BEEKEEPERS TO

Annual Meeting at the Capitol Today

The beekeepers of Pennsylvania began their tenth annual convention to-day in the House, caucus room at the Capitol this afternoon and will spend the rest of to-day and to-morrow talking over the business.

There about about 25,000 beekeepers in this State and their product is worth $1,000,000 a year. State Zoologist Surface is president and will make a report on the State bee inspection work and how diseases are reducing the crop. It is estimated that there are over 75,000 hives, of which the State has been able to inspect but 6,700.

To Put an End to All Superfluous Hair

Advice to Ladies Who Have Been Deceived and Disappointed BY A SPECIALIST

Thousands of ladies and even young girls have learned to their sorrow that it does not pay to trifle with hairy growths on the face and arms by trying to remove them with worthless pastes, powders and liquid depilatories that smell awfully and burn like mada. A well-known woman who succeeded in entirely and painlessly destroying all trace of her hairy growth has arranged to put on public sale the scientific discovery that cured her after all else failed. It is a simple, inexpensive, harmless and amazingly effective treatment which she has called Mrs. Osgood's Wonder. It never fails to remove all trace of superfluous hair absolutely without pain or injury to the skin or complexion and in a surprisingly large number of cases has killed the hair roots so it has never returned. You can get it from Kennedy's Medicine Store, or any up-to-date druggist or department store, on the guarantee of money back if it fails. Ask for it by name. BRUMBAUGH BOOM

State Association Holding Its Tenth Friends of Philadelphia Superintendent Are Boosting Him For the Nomination

Friends of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh in this county and Cumberland have become very active in his behalf since general mention of the Philadelphia school superintendent's name for the Republican nomination for Governor has been heard. Dr. Brumbaugh, who was formerly at Juniats College, Huntingdon, is a member of the State Board of Education and is well known in this city because of numerous speeches he has made.

It is probable that if he consents to run that nomination petitions for him will be circulated here. Harrisburgers who have been in Philadelphia and eastern counties lately say that the talk is all for Brumbaugh since it is regarded as doubtful that ex-Governor Stuart will be a candidate.
