"Relieved my Rheumatism"

—Yes, and after I'd been laid up all winter, had doctored, and tried everything I could think of, and was just about ready to give up the fight, the pain was so terrible—that's what Sloan's Liniment did for me. And it'll do as much for you."

Sloan's Liniment never fails. It's penetrating—goes straight to the sore spot—kills the pain. All you have to do is to lay it on lightly—no rubbing required.

STOPPED SHOULDER PAINS

Mrs. J. H. Blackwell, of Groton-on-Hudson, N.Y., writes: "I had rheumatic pains in my shoulders and back so bad I could not move without screaming. We happened to get a half bottle of Sloan's Liniment from a neighbor and it worked like magic; the second application relieved my suffering entirely."

RELIEVED SCIATIC RHEUMATISM

Mr. Perigo, of 647 W. 25th St., Des Moines, Iowa, writes: "We have used Sloan's Liniment for over six years and found it the best we ever used. When my wife had sciatic rheumatism, the only thing that did her any good was Sloan's Liniment. We cannot praise it highly enough."

VON DIEDERICH'S SAYS HE WAS PREPARED TO SHOOT ANY AMERICAN

Admission Made in Course of Narrative of Events in Manila Bay

Baden, Germany, Feb. 25.—Admiral Von Diederichs himself admits he informed the British naval commander in Manila bay at the time of the Spanish-American war that he would shoot any American officer who attempted to board a German warship "to make inquiry and establish her identity" in carrying out the orders of Admiral Dewey.

This admission was made to-day in the course of a further narrative of events given to the Associated Press. The controversy between Admiral Dewey and the German admiral arose over the visiting between the vessels of the various powers, which, according to Admiral Diederichs, was quite promiscuous. He admitted there was a certain justice in Admiral Dewey's complaint as to the German ships being constantly on the move, although this was necessary and in no way meant to be unfriendly.

Th bulk of the German squadron was about to be withdrawn, said the German commander, when the conflict arose over the right of visitation, and he then decided to retain his whole force there.

Admiral Von Diederichs blamed Admiral Dewey for the clash and intimated that it would never have arisen if the American commander had merely protested officially about two "trivial incidents" instead of firing shots in order to stop two German pin-aces. One of them was passing the American vessels and was held up because her flag was not showing plainly and the other was approaching the Olympia at night with a message and was not promptly identified. The German admiral felt that Admiral Dewey's action was decidedly unfriendly.

The American admiral retailed with an announcement that no ship commercial or naval, would be allowed to pass his line, he then announced his intention of sending an officer and to establish her identity."

The word "inquiry" apparently aroused the ire of the German admiral, who identified it even to-day with a claim to the right to cross-examine any German commander.

Admiral Von Diederichs says he discussed the situation with the British commander and told him that he would board any officer attempting to carry out this order of Admiral Dewey.

A substantial victory for the Germans was claimed by Admiral Von Diederichs in the final settlement by which any arriving warship was to report itself to the American command and afterward was required only to show its flag.

ECHO OF CLASH IN CHURCH HEARD TODAY

Pair That Wanted to Be Married Ask For a New License

One more echo of the church factional clash in the congregation of St. Nicholas' Serbian Orthodox Church developed in the County Recorder's Office to-day, when John Fedorovic and Anka Zupan, of Skelton, heard and asked for a license to wed. The bride and groom-elect, respectively, gave their ages as 21 and 22. Court-house attaches, who declared Anka the prettiest foreign girl who has turned up in the license bureau in many a day, hardly believed the statement. They said she doesn't look to be more than 15.

The age problem is one of the causes of the split between the Rev. N. D. Vukobratovic, former rector of St. Nicholas, and his congregation. Some time ago the pair got a license in Northampton county, but were never wed. Just as the ceremony was about to be performed the rector declared he wouldn't marry the two, because the bride was younger than she had stated. The other faction said it was because he didn't get a big enough fee.

Inspector Grove's First Permit.—Building Inspector James H. Grove to-day issued his first building permit. This is for the erection of the new combined Bethel A. M. E. Church and parsonage, at Ash and Briggs streets. It will cost $19,000. The structure will be of brick. The Bethel is one of the colored churches removed by the proposed extension of Capitol Park.
