HARRISBURG MAN IS GOING UP LADDER

Walter S. Buck Makes Good at Scranton; Leader in Y. M. C. A. Campaign

In the whirlwind membership campaign held last week at Scranton by the Young Men's Christian Association of that city one of the ablest leaders in the work to get new blood into the association was Walter S. Buck, formerly of Harrisburg.

Mr. Buck had charge of Division A of the campaign workers and he succeeded in rounding up 596 of the 1,776 members procured during the campaign, or 186 more than any other division.

Mr. Buck is the son of Chester Buck, of Camp Hill, and his success has been quite notable in Scranton, where he is general agent for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. Young Buck was graduated from the Central high school, this city, and from Lehigh University. At the age of 25 he was appointed local agent for the Connecticut company at Pottsville, Pa. Eight months later he was transferred to Scranton. Last year Buck, who is now thirty, broke all previous business records at Scranton by writing more than half a million insurance for his firm.

Several years ago Mr. Buck married a Harrisburg girl, Miss Amelia Stuart Weakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Weakley.

Ensign; "Gavotte" from "Mignon," Mrs. Bauscher and Mrs. Lebo; "Barcarolle" from "Les Contes de Hoffman," Mrs. Kent Gilbert and Mrs. Edward O. Pardoe; overture from "Carmen," Miss Nicolls and Mrs. Kehr; vocal solo, "Ave Maria," sung to the "Intermezzo" of "Cenerentola Rusticana," Mrs. Charles W. Hardt.

BRILLIANT MILITARY BRIDAL AT CARLISLE

Miss Rachel Shearer Marries Lieutenant Carlton Edwards of the Army

The handsomely-appointed supper-bridge given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George B. Tripp at their residence, 113 South Front street, was in compliment to their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Munson Havens, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Havens is secretary of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, and made an address before the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce Saturday noon.

Baskets of primroses and garlands of Southern smilax adorned the dining-room and the table flowers were pink roses with tiny electric lights hidden in flower shades.

In the party were the Governor and Mrs. Tener, Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. William Baird McCaleb, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Z. Wallower, Dr. and Mrs. John Oenslager, Miss Letitia Brady, Lyman D. Gilbert, Dr. Henry M. Stine, Henderson Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp Hosts For Cleveland Guests

The marriage of Miss Rachel Shearer, a prominent vocalist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shearer, of Graystone, near Carlisle, to Lieutenant Carlton Ula Edwards, of the coast artillery corps, United States Army, was a brilliant event of Saturday evening in the Allison Methodist Episcopal Church, Carlisle. The ceremony, performed by the Rev. Dr. W. A. Hook at 5:30 o'clock, was marked by military pomp and attire. Miss Elsie Klepfer played the wedding music, giving the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as a professional and the Mendelssohn wedding march as a recessional for the bridal party.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was never more attractive than in her bridal finery of white satin and old rose, with tulle veil arranged cap fashion, with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. James Gibbs was matron of honor for her sister, wearing lavender charmuse with chiffon overdress and carrying a sheaf of pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Harriette Sturck, of Carlisle, in a frock of pink charmuse, and Miss Rose Snyder, of Shepherdstown, Va., in white charmuse with pale green chiffon draperies. Both carried arm bunches of pink roses.

Lieutenant J. M. Lindt and Lieutenant Joel Wheelock, of the coast artillery service, attended the bridegroom, and the ushers included W. B. Renner, of Washington, D. C.; Abram Besler, of Carlisle; James L. Gibbs, of Harrisburg; James Shearer, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Joseph and Rippey Shearer, of Carlisle.

Following the church services a reception was held at Graystone, where congratulations and good wishes were showered on the young couple by a host of friends. The wedding journey includes New York and New England, with a brief residence at Fort Washington, Md., before leaving for Panama, where Lieutenant Edwards has been ordered.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Edwards, of Clarion, Pa.; parents of the groom; Colonel Heistand, ranking officer of the adjutant general's department; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Renner, Mrs. Alwida Rousseau and Miss Viola Matlock, all of Washington, D. C.

LITTLE LAD RECEIVES GIFT OF AN OLD CLOCK

Among the gifts sent to little Calvin Groover, of 2833 North Sixth street, yesterday, on his sixth birthday, was a clock 250 years old, belonging to the Groover family for seven generations.

The timepiece is of excellent workmanship; the works are of intricate handmade gears and brass work. The hands have a curious shape and the dial is equipped with a month calendar. The frame and body is of dark walnut.

The clock bears the date 1662 and has been in the family's possession since its manufacture in Germany. It was originally owned by an ancestor of Mrs. Hannah Groover, of Trenton, N. J., grandmother of the boy, named Singoose, and was sent to this country from the Fatherland about 100 hundred years ago and kept at her home in New Jersey. She has just had the clock repaired and cleaned.

