For the first time since the State began, taking over the various propters in the Capitolic Park zone the question of exoneration of county taxes in so far as the time of assessment and levying of the mill rate are concerned was are concerned was are concerned was called to the attention of the County Commissioners to-day.

Thee of the properties which had been sold early in February or the latter part of January were turned over to the County Commissioners with a request for exoneration. The tax rate was fixed for the year ending in January.

Mrs. Kate Edwards, the Reading murderess, must remain in prison another month at least. The State Board of Pardons to-day continued the case under advisement pending the receipt leased from prison.

Mrs. Edwards' counsel were present to give any further information on the case desired. When the board rose Dr. Deysher and District Attorney Heinly were summoned into the meeting and discussed the situation. Letters had been filed with the board by people who were willing to care for the woman.

One of the interesting events of the session to-day was the appearance of Miss Dolly J. O'Dea, of Scranton, as attorney for a man who had commited forgery. She made a plea for

MARKET IMPROVEMENT LIFTS UNION PACIFIC

Street Assumed No Definite Aspect Until Shortly Before Noon; Bonds Steady

By Associated Press

New York, Feb. 18. — The market assumed no definite aspect to-day until shortly before noon, when there was a general rise in prices. Prior to that time the movement was narrow and hesitating. Selling of Great Northern, Pfd, and Union Pacific gave the list at times a vectionary trend.

Pfd, and Union Pacific gave the list at times a reactionary trend.

The improvement which eventually took place lifted Union Pacific, United States Steel, New York Central, Pennsylvania and Lehigh Valley a point over yesterday's close, and other leading shares nearly as much. New Haven made up most of a loss of 1½.

Bonds were steady.

with a request for exoneration. The tax rate was fixed for the year ending in January.

The question the commissioners raised was whether or not the properties had been purchased before the tax rate for 1014 was levied. The law provides that the lieu or charge for taxes against the property becomes a fact upon the date the tax rate is fixed. This problem will be left up to the county's legal adviser.

Want Witness Fees for Crumpert.—As soon as a solicitor has been definitely determined upon to take up the duties left unfinished by Major F. M. Ott, the County Commissioners will take up the question of a claim of $155 for witness fees for Ernest Crumpert. Crumpert was confined in jall as a witness in the State asylum murder case.

Walter Appointed Auditor.—A. Ross Walter was yesterday appointed auditor by the Dauphin County Court to distribute as soon as possible the balance of $233.35 from the W. Howard Eby estate, which Sheriff H. C. Wells got permission to pay into court. The sheriff's request was necessary because of a dispute between the Harrisburg Trust Company and some of the heirs as to claims.

Auditor to Sit.—William M. Hain, auditor appointed to distribute the balance in the estate of D. Luther Jauss, will sit at 10 o'clock Thursday, March 5, for the purpose in the law library. The Commonwealth Trust Company is the executor.—Upon application of the Auditor General's Department the Dauphin County Court yesterday appointed Robert Brannan, Philadelphia, receiver for the First Russian Slavish Bank, Philadelphia.

C. Howard Lloyd has been selected by the School Board of Milton as the architect to prepare the plans for a new $75,000 grade building to be erected in that place.

Mr. Lloyd was one of forty-nine applicants who wanted to design the building. Twenty-eight of these submitted plans. Mr. Lloyd won out in the competition by showing examples of his work. The directors visited the schools he designed in this city when they where attending the States Directors' convention two weeks ago, and were so pleased with the school buildings designed by Mr. Lloyd here that he was awarded the job without having to submit a set of plans. The building is to contain sixteen rooms, will be erected of brick trimmed with stone, and is modern in every way. THE Harrisburg Polyclinic Dispensary will be open daily except Sunday at 3 P.
