Employees of Steel Company Banquet at Mechanicsburg

Special to The Telegraph

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Feb. 9.—Fifty-four men of the frog and switch department of the Pennsylvania Steel Company enjoyed a banquet at the American House in this place on Saturday evening. The menu included chicken, waffles and oysters. Pink carnations and ferns decorated the tables around which gathered the merry company. With B. A. Hankin, of Harrisburg, as toastmaster, speeches were made by G. S. Vickery, superintendent of the department; W. M. Henderson and C. A. Langdon, assistants.

Fickleness of Woman Proverbial, Says Kunkel

Another echo of the Jacob-Louisia M. Snyder divorce suit was heard in the Dauphin County Court this morning when President Judge Kunkel granted a rule upon the woman to show cause why the court's order against Snyder for maintenance should not be discontinued. The divorce suit was heard by a jury and Snyder got his divorce. He in many years his pretty wife, senior; she is a trained nurse, and he proposed, was developed at the trial, during his coquettishness. Exceptions have been filed to the jury's finding and the divorce has not been handed down.

Counsel for Mrs. Snyder wanted to filed a bill for additional counsel fees, but the court decided the financial status of Snyder would have to be first shown. Judge Kunkel smilingly advised counsel to await the probable outcome of the divorce proceeding.

"Fickleness of woman," said the court drily, "is proverbial."

TWELVE ABOVE ZERO

Twelve degrees was the lowest figure reached by the mercury in the last twenty-four hours. At 8 o'clock this morning the low mark was reached, and there was not much of a rise all day. During the night the thermometer continued to drop from twenty-four degrees at 8 o'clock last night. It will continue cold and fair to-night and to-morrow.

AGED TREE PLANTER DIES FROM PARALYTIC STROKE

James M. Christman, aged 76, of Fort Hunter, died at 7 o'clock yesterday morning from a stroke received three years ago.

For nearly fifty years Mr. Christman lived in Perry county, near Duncannon, where he was in the lumber business and did fruit and shade tree planting.

Mr. Christman planted more trees in this city than any other man in Harrisburg. His plantings included elms in Front street, Second street and in front of churches and school buildings.

He is survived by one son, John A. Christman, two daughters, Laura I. and Cora A. Christman, and one granddaughter. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his home. Burial will be made in River View Cemetery, Heckton, Pa.

LUMB ADMITTED TO BAR

Captain George F. Lumb, this city, for several years deputy superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Police Department, to-day was admitted to practice at the Dauphin county bar. Captain Lumb, who has been reading law with W. H. Earnest, was presented for admission by that attorney.

JOIN FIGHT ON SALOON

After downtown ministers and residents had voiced the protests of the people against the proposed saloon of "Pat" Sullivan at 854 South Cameron street in a mass meeting at Trinity Lutheran Church yesterday afternoon petitions against the saloon were signed by every one at the service.

Hotel, Post Office and Store at Dietrich, Destroyed by Fire Yesterday Afternoon

Elizabethtown, Pa., Feb. 9.—Yesterday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock the Dietrich post office, one mile south of this place, burned away, with all the contents. The building was used as a hotel, post office and general store.

The proprietor, Harry McLaughlin, and his family had gone to Westfield, N. J., to visit his home and had left the place in charge of another man, but this man left the place on a visit, and while away it took fire. A passer-by saw the flames and gave the alarm, but the high wind soon had full sway and only a few things were saved. The icehouse and pigsty were also burned. The cause was a defective flue, as near as they are able to state. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Some of the mail was saved, but the equipment was burned.
