INSURANCE PROBE TO BE HEARD HERE Investigation Will Be Held in This City Some Time During the Early Spring COMMISSION IS VERY BUSY

News of the Day Found About the Departments of the State Capitol Building

The Baldwin Fire Insurance Commission, which has been turning over the methods and practices of companies and underwriters in Philadelphia and Pittsburg will meet here some time during the early spring.

The commission adjourned last Thursday after some hot hearings in which witnesses were threatened with arrest if they did not answer, and will meet in York on February 24. It will hold hearings at Erie and Scranton in March and probably visit Wilkes-Barre and Reading.

Busy Week On—This will be a busy week at the Capitol. The Public Service Commission meets tomorrow, the Board of Pardons on Wednesday and the Armory Board and Water Supply Commission on Thursday.

Johnson's Ideas.—Emory R. Johnson, Public Service Commissioner, has written a signed article for the Philadelphia Ledger on Panama Canal tolls. He was the expert who worked out the scale of tolls and takes the position that exemption of coastwise shipping is not good economy and is, moreover, in violation of treaty obligations.

Spending the Money.—Some of the cities and boroughs in the anthracite region have already begun to spend the money they expect to get from the State in the way of the hard coal tax. Most of them will use it to buy fire apparatus and hose.

Public Service.—The Public Service Commission at its meeting tomorrow will consider a number of petitions for the approval of contracts between municipalities and service companies. On Wednesday the taking of testimony in the matter concerning uniform telephone rates throughout the State will be resumed and the petition of the Consolidated Water Company for process to prevent the borough of Conoverport from constructing a water plant without obtaining approval of the commission will also be heard.

Kick on Fare.—C. D. Greeno, J. H. McCartney, W. S. Fiskus, Westmoreland county, has filed a complaint against the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Greensburg Railway Company because the rate of fare between Greensburg and Jeannette was, on November 1, 1913, increased from 5 cents to 10 cents. They allege that the 10-cent rate is exorbitant, unjust and unreasonable.

State Charters.—Letters patent have been issued to the following new corporations: Rich & Co., inc., tobacco, Marietta, capital $1,000; South Fifth Street Building and Loan Association, Philadelphia, capital $1,000,000; Erie Lithograph Co., Erie, capital $50,000; E. R. Beldridge Co., sand and rock, Holderness, capital $1,500; J. H. Long, hardware Co., Orwigburg, capital $15,000; Lansdale Pure Food Co., Lansdale, capital $5,000; Mt. Vernon Orchard-Lumber Co., Pittsburg, capital $15,000.

Penalties on Bills.—The Public Service Commission has been asked to pass upon the right of a water utility to demand a penalty for failure to make payment of a quarterly water bill at a specified time. The complaints have been made from York, Charleroi and Doerflinger. This is the first time the question has been raised before the commission.

The commission will meet Tuesday and begin a series of hearings on contracts between municipalities, applications for charters and complaints.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN ENHANSPIRE ROYALTON OBERLIN ENHAUT EVERYONE URGED TO GO TO CHURCH

Steelton, Highspire and Oberlin to Gather in Churches on March 1

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY MARCH 1

In an effort to have every person in Steelton, Highspire, Oberlin and Enhaunt attend at least one church service on "Go-to-church-Sunday," March 1, a letter has been mailed to practically every resident in these towns by the Ministerial Association.

The letter gives a number of important reasons why every person should go to church and strongly urges that every parent have his entire family in church on March 1. The "People of Steelton, Highspire and Oberlin: "God's Blessing be to you.

Members of Class 23, of the First Methodist Church were entertained by Mrs. George Walley, at her home 201 Lincoln street. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Nellie H. Boyder, of the former May Street Park who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fletcher. Games and music helped pass a pleasant evening. Refreshments were served.

At a meeting at the home of Miss Ethel Metzger, Saturday evening, the O. M. A. C. Club, a secret organization was formed. Fifteen girls were enrolled as charter members and the following officers were elected: President, Miss Mary Long; vice-president, Miss Ethel Metzger; secretary, Miss Jane Dougherty; treasurer, Miss Margaret Souders.

Charles S. Crick, recently promoted to assistant of the Philadelphia terminal division of the Pennsylvania railroad, is a former Middletown man. For several years he was an assistant supervisor stationed here. He is a graduate of Lafayette College and has been with the Pennsylvania Railroad since 1877.

A pretty valentine party was given Saturday evening by H. V. B. Garver in honor of the members of his class in the Methodist Sunday School. The members of the class presented Mr. Garver with a large valentine in the design of a valentine. Refreshments were served to fifteen guests.

Mrs. John A. Ulrich entertained the members of the "Do Little Club" of Harrisburg, at her home, 239 Lincoln street. Among the guests were Mrs. Frank Downey, Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Seymour, Miss Belle Wagner, Mrs. Weirich, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Smelzer, Mrs. Neardood, Mrs. William Nickey, Misses Jessie and Bertha Ulrich.

Sneezing? There's no need of it. Sniff a little Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly.

SUFFRAGE WILL NOT CURE ALL THE ILLS

Dr. McCuaig Says It Will Come, But Adds That Vote Can't Do Everything

That woman suffrage will come, but that it will hardly correct all the evils predicted for it, was the conclusion reached by Dr. J. Aspinwall McCuaig in his lecture, "Woman's Relationship to Man," before an audience of women in Zion Lutheran Church this afternoon.

