington now finds itself on Sundays as dry as a burnt bone. A club member cannot even get a drink in his own clubhouse on Sunday and foreigners who like a little wine with their dinners have to be content with "near beer" if they are stopping at the hotels.

Playwright Gives $50,000 to Assist Shackleton on His Antarctic Expedition

By Associated Press

New York, Feb. 9.—The reason Sir Ernest Shackleton has been able to announce that he has finally collected the necessary funds for his Antarctic expedition, to start from Buenos Aires in October, is that Sir J. M. Barrie, the playwright, a friend of the late captain Scott, has come forward with the remaining $50,000, according to announcement made here today. Captain Scott was Shackleton's chief, they point out, and Mr. Barrie therefore regards the Shackleton expedition as a fulfillment of an ambition that Captain Scott gave his life for. The object is to cross the South Polar continent, a distance of 1,700 land miles.

Great Singers Must be "Tobacco Wise"

Tuxedo is the Tobacco Chosen by Opera Stars

MEN who depend upon their voices come to know tobacco as the ordinary smoker never knows it. A sensitive throat or mouth feels the slightest sting, bite or scorch of tobacco.

Tuxedo is the one tobacco which singers, actors, public speakers—all men who guard their throats zealously—can smoke with pleasure and safety.

Tuxedo tobacco cannot sting, bite or irritate the delicate membranes of the mouth or throat.

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo tobacco has made thousands of men converts to the pipe, because it has made pipe-smoking possible for them. Under the famous "Tuxedo Process" the mild, tender leaves of the highest grade Burley tobacco are so skillfully treated that Tuxedo burns slowly and affords a cool, mild, thoroughly enjoyable pipe smoke.

Leading men in all walks of life—well-known doctors, lawyers, ministers, lecturers, etc.—smoke Tuxedo and testify to its soothing influence on the throat.