Mrs. Chauncey Thorpe, of 1635 Market street, gave a small card party on Saturday evening.

Miss Sanders, of St. Paul, Minn., who spent the week-end with Mrs. Henry L. Rittenhouse, 917 North Seventeenth street, left yesterday for Pinehurst, N. C.

Miss C. Mabel Dohs, of 230 Hummel street, has returned home after spending the week-end in Philadelphia.

Mrs. W. Orville Hickok and children are home after a short stay in Williamsport.

Miss Alice R. Eaton, City Librarian, is spending a month in Louisiana.

Mrs. Charles E. Penny has returned to her home, 605 North Fifteenth street, from New York city.

Gettysburg Music Clubs in Concert This Evening

The combined Glee and Musical Clubs of Gettysburg College, giving a concert this evening at Fahnstock Hall, will be greeted by a large audience, as they are most popular in this city. The program is an attractive one.

The event is in charge of the Harrisburg-Gettysburg Women's League, which help support the Y. M. C. A. secretary at the college.

Authors Club Continues Its Study of Germany

The Authors Club meets this evening with Mrs. Henry F. Quicke, of Pine street, and the study of Germany will be continued.

Papers have been prepared by Miss Fannie L. Johnson on "The Peace of Westphalia"; Mrs. Gmweke on "Sources of Strength of Germany. Left by the War"; Mrs. Lewis M. Neiffer on "The Dissolving Empire." Mrs. Crowl will read "The Beleaguered City," by Longfellow.

STORK NEWS

CENTRAL PROFESSOR TRAMPS OVER EUROPE

Increases Knowledge of Languages by 3,500 Mile Jaunt Through Many Lands

Professor William D. Meikle, the new instructor in French and English at the Central high school, had arduous training last summer when he tramped 3,500 miles through the countries of Europe, completing his mastery of the French language.

After graduating at Pennsylvania State College in 1911 Mr. Meikle obtained his master's degree. Last year he started abroad and with the idea of coming in closer touch with the people of the countries he tramped from one country to another. He was in Europe six months of last year.

Starting from Cologne, Professor Meikle followed the Rhine into Switzerland, crossed the Alps through the Brenner pass into Italy and visited Venice, Florence, Naples and Rome. He then went to Paris by way of Geneva, Marseilles and Lyons. In Paris he completed his study course. He visited Metz, Germany, before his return home.

Van York and Kronold in Angelus and Cello Recital

Assisted by Mrs. Bumbaugh, soprano, and Miss Sara A. Lemer, violinist. Board of Trade auditorium, Wednesday evening, February 11. Admission free.

An attractive program has been arranged for the Angelus and cello recital to be given in the Board of Trade auditorium, Wednesday evening, February 11, under the auspices of the J. H. Troup Music House.

A feature of the recital will be the playing of the Mr. Van York, who will furnish all accompaniments on the Angelus player-piano.

America can boast of no greater artistic personality than Hans Kronold, cellist; and both Mrs. Bumbaugh and Miss Lemer are sufficiently well known to make the occasion a rare musical treat.

Tickets of admission can be secured by making request at the store of the J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.

Valentine Parties Feature of the Week

Valentine parties will be among the social events of the week, with clever decorations of Cupids, hearts, bows and arrows and roses. "Love's own flower."

Among the entertainers will be Miss Anne Hutman, whose dance at Hershaw's Hall Thursday evening celebrates her engagement to Gilbert Oves; a dance at the Country Club of Harrisburg Friday evening with Miss Anne McCormick and Vane C. McCormick, hosts; a luncheon and tea with Mrs. A. Wilson Norris, at 207 North Front street, Saturday; dinner and cards with Miss Elizabeth Ziegler, of State street, Saturday, and supper and cards with Miss Irma Williams, 402 South Fourteenth street, Saturday.

'FAGGED-OUT' WOMEN Will Find Help in This Letter.

Overworked, run-down, "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about should profit by Mrs. Brill's experience.

She says: "I was in a very weak, run-down condition. Life was not worth living. I could not sleep, was very nervous, stomach bad, and was not able to work."

"I consulted with one or two physicians, without benefit. I read of Vinol helping someone in a similar condition so I began to take it, and it simply did wonders for me. I gained health and strength than ever. I can not find words enough to praise Vinol."—Mrs. W. H. Brill, Racine, Wis.

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength-creating effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money.

George A. Gorgas, Druggist, Harrisburg, Penna. Vinol is sold in Steeltown by T. Prowell.

P. S.—For rough, scaly skin try our Saxon Salve. We guarantee it.—Advertisement.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, soft and abundant.—Advertisement.