"The sore trouble that exists to-day has come about because man has been untrue to his responsibility," said Dr. McCuaig. "The laws that prevail are of his making, but in no place where he has spoken has he placed woman on an equal footing with himself."

STATE TREASURER'S FRIENDS SAY INQUIRY

[Continued from First Page.] death and added that there was no evidence of criminal wrong doing on Kennedy's part.

Accountants at Work Expert accountants began an examination to-day in the finances of Kennedy's department. Employees of the State Comptroller went into every detail of the accounts a week ago and found everything in excellent shape.

Mr. Kennedy's successor will be chosen by the Legislature in joint session. Attorney General Carmody to-day expressed the opinion that a majority vote of all the elected legislators would be required to select a new treasurer. In that event, it was pointed out, the Republicans would have to receive assistance from the Progressives or else face the possibility of a deadlock in case the Democrats stood together.

Speaker Sweet Believes Accounts Are Straight

New York, Feb. 16.—The suicide of State Treasurer John J. Kennedy in Buffalo on the eve of his examination of the State Treasury in this city to-day, will not halt the inquiry into his office and affairs. This was indicated to-day by members of the Assembly graft investigation committee, known as the Sullivan committee. It was said that the committee would probably authorize an immediate investigation, following its meeting in Albany to-night to select counsel for its grant hunt.

Kennedy's Friends Want Complete Investigation

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 16.—A complete investigation of the affairs of former State Treasurer John J. Kennedy, who committed suicide yesterday, was demanded to-day by his friends and relatives here. Confidence was expressed that such an inquiry will disclose that the affairs of the State Treasurer's office have been incorrectly administered.

No explanation of the suicide was forthcoming to-day other than that first given out, that Mr. Kennedy took his life while temporarily deranged, and that the derangement was caused by brooding over the impending ordeal of cross-examination at the hands of District Attorney Whitman, who had subpoenaed the State Treasurer to appear in New York to-day.

Mr. Kennedy killed himself yesterday in the Harrisburg lodges where he lived with his wife, son and daughter. He cut his throat with his razor in a lavatory adjoining the ballroom of the hotel. The body was found by his son.

50TH BIRTHDAY OF PYTHIAN ORDER

Preparations for the celebration of the golden jubilee of the Pythian order—the third largest fraternity in America—have been going on in 7,000 cities of the United States and Canada. The Harrisburg lodges have made elaborate plans to do their part in the country-wide observance.

WILKES-BARRE PUBLISH Suffragists to Publish Wilkes-Barre Newspaper

Wilkes-Barre, Feb. 16.—The women of Luzerne county will publish the Times-Leader for the issue of March 18, which will make an epoch in local newspaper history. On that date the publication of the Times-Leader will be taken over by the local league of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association.

There will not be a line of news or editorial matter appearing in the paper on that date that will not have been written by the women in charge. The editor-in-chief for the Times-Leader issue of March 18 will be Miss Katharine Speer of Harrisburg, publicity manager in this State for the association.

The business manager will be Mrs. H. H. Harvey, of Wilkes-Barre. The edition will be of course be a memorable one. The advertising will be solicited by the women in charge, and all advertisements except those bound by contract, will be censored and copy considered improper will be blue-penned. There will be no copy prepared for the woman's edition by any member of the Times-Leader staff.

The editorial staff will be given a holiday and will not report at the office for assignments. Friday girls will be engaged as "newsies" and the preparation and sale of the paper will be in complete control of the Suffrage Association. Only the men employed in the mechanical departments of the Times-Leader will be engaged on the issue. Already several other newspapers in the State have written to Miss Speer, offering their formal reception will follow.

W. E. Cherk the new head of the safety department of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, has started a movement to insure greater safety to the big army of employees at the local plant. Committees of workmen will be appointed to co-operate with the safety department by reporting dangerous places and making suggestions as to how to improve dangerous conditions, and a book of safety rules has been distributed.

WILL DECIDE UPON FIRING OF POLICE CHIEF

Forrer, as park superintendent, will not be presented to-morrow in Council, it is said the names of more than a dozen policemen were included in a resolution of which the way was paved by the so-called "ripper."

Considerable surprise over the report of the dismissal of Colonel Hutchinson was manifested throughout the city. The City Planning Commission in the city, as the general impression had been that the present Chief would be retained.

The City Council's rumored intention to dismiss V. Grant Forrer, as park superintendent, has aroused equally widespread comment. However, the impression prevails in city circles to-day that Forrer's removal is largely talk, and talk alone, and that the chances are that he will be retained after all.

Miss Minnie Lasky, of 39 North Front street, will return from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Washington, D. C., on February 22. Joseph Yoselewitz and family, of Steelton, N. C., are visiting relatives in Steelton.

Funeral services for Elizabeth Fleich, 11 years old, were held in the German Lutheran Church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. C. F. Fleiman officiated and burial was made in the Lebanon hospital. Friday, from the results of burns received when her clothing was ignited by the attempt to open the door of an overheated stove. The body was brought to the home of John Picklehoff, Mohn street.
