FRIDAY EVENING,

Knights of Pythias Banquet on Golden Anniversary

Special to The Telegraph

Mechanicaburg, Pa., Feb. 20.—In celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the order the Milita Lodge, Knights of Pythlas, of this place, swung into line with the other lodges all over the United States and held a banquet, following the business session and initiation of candidates in the rank of knight. They were 8. S. Louden, Glen C. Morrett, Phillip Houser, Foster Lucas and Roy L. Walter. This makes fifteen men who have united with the order since the grand chancellor issued his proclamation for the celebration of the golden anniversary. With E. C. Gardner as toastmaster speeches were made by Dr. J. S. D. Eisenhower, W. B. Raver, of Harrisburg; Louis A. Diller and D. J. Beitzel. Music for the occasion was furnished by a brass quartet of members of the order. About sixtymen were present from Carlisle, Churchtown, Harrisburg and Mechanicsburg. The committee of arrangements included E. C. Gardner, C. J. D. Eckerd, E. S. Cocklin, George W. Hershman and D. J. Beitzel.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggist; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly back-ache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.
